Auto Spooners Block Roads; They Must Quit

Cleveland, Ohio, June 2.—Attention, lovers! Marshal Matthew F. Slavin announced last night that the high cost of living will be comparatively insignificant compared to the high cost of loving for those lovers who are caught spooning in automobiles along the dark highways of West Park village.

According to Marshal Slavin, young couples in automobiles at night have fairly blocked the dark Puritas Springs, Settlement and Harrington roads of West Park village for the last month.

"This must cease," the marshal said. Hereafter, according to the marshal West Park village law enforcers will not tolerate small speed automobiles, automobiles with lights turned out, or automobiles parked on the roadside. "Keep moving with lamps lighted," is the marshal's warning.

Must Pay Damages For His Love Notes

By Associated Press
Eau Claire, Wis., June 2.—James R. Watenphul, "the village blacksmith" of Augusta, Wis., hero of the "As the carburetor is the heart of the automobile, so is love the heart of the home" letter which he wrote among others to the wife of Dr. Fred. Watenphul's attorney announced helped a jury in Circuit Court here several weeks ago to award Dr. Smith $1,500 compensation and $500 punitive damages for the alienation of his wife's affections, was denied a motion to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial.

In denying the motion, Judge Wickham said several very vigorous love letters, introduced by the plaintiff and admitted by the defendant, seemed to have struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the two corresponding parties and for that reason he was forced to deny the motion. Watenphul's attorney announced they would appeal the case.
