PLANS COMPLETE

Steelton, Oberlin and Highspire Veterans to Pay Tribute to Comrades

Plans for the observance of Memorial Day in Steelton, Oberlin, Enhaut, Highspire and Bressler have been completed and the programs announced.

Members of the Sergeant Samuel Lascomb Post, 351, G. A. R., will be in charge of the services at each of these places. Veterans of the borough will attend St. John's Lutheran church tomorrow morning when the Rev. G. N. Lauffer will preach the annual memorial sermon.

Today, the members of Sergeant Lascomb post will meet at G. A. R. hall, North Front street, at 8 o'clock, preparatory to the visit to Highspire where fitting tribute to the soldier dead will be given.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the celebration at Oberlin will get under way. While Steelton veterans will constitute the firing squad for the final tribute to Oberlin's soldier dead the remainder of the program will be in charge of local men.

Oberlin Program

The program at Oberlin includes: Selection by Oberlin Band; "America," the audience; invocation, the Rev. C. H. Heiges, of the Enhaut Church of God; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the audience; "The Gettysburg Address," selection by the Oberlin Band; oration, the Rev. H. S. Keffer, pastor of Neidig Memorial United Brethren church; services by the G. A. R.; "Onward Christian Soldiers," the audience; benediction, the Rev. Mr. Brunner, of the Bressler Methodist church; decoration of graves.

The Steelton celebration will be held in the afternoon. With a parade at 1.30 the services will open. Any lodges or other organizations desiring to participate should communicate with Harry Blaker, chief marshal, or C. E. Scott, chairman of the memorial committee. A brigade of boys from the Sunday schools will parade with flags. The Highspire Drum Corps will furnish music.

The annual Memorial Day oration will be delivered by County Solicitor Philip S. Moyer a fluent speaker, who has delivered similar orations in former years here. Attorney Moyer's address will be the feature of the afternoon's celebration and will be followed by the final salute from the gray-haired firing squad and "Taps."

99 Graduates Receive Diplomas at Transfer

Ninety-nine grammar school graduates received certificates of promotion into the high school at the annual transfer exercises in the high school auditorium last evening.

The Rev. George N. Lauffer, of St. John's Lutheran Church, delivered the principal address and the diplomas were presented by W. F. Dunbar, president of the school board. The first part of the program was arranged in keeping with the spirit of Bird Day in Pennsylvania. The second part referred to patriotism. The Rev. Mr. Lauffer spoke at length on "Having a Vision and How to Attain It."

PRAISE STATE'S GUARD SERVICE

Governor Issues General Order Praising Militiamen For Strike Duty

Pennsylvania National Guardsmen were given the highest praise by Governor Brumbaugh for their service in the recent strike in a general order issued last night. The order was the result of the Governor's personal inquiry into the way the strike duty was performed.

The order, issued by General Stewart, is as follows:

"The Governor and commander-in-chief directs the publication of the following:

"To the National Guard: These of your number who so promptly reported for active service in compliance with general orders No. 14, A. G. O. c. s., and general orders No. 2, headquarters division, dated May 2, 1916, are deserving of the thanks of all patriotic citizens. These men in an incredibly brief time were on duty in connection with disturbances in Allegheny county and in answer to the urgent appeal of the sheriff of the county. They entered upon their duties in a soldier-like manner, and to their credit and honor of the Commonwealth conducted themselves in a most praiseworthy way. Order was at once restored. Not a single action was necessary save the usual and proper performance of the duty assigned them, and in a brief time all were withdrawn and returned to their several duties as citizens of the Commonwealth.

"The officers and men demonstrated anew the fine spirit of the citizen soldiery of Pennsylvania and added dignity and honor to their creditable record.

"The commander-in-chief wishes to commend all of them, and expresses the hope that they and their comrades of the National Guard of the State may continue to maintain the high standard of efficiency manifested by these officers and men."

Schoolboy, 6, Makes His Own Spectacles

Indianapolis, Ind., May 23.—The ingenuity of a six-year-old schoolboy won the hearts of the City Health Board and as a result the lad wins a nice pair of spectacles. While examining the eyesight of school children the inspectors found the lad was short-sighted. They ordered his parents to buy glasses for him.

After several days elapsed the lad showed up at school with a pair of home-made spectacles. His folks were too poor to buy any. He had twisted broom wire about two pieces of glass he had broken from a milk bottle. The little fellow stoutly contended he could see very well with his own specs. But the Health board has ordered him a pair at the city's expense.

State Poultry Adviser Will Address Meeting

W. Theodore Wittman, poultry adviser for the State Department of Agriculture, will talk on poultry work next Tuesday afternoon at the Beaufort Farms, when E. B. Mitchell, proprietor of the place, will welcome visitors to the agricultural field meeting to be held there.

Mr. Wittman will speak chiefly on incubation, brooding and feeding. Another feature of the meeting will be a demonstration of a Mogul tractor by the International Harvester Company. The public has been invited to be present, particularly farmers and poultry keepers. Automobiles will meet the Rockville cars at the Linglestown road, one-half mile from the Beaufort farms.

Loses Fine Chickens, but Finds Thief's $70

Danville, Ill., May 23.—Mrs. William Decker, a farmer's wife, sold two dozen fine chickens to a buyer last week. The buyer asked Mrs. Decker to shut the chickens up in a coop, saying he would call Saturday. When Mrs. Decker went to the coop the chickens were gone, but a roll of bills containing $70 was lying on the ground.

A few hours later the buyer arrived. The first the farmer's wife knew of his presence was when she saw him examining the ground near the coop. He asked where the chickens were and was told they had been stolen. She didn't tell him about the $70 and he asked no questions.
