1916 GRADUATING CLASS OF HUMMELSTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

War Veteran Gets $3,000 Back Pension For Service

Special to the Telegraph
York, Pa., May 30.—Jacob H. Rahn, aged 73 years, a Civil War veteran living in North York, has received $3,000 back pension money from the United States Government, with a monthly allowance of $25. The pension dates back to 1879, since which time Rahn has been trying to have the stigma of desertion removed from his record.
Rahn was injured in one of the many battles he was engaged in, and then, while mentally unsound as a result of the wounds, he wandered about the country and failing to return in time for his muster out, he was officially charged with desertion. It was his second enlistment. Rahn still carries a bullet in his head, according to recent X-ray pictures taken by order of the government. Rahn enlisted from Cumberland county and Sergeant Kuhn, of Carlisle, gave the evidence which really clinched Rahn's case.

BLIND ORGANIST PLAYS

Special to the Telegraph
Falmouth, Pa., May 30.—The Rev. John Morrison, of Steelton, pastor of the United Brethren Church, preached on Sunday evening. A number of selections were played by the Givers orchestra and a solo was sung by Miss Maude Coyle. Miss Coyle is entirely blind, but plays the organ in the church for all the services.

SERMON TO 1916 CLASS

Special to the Telegraph
Dauphin, Pa., May 30.—Sunday evening, the Rev. K. Robb, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the 1916 class of the Dauphin high school. The members of the class wore caps and gowns for the first time and marched down the aisle of the church. An augmented choir rendered appropriate music and the church was crowded. Assisting the Rev. Mr. Robb were the Rev. Francis J. S. Morrow, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Rev. H. C. Lutz, pastor of the United Evangelical Church.

OLD FOLKS' DAY

Special to the Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., May 30.—Two of the oldest men living in this section took leading parts in the "old folks' day" exercises held Sunday in the United Brethren Church at Myersdale. John Miller, aged 86 years, conducted the devotional services and his brother, Joseph G. Miller, aged 87, delivered an address. Many persons present were from 75 to 80 years of age and the service was an old-time class meeting.

Dr. White Leaves Bulk of Estate to Work of Healing

Special to the Telegraph
Philadelphia, Pa., May 30.—Dr. J. William White, eminent surgeon, left the bulk of his estate to continue the work of healing, to which he gave the greater part of his life. In the will, which was admitted to probate yesterday, are bequests totaling more than $100,000. The largest of these is a gift of $150,000 to endow the "J. William White professorship of surgical research" in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. Indirectly, the University shares in still larger gifts. The will specifies that after the death of Doctor White's widow and two brothers, the residuary estate is to be divided into three equal parts. One part is to revert to the Maternity Hospital of Philadelphia. A second is to go to the University of Pennsylvania for maintenance of beds in a special ward, and the third to the University of Pennsylvania in trust, the income to be used for promotion of physical education and athletics at the University.

Geared Up

The proper balance of physical and mental powers for efficient endeavor are directly related to certain mineral elements—phosphate of potash, etc., in one's daily food.

These vital properties—often lacking in the usual dietary—are supplied in splendid proportion in the famous pure food

Grape-Nuts

Made of whole wheat and malted barley, this delicious food is long baked, hence easy and quick of digestion yielding a wonderful return of mental and physical energy.

Grape-Nuts comes in the form of crisp granules of nut-like flavor, ready to serve directly the package is opened. With cream or good milk, Grape-Nuts is a splendidly balanced food and makes for efficiency.

"There's a Reason"

Once in a While a Man Says to Me

"Curtis, you give too much for the money! Your paper is too big. I can't read it all!"

If you go to a hotel or restaurant and inspect the bill of fare, do you feel that you have to eat all it sets forth? You select what you want. If the bill is limited and omits your favorites, you condemn it, and condemn the whole house, and go elsewhere thereafter.

Any busy man will find time to read that which particularly interests him or his business.

In the Public Ledger he will find more of the news which interests him, than in any other morning newspaper. If he will cultivate that fixed habit of reading the Public Ledger regularly for six months, he will know just where to find his news—it's there!
