Morning Wedding in Bethlehem Lutheran Church

(The Froehlich Studio)

MRS. PHILIP FREDERICK ALDINGER

One of the prettiest of June weddings in its simplicity was that of Miss Helen Mae Koons, daughter of Mrs. Jerome Koons, 120 Boas street, and Philip Frederick Aldinger of York, taking place this morning at 9 o'clock in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Branches of mountain laurel full of blossoms and masses of pink and white peonies, with ferns adorned the altar.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Bradley Markward in the presence of the immediate families of the young couple and a few personal friends. Miss Clara Cromleigh played the wedding music with the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" as a processional, the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional and "O, Perfect Love," softly during the service.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a modish traveling costume of dark blue with tan silk collar and cuffs. Her white leghorn hat, faced with white had touches of pink in the trimming, and her corsage bouquet was of sweet peas and midget roses.

Congratulations and best wishes were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aldinger as they left the church to start at once for their honeymoon to be spent in New York, points in New England and Old Point Comfort. They will be "at home" to their friends in their newly-furnished house, 104 South Richmond avenue, York, after June 20.

The bride has been actively connected with the Bethlehem Lutheran Church for a number of years and has a host of friends who have entertained her lavishly at pre-nuptial events. Mr. Aldinger is a son of Frank Aldinger, an alumnus of the York High School and State College, is connected with the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. in York. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. H. A. Laened of Altoona; Mrs. Hazel Flurie, Newport; Miss Marjorie Baer, Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aldinger and Karl Aldinger, of York; Mrs. John Fanous, Miss Katharine and Miss Estel Farnous, of Enos; Mrs. William Famous and Miss Hilda Famous of Wormleysburg.

Local Suffragists Greet Party Going to Chicago

Bearing their mascot, a bronze elephant on a yellow standard, and armed with suffrage planks, symbolizing the purpose of their journey to the Chicago convention, a delegation of Pennsylvania suffragists from eastern counties filling a special car greeted local suffragists at the Union Station last evening. The party was led by Miss Ethel A. Shrigley, of Lansdowne, who has been in charge of all arrangements for the Pennsylvania end of the demonstration. Mrs. George Dunning, chairman of Philadelphia, made a short address from the platform of the car, declaring that they hoped to return with a real Republican party plank endorsing suffrage.

Demonstrations at Lewistown Junction, Tyrone and Altoona marked the trip to Pittsburgh, where another carload of delegates joined the party, swelling the number to seventy, who will march on Wednesday, including Mrs. George E. Orland, of Huntingdon, State president, and Mrs. John O. Miller, of Pittsburgh, first vice-president.

Among the local suffragists present were Miss Helen Clark, Miss Annie Laurie, Miss May Fox, Mrs. E. S. Everhart, of Lemoyne; Mrs. Charles Eiler, Miss Helen Shade, Miss Sarah Miller, Mrs. George Matson, Mrs. W. W. Hubbs, Mrs. Wilbur Harris and Miss Emma MacAlarney.

It is not what we earn, but what we SAVE that makes us rich. . . . The way to accumulate riches is to set aside something, no matter how little, from week to week or month to month.

For the salaried man, with thrifty habits, the Harris Building and Loan Association offers an unexcelled opportunity to lay aside a part of his earnings at a good interest yield.

You take as many shares as you can comfortably carry, on an installment plan of $1 a month for each share. If necessary you can withdraw at any time, but if you leave your money until maturity (about 143 months) you get back your entire investment, plus interest, which has always exceeded 6 per cent.

If you are looking for a safe place to invest your money at an excellent interest return, send for our booklet "The Harris Way." It explains our systematic method of saving.
