

Wonderful Skin and Wrinkle Removers

The method of removing bad complexion by absorption seems to have come into general use in this country. Ordinary mercerized wax, applied nightly like cold cream and erased mornings with warm water, gradually absorbs the coarse, faded or discolored outer film skin in almost invisible particles. Soon there's a brand new complexion, formed by the younger, healthier under-skin. No cosmetic or artificial treatment can possibly produce a complexion of such radiant, youthful loveliness. Druggists all have mercerized wax; it is seldom that more than one ounce is necessary. Thousands have also reported great success with the famous saxonite wrinkle-removing formula. One ounce of pure powdered saxonite is dissolved in a half-pint witch hazel and the solution used as a face wash. The effect is almost magical. The deepest wrinkles and crow's feet, as well as the finest lines—whether due to age, illness, weather or worry—are immediately affected. No one need hesitate to try this simple lotion, as it won't harm any skin.

HUGHES IS IN RECEPTIVE MOOD

Will Accept If Nominated, but Will Not Resign Bench to Enter Race

Special to the Telegraph Washington, D. C., May 31.—Rumors about the attitude of Justice Hughes towards the Republican nomination, ranging from a report that he would shortly announce his determination to remain on the bench to the assertion that he would resign and announce his active candidacy if assured there would be no third ticket, were set at rest yesterday by a definite statement from one of his closest friends that:

Justice Hughes will not resign from the bench to become a candidate for the Presidential nomination. He will make no formal statement of his intentions for use by his supporters in Chicago. He will issue no statement of his views on the important national questions which will figure in the campaign. He will not issue a statement, taking himself out of the race, for the excellent reason that he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination, has not been a candidate, and will not be a candidate. There is no political offer before him for consideration.

Would Accept if Nominated If the Republican National Convention should nominate Justice Hughes, he would consider it his duty to accept the nomination as a call for service from the public, whose interests in the convention are directly represented by the elected delegates. According to the closest friends of Justice Hughes, who have talked with him within the past twenty-four hours his position is precisely as set forth. He does not feel that he is asking the convention to take him on good faith. He is asking nothing. He has stated his position several times in the past. He has stated that he is not a candidate for any office that he will not permit the use of his name as a Presidential candidate, and he has refused to give any copies of his earlier speeches which might be used now in furtherance of his candidacy.

Neither Frank H. Hitchcock nor any other political manager is authorized to speak for Justice Hughes. This statement is made authoritatively. Any campaign that is being made in behalf of the former Governor of New York is unauthorized. Under no circumstances will he resign from the bench. If the Republican convention should nominate him for President he would then resign.

Tablet Marking Site of Fort Granville Dedicated

Special to the Telegraph Lewistown, Pa., May 31.—On Friday last the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, in co-operation with the committee of Historical Research in Mifflin county, erected a tablet marking the site of Fort Granville, an important post in pioneer days. There was nothing left of the heavy timbers of which this fort was constructed to show its actual location, but historians agree that it was on the west bank of the Juniata river one mile above the mouth of the Kishacoquillas creek. The tablet, a bronze bearing the coat-of-arms of the State of Pennsylvania and the following inscription: "About 650 yards south of this place, on the high bank of the Juniata river, was the site of Fort Granville, which was erected in 1755-56. This fort was twice attacked by the Indians. It was destroyed July 30, 1758, when in command of Lieutenant Edward Armstrong, who was killed in battle with a large body of French and Indians. The entire garrison was either killed or carried into captivity." On the afternoon of Memorial Day the dedication took place, the P. O. S. of A. band, furnished the music. Opening remarks were made by G. R. Fryinger, the chairman. An original poem by George F. Ross, of Harrisburg, was read by the Rev. M. S. Cressman, D. D. There was an address by Thomas Lynch Montgomery, curator of the State Historical Commission. The unveiling of the stone was by Mrs. Harriet Woodruff, great-granddaughter of the original owner of the land upon which Fort Granville was built.
