Maternity! The Word of Words

It is written into life's expectations that motherhood is the one sublime accomplishment. And if there is anything, no matter how simple, how apparently trivial it may seem, if it can aid, help, assist or in any way comfort the expectant mother, it is a blessing. And such is a remedy called "Mother's Friend."

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY MAJESTIC--Vaudeville and Motion Pictures. PAXTANG PARK--Vaudeville. COLONIAL--"A Wife's Sacrifice" (Mantell). REGENT--"The Heart of Paula" (Ulrich). VICTORIA--"Sherlock Holmes" (Gillet).

PLAYS AND PLAYERS Billie Burke, star of "Gloria's Romance," changed her costume ten times in an hour and a half during the performance of her work at the studio a few days ago. It isn't all fun being a film star.

Quite an idea this, from Stuart Holmes, shortly to be seen in the Fox production of "East Lynne." It has always been a mystery to me why canoe anglers do not put handles on the bottom so that the fish would be things capsize there will be something to grab.

Lillian Kingsbury, back in New York after a long season in "The Coward," will revive a former success for a few weeks in summer vaudeville. The feature has to do with the lighter side of "Lady Macbeth and her 'royal' spouse," as she calls Macbeth.

As part of the "Preparedness" campaign, the country, moving pictures of the "Preparedness" parade in New York, Saturday, May 13, were made by the Selig-Tribune.

LOCAL THEATERS The bill at Paxtang Park Theater this week makes a pleasing evening's entertainment. The feature is the vaudeville attraction of the park.

Anderson and Evans are the big laugh-provokers of the week. Their vehicle is a comedy entitled "On the Rocks." The balance of the show is all suffering from the grip, which is a vaudeville performance. Matinees will be given to-day and Saturday. All matinees at the park are free to children.

Yesterday saw the first show at the Regent of "The Heart of Paula," a Texas-Mexican romance, with scenes at the Regent from what is now practically a war time.

Lenore Ulrich, as Paula, displays a complete knowledge of flirting. Her first casual interest grows too rapidly for her and is the big theme of the story. The adventures, hardships, and suffering that this heroine has to undergo is the well-told plot of this production.

Victor Morley, late star of "My Best Girl," is featured in "A Regular Army Man," a musical military production by Victor Morley, Channing Pollock, Reynold Wolf and Clifford Crawford, at the Majestic the last half of this week. A company of twelve capable people is employed for this attraction. Completing the bill are "The Skatells," in a novel roller-skating act; J. C. Nugent and company, in a sketch entitled "The Great Detective Story," and two women and a man, in a novel comedy act, and Wilkins and Wilkins, man and woman, in a comedy singing and dancing skill.

To-day's presentation at the Victoria is A. Conan Doyle's great detective story, "Sherlock Holmes." The stage star, is featured in "Sherlock Holmes" at the Victoria. The play is seen in this seven-part photo-play adaptation of the greatest detective story ever conceived. "Sherlock Holmes" to-day also the Hearst-Vitagraph News Pictorial.

In producing "A Wife's Sacrifice," which is appearing at the Colonial Theater for the first time to-day, All-Star Cast in "A Wife's Sacrifice" William Fox assisted. The play is directed by Robert E. Mantell and Genevieve Hammer. The supporting cast includes Stuart Holmes, Walter Miller, Gladys Whitney, and many other well-known Fox stars. A new five-reel comedy-drama, will be the attraction for Friday and Saturday, entitled "The No Good Guy." It features William Collier, Edna Merkel will play the opposite role to Mr. Collier. Henry Gibbon, a new Keystone star, will be seen in a new Keystone comedy called "A Dash of Courage."
