LEAGUE PROSPECTS ARE ENCOURAGING---LOCAL SHOOTER WINS FOURTH PLACE

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

HARRISBURG CAN HAVE FRANCHISE

Up to Local Enthusiasts; Must Raise Money by Next Saturday

Harrisburg may get a New York State League franchise. It will depend upon the result of an effort to organize an association. The new company will be capitalized at $5,000. This nount is not needed to get a team, but it is proposed to make this effort a strictly business enterprise. To ascertain the feeling in Harrisburg and find out how much cash can be raised, a meeting will be held to-morrow night. Several local enthusiasts were busy to-day arranging for a place. It will probably be at Board of Trade Manager George Cockill and Walter Blair have expressed a willingness to help along the project. Several local enthusiasts have expressed a willingness to subscribe for stock. there is in sight $1,500. If Harrisburg is to have a team, a definite understanding must be reached by Saturday. It was expected that Leo Groom would be a part of the new organiza-tion, but his nonappearance on Satur-day has caused a doubt as to his in-day has caused a doubt as to his interests.

Officials of the Pennsylvania Exhibition Company said to-day that no plans for any other league would be considered until it was fully decided whether a New York State League Club was coming. It is proposed to have the season open here about June 15.

reague stars were in the line-up. Other protests will come up at a meeting to be held Wednesday night in this city. Throughout the city the teams are lined up and ready to play, but one and two innings had been played when the storm broke over the city. Several of the postponed games will be played off this week as twilight contests.

ENOLA DEFEATS PULLMAN

The Encla Shop traveling baseball team won its first victory at York, Saturday, defeating the Pullman Motor Car Company team, score 4 to 3. July

"Hy" Simmers' boys from Enola did not get down to business until the sixth inning when they piled up four runs. Rain stopped the contest.

The feature of the game was hitting of Bowman, pitching of Nichlas, and the work of Meyers in centerfield and Captain Jamison on first base.

RAIN STOPS AMATEURS

Rain put one big crimp in amateur and upper-end league games Saturday. Duncannon won from Marysville, score 4 to 1. Both teams entered a protest because a number of former State league stars were in the line-up. Other protests will come up at a meeting to be held Wedneday night in this city. Allentown or Pottsville. Local backers are getting uneasy in these towns, and would like to unload on Harrisburg or York.

Bob Gotham, a star member of the Pennsylvania Varsity eight, has been ordered to quit. It is said he has a weak heart. He has been a member of the junior crew for three years, and was considered a good man.

Billy Cranston has gone back to the short field for the Utes and he is filling the bill.

Kirkpatrick, of the Barons, continues to win praise throughout the circuit by his grand work at second base. The former Brookfed is determined to bat his way out of the league this season.

Mike O'Neill is not having an easy time of it at Syracuse, but O'Neill has a mighty good ball club, and it is generally figured that he will have to be really figured that he will have to be really figured that he will have to be will be seen with the Elmira Colonels. Hunter is batting hard and running the bases like a Cobb.

Mike Konnick has not been losing any baseballs for the Syracuse Stars, be but his work behind the bat has been excellent.

Tom Brown has been showing con-

Kane out of a regular berth on the club.

Lefty Robbins is behaving like one of the best southpaws in the State League. His work for the Barons has been giltedge.

Lew Wachter has been having a hard time of it getting his Trojans on the upward move. After losing thirteen straight, however, the club pulled together and is now giving some indication of being a ball team.

George Wiltse has developed a fighting spirit in Albany. The Senators are one of the best aggregations of the league and play heady baseball.

Wid Conroy claims Pitcher Dessau is one of the league's best flingers. From the way Dessau has been performing, Conroy seems to know what forming, Conroy seems to know what he is talking about.

Two More Tennis Titles Came to Miss Bjurstedt Special to the Telegraph

Special to the Telegraph

Philadelphia, June 5.—Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the tennis tournament monopolist, added two more titles to her list within less than an hour's actual play on the turf courts of the Merion Cricket Club, at Haverford, Saturday, winning the women's Pennsylvania and Eastern States doubles championship with Miss Eleanor Sears as a partner and capturing the mixed event in conjunction with W. T. Tilden, 2d.
As Miss Bjurstedt won the singles crown on Friday, she duplicates the performance of Mrs. Edward Raymond, of New York, on the same courts two years ago. In 1914 Mrs.
Raymond won the singles, the doubles with Miss Edna Wildey and the mixed doubles, curiously enough, with W. T.
Tilden, 2d.

The holder of the national turf, clay and indoor titles and her respective partners were not forced to extend themselves in either of the championship matches, Miss Dorothy Disston and Miss Suzanna White losing in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1, and Miss Sarah Myers and Allen Evans, Jr., succumbing 6-2, 6-1. A large gallery, garbed in all the colors of the rainbow, witnessed the matches from the clubhouse veranda and occupied the benches grouped around the championship courts.
