

To-morrow We Will Begin Our Sixth Anniversary Sale

An Event in Which Merchandise of Startling Worth Will Be Specially Low-Priced in Celebration of the Occasion

Six years ago this business was launched in Harrisburg in a rather unpretentious way. It was a new idea in merchandising—the offering of merchandise within the price limits of 1¢ to 25¢—and its success was phenomenal.

The policy was not an elaborate one—simply honest merchandising—the utmost in quality at the minimum in price—a policy in which the customer and the store benefited alike.

To that line we have hewed—to that policy must be credited the growth of the business by leaps and bounds—a growth with which we have kept pace by the addition of new departments and greater service—bringing the store to a higher degree of efficiency than ever.

And now for eight days we are going to celebrate a Sixth Anniversary Sale in which special prices will prevail in every department. And each day there will be offered for the one day only, an Extraordinary Anniversary Special. They will be advertised each day in the papers, and will from time to time be displayed in our windows. It will pay you to keep posted.

partment to-day to obtain more definite information of the disposition of Carranza troops in Chihuahua. It was said that the tone of Carranza's note prompted the action of military officials without regard to the diplomatic phases of the situation.

To Outline Situation

General Funston has been asked to outline clearly the situation in Chihuahua according to his most recent information of the whereabouts of Carranza detachments. No anxiety is felt for the safety of General Pershing's column, but in view of the statements in General Carranza's note it is desired to know as accurately as possible what the movements of his forces are. It was explained at the War Department that the real mission of the expedition at this time was to prevent attacks upon the wide sections of the border controlled by its position in Mexico. As a question of military strategy it is considered that only a force disposed as are General Pershing's troops could accomplish that.

Raid Now Impossible

A large border garrison or patrol, it was pointed out, might repel an attack but could not make it impossible. With General Pershing's forces ready to break up any attempt by bandits to assemble a force for a surprise attack on an American border town, officials feel that renewal of raiding within the zone controlled by his forces is virtually impossible.

Cavalry patrols are active through the territory on both sides of General Pershing's base and his line of communications and war department officials hold that a condition of complete security is being maintained in this region and along the border, despite the allegations of the Carranza note that the expedition is "interned in Chihuahua State" lying idle and with no military object, its position constituting a continued menace to the peace of the two countries.

No additional troop movements were in contemplation to-day so far as known.

Situation Not Serious

There was no indication at the State Department that the developments had produced an urgent situation. A reply made to the effect that a week or ten days. Various inaccurate statements it makes will be pointed out. References to the effect of American domestic politics upon the border situation, the suggestion that all Latin-America is waiting to see what the United States will do to maintain its protestations of friendship and the reference to American trade in war munitions with Europe probably will be wholly ignored, although it is understood they would have brought a sharp rebuke if any less perplexed and disordered government had taken such a course.

The reply probably will point out that Major Langhorne's detachment penetrated nearly 200 miles into Mexico in pursuit of the Bonillas raiders, without encountering one Carranza soldier.

Gen. Pershing Will Confer With Gavira Late Today

Colonla, Dublin, Mex., June 1. — Every preparation has been made for the proposed conference on military co-operation between Gabriel Gavira Carranza commander of Northern Chihuahua and General Pershing. It is believed the informal talks will begin late to-day.

General Pershing declined to make any comment on the conference. No place for the meeting has been chosen, although General Pershing to-day received a Carranza captain, who called to inform him of General Gavira's arrival and suggest the station at Nuevo Grados as the place for the meeting.

General Pershing made the trip by motor from field headquarters near Namiquipa, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Cabell, his chief of staff, his personal aid, a stenographer and interpreter and a small guard.

The Public Ledger

gets lots of news no other paper has, through its own correspondents, who supplement the Associated Press and other news agencies. It is a superior NEWS-paper—not the cheapest, but the best; sells for two cents a copy—ten cents per week; no premiums thrown in.

I sell nothing but a newspaper—the best money and brains can make. I rely on you to support it for what it is—a constructive attempt to give the State a daily newspaper intelligent Pennsylvanians will be proud of, a paper that will be a credit to Pennsylvania and Philadelphia.

If you are satisfied with less than the best because it is cheaper, this advertisement has no appeal to you. But are you? Try the Ledger for six months and see!

The Financial and Business Section alone is almost a complete newspaper. It contains the news of YOUR BUSINESS—whatever that business is—most of it news not found in any other paper.

The Public Ledger is worth more to you than its cost of two cents a copy, or ten cents per week. TRY IT. Try it for six months; drop it if you don't like it—but TRY IT, and find out its real value to YOU and YOUR BUSINESS.
