Know of No Arrangement to Send Railroad Work to Harrisburg Shops

Railroad officials in Harrisburg know nothing regarding work being sent from the Western Maryland Railroad from the Western Maryland Rallroad shops, at Hagerstown, to this city. A Mispatch from that city says:

"Between 400 and 500 machinists employed in the Western Maryland Rallroad Company's shops, in this city, will go on a strike if the company refuses to grant them a cent and one-half an hour increase in wages. This was determined upon at a meeting of the machinists held vectored by the Eggles' Hall chinists held yesterday in Eagles' Hall nere.

"It is understood that the railroad company has given orders to close the shops in the event of a strike, and the company, it is reported, have ar-he company, anged to have their repair work done an Harrisburg."

Local officials here said they were not aware of a prospective strike of machinists at Hagerstown; that no arrangement had been made for taking care of any special work, and owing to the busy times at local shops that would be impossible.

TWO KILLED IN COLLEGE FIRE

HEAR OF STRIKE Students Lose Lives Trying to Save Records at Penn, Oskaloose, Iowa

> By Associated Press Oskaloosa, Iowa, May 27. — Two men were killed, two probably fatally injured and property damage estimated at between eighty and one hundred thousand dollars wrought by the fire which at 4 a. m. to-day broke out in the main building of Penn College here.

Robert H. Williams, business man-ager of the college and State secretary of the Prohibition party and Harry Oakley, a freshman, were killed. George Minear and Howard Kelley, students, are in the hospital and may the

The fire started in the biological laboratory on the second floor of the building and reached a tank of alcohol which exploded, scattering the blaze

Buried Under Debris
Williams and Oakley were killed while attempting to save the college records. The fire reached the cupola and the four ton college bell crashed down through the building, wrecking the front wall and burying the victims under tons of debris.

Minear and Kelley are believed to have suffered internal injuries. They were hurt while rescuing the S. A. M. Evers art collection in the chapel hall. This collection is said to be worth fifty thousand dollars. Defective electric wiring is believed to have started the fire.

Ogden, Lansdowne, Delaware county, and Robert M. Rorer, Richboro, Bucks county, given notice earlier in the day, are all "regular" Republicans and come from senatorial districts whose senators were not in sympathy with the Ambler candidacy and who are generally classed as Penrose men. Some of the men dismissed scouted the statement that they were dropped on efficiency grounds and declared it was nothing more than politics. They sharply criticized the Auditor General and some said they had never heard of complaint of their competence. Three of the men contributed to the Powell candidacy, but got checks back. The whole trouble has been brewing for some time.
Chief Clerk W. B. Kay declined last night to add to his statement of yesterday that the men had been dropped for "the good of the service and for conduct and language subversive of discipline and efficiency," Mr. Powell was not here when the dismissals weren't out, but it is said will stand by them and any more to be made.

taken as an ill omen. About half the men of the force have not been paid yet. Monday is being awaited with mixed feelings.

The Inside seems to be that there has been more or less feeling in the department for a year and some of the dismissed men hint at "department politics." It is said that some of the men who contributed to the Powell personal campaign fund did so with a lot of grumbling and that they complained so much and assailed their bureau chiefs to such an extent that the chiefs demanded that the Auditor General let them make some examples. Mr. Powell told them to go ahead and left the city.

Governor Brumbaugh went from here to Quarryville where he dedicated a school and made a speech on agriculture yesterday and then went on to Philadelphia, where he will remain until Monday. The Governor is said not to be in sympathy with the proposed "housecleaning" on the Hill, but his advisers are demanding that some examples be made. The result will be made known when he returns Monday.

The collapse of the charges of frauds and the fact that the allegations in Northumberland county are not "panning out" the way expected may have something to do with the sharp tempers of some of the Governor's henchmen. They insist, however, that they have had nothing to do with the Powell decapitations as they are a matter for the head of a department not under the Governor.

The removals, if they occur, will come quickly for the time until the State committee and the national delegates meet is growing short.

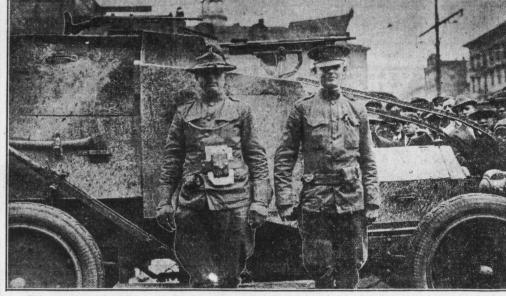

Reports that State Treasurer Young contemplated some change in his department were laughed at to-day.

The Capitol was keenly interested to-day in the statement of Senator Penrose that there would be harmony at Chiego. This statement we gar-

The car is traveling over the U nited States under the direction of the National Security League, of New York City. The car is a 1912 Reo truck, equi pped for the purpose of traveling over rough roads. It is in charge of Private W. Forrest, who is seen on the left in the picture. Sergeant Frey is standing to his right.

H. Forrest, Machine Gun Company, Eighth Infantry, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia (corresponding to the National Guard in this State), and Sergeant Harlen Frey, Machine Gun Company, Third Infantry, National Guard of the District of Columbia, on board, is on its way to Pittsburgh enroute to San Francisco and Jack by way of Santa Fe and Albuqueque. The car left Boston on April 8, and will get back to the Hub city the latter part of July.

A clever arrangement on the front of the automobile for cutting wires and preventing entanglements, a heavy as periscope, a supply of explosives, for the purpose of blowing up obstructions along the road, and all the other paraphernalla of an up-to-date, fully equipped armored car are a part of the equipment. Mr. Forrest, by the way, expressed himself as heartily in favor of rederalizing the National Guard, and expressed it as his belief that the country should have a standing army of at least 500,000.
