LEADERS IN WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS ACTIVITY

Delegates to the convention of the Women's Relief Corps, and Auxiliary to the G. A. R., had a busy day. Following the business sessions, a flag-raising ceremony was held this afternoon at Zion Lutheran Church, South Fourth street. The presentation was made by Teddie Kerling, of Gouldsboro, Pa., who is pictured above with the flag. The lower pictures are, on the left, Mrs. Mame Smith, Lancaster, president; and on the right, Mrs. Laura W. Willow, Johnsonburg, secretary.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS
Reports from the officers occupied the attention of the Women's Relief Corps delegates until late this afternoon when officers will be elected. The presiding officer, Mrs. Mame Smith of Lancaster made the opening address. Meetings are being held in the caucus room of the House of Representatives. The delegates adjourned this afternoon at 4 o'clock to attend flag presentation ceremonies at Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street. In accordance with the annual custom, of the Women's Relief Corps, a silk flag is presented each year to some local organization in the city where the high school meets. Several years ago the high school received a flag.
The exercises opened at 4.30 o'clock with prayer by the Rev. S. W. Her-

BLISTERS ALL OVER LITTLE BOY'S BODY

Sore Eruption With Itching, Burning and Loss of Sleep, Hair Came Out.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little boy's trouble began when a watery blister would raise up, and then break and where the water touched there would be another blister and then they would be all over his body. He had them mostly in his hair and around his mouth and eyes. They would break and then there would be a dreadful sore eruption, with an itching and burning and loss of sleep. The blisters also caused red marks that looked like scars of a burn, and his hair came out. "Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using them about one week, he was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Cleve Hall, Conesaut Lake, Pa., July 3, '15.

Teddie Kerling, patriotic instructor, department of Pennsylvania, of Gouldsboro. Prof. Walter C. Heiges accepted the flag for the class.
Elect Treasurer
The Ladies of the G. A. R. to-day elected a treasurer and counsel of administration as follows: Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Tripton, Pittsburgh; counsel of administration, Mrs. Louise Hollis, Philadelphia; Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Pittsburgh; and Mrs. Doris Rhoades, Scranton.
The officers elected late yesterday afternoon included: Commander, Mrs. Bert Shreiner, Pittsburgh; senior vice commander, Mrs. May Slattery, Pittsburgh; junior vice commander, Mrs. Annie Williams, Philadelphia; chaplain, Mrs. Anna Centica, Chester; counselor, Mrs. Emma Sharkey, Philadelphia. The organization will meet next year with the G. A. R.
Invite Veterans to Camp Curtin
The Rev. A. E. Williams and the officary of Camp Curtin Memorial Church to-day gave a pressing invitation to the delegates to the G. A. R. encampment to visit the new church which is being erected as a memorial to the camp where 100,000 Union men were drilled and trained during the Civil War. An American flag is flying from the highest point of the building.
Numbers For Junior Commander
To date there is no opposition to the election of Thomas Numbers of Post 58, G. A. R., as junior vice commander. His excellent record and long standing in the department has won for him strong popularity. He is mingling with his old comrades at department headquarters.
Danville has entered the field for the next convention and the soldiers from that district are busy campaigning. While Conneaut Lake enthusiasts have been on the job for several days, veterans from Sunbury, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Hazleton and other central Pennsylvania towns are pulling strong for Danville.

McLean Post No. 16 of Reading is represented by Jerome L. Boyer, Mahlon H. Shaaber, Albert Pannagan, Jonathan E. Ebling and H. A. Boyer. They arrived to-day and enrolled at headquarters. Reading also sent a large delegation of visitors who will remain in Harrisburg until Friday noon.
Boost Pittsburgh Man
When the comrades get down to business to-morrow, one of the first resolutions to be offered will be an endorsement of W. J. Patterson of Pittsburgh as candidate for commander-in-chief. The National Encampment will be held in Kansas City, Mo. Delegates elected from Pennsylvania will vote solid for Comrade Smith. The latter is a member of the Memorial Hall Commission of Pittsburgh, and was endorsed last year, but lost out in the election. This year he is said to be sure of the honor, having received the unanimous endorsement from G. A. R. members in other States.

ADDRESS BY DR. SCHAEFFER
Woodstock, Va., June 7.—Commencement exercises at Massanutten Academy took place on Wednesday evening, when the honorary address was delivered by Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania. The Massanutten baseball team had a record season, winning fourteen of the nineteen games played. The team defeated Harrisburg Academy by a score of 3 to 0.

AID FOR SHACKLETON'S MEN
Uruguay to Send Steamship to Rescue 22 Left in Antarctic
Montevideo, June 7.—The Uruguayan government will dispatch the small steamship Instituto Pesca to the rescue of the Shackleton expedition. The ship will leave Thursday.

Lieutenant Sir Ernest Shackleton, the Antarctic explorer, arrived at Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, with five men late last month. He left the main body of his expedition on Elephant Island, in the South Shetland group, where it took refuge after the ship Endurance was crushed on the ice. The Uruguayan expedition will attempt to succor the men left on Elephant Island, of whom there are 22. They probably are short of provisions.

"A sensible cigarette—that's what I want"
There are a number of good cigarettes on the market—Fatimas are not the only ones.
But Fatimas are the best-liked and best-selling of all cigarettes costing over 5c.
Of course, your taste may be different—you may not like Fatimas as well as all these thousands of other men do.
But you can't deny that they are worth trying—not only for the delicious taste that has made them so famous, but also to see just how SENSIBLE they really are—sensible because Fatimas are cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue at all times and because they leave no "mean" or "heady" feeling even though you may smoke more often than usual.

If you would prove how really sensible a cigarette can be—try Fatimas.
