

LEADERS CONFIDENT HARMONIOUS ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

ROOSEVELT MAKES SPECTACULAR MOVE TOWARD REUNITING PARTY

[Continued From First Page]

bility that this week may see the end of the bitter Republican feud born in this city four years ago. Leaders of the two parties who sought their beds...

Senator Borah, of Idaho, and other Republicans have been working hard for harmony for several days...

After several hours of work among the delegates, Senator Borah went to the conference with George W. Perkins of New York...

Senator Borah, of Idaho, and other Republicans have been working hard for harmony for several days...

Leaders declared that as soon as the conference committees were appointed, the convention would mark time while the conferees attempted to develop a plan...

When he declared a mention of Abraham Lincoln there was another roar of applause...

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

The rain which began yesterday morning continued over this morning. The flags, streamers and bunting with which the Coliseum was decked hung wet and dejected...

Police were at their stations early, as were firemen and nurses awaiting an emergency call.

Chairman Hillis, members of the national committee and policemen were already inside when the delegates took to their seats...

There was more applause when he referred to the war munitions traffic and declared it had produced a prosperity at the cost of human lives.

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

the Progressive national convention was not discussed. Senator Penrose got a hand from his...

Gavel Sounds at 11:25 Chairman Hillis brought down his gavel at 11:25 a. m.

Mr. Hillis said: "Mr. Hillis at 10 o'clock has arrived and a quorum being present, the convention will be in order."

The next proceeding was the reading of the call for the convention. The hum of conversation swept over the hall again as Mr. Reynolds read...

As he read on, the talk on the floor grew and his voice was not heard for more than the first row of seats.

Chairman Hillis presented Senator Harding, the temporary chairman, to make the keynote speech.

Mr. Hillis declared American begins at home and radiates abroad. He referred to the manuscript for the closing words of his speech...

John S. Fisher, of Pennsylvania, was recognized to present a resolution for permanent organization. There was no opposition to that.

Senator Lippot of Rhode Island, then offered the rules of the convention of 1912 and their adoption until permanent organization.

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

ALL WISHES OF 20,000 TO ASK SUFFRAGE PLANK T. R. TO BE MET

Committee on Resolutions Will Frame Declarations So He Cannot Oppose Nominee

By Associated Press

Chicago, Ill., June 7.—With the members of the committee on resolutions selected by their delegations, it is becoming evident that the work of the committee as a whole will be one of elimination rather than of construction.

"If there is one general purpose better defined than any other on the part of the leading members of the committee, it is to give the party declarations such as an advanced tone as will meet the demands of Colonel Roosevelt and his followers, and to this end they have made close study of the Colonel's recent utterances along the lines of preparedness.

Can't Afford to Oppose "We shall meet the Colonel's wishes in this respect and endeavor to make the pronouncement so strong that he cannot afford to oppose any man that may be placed in nomination," said Senator Smoot, who, although he is not a member of the resolutions committee, is in close touch with what is being done toward framing the platform.

The Roosevelt idea on preparedness will, it is thought, prevail. The committee also will go far toward meeting Mr. Roosevelt's view on the question of national defensiveness, and with this object in view will be a strong declaration for Americanism first, last and all the time.

Preparedness Will Prevail The Roosevelt idea on preparedness will, it is thought, prevail. The committee also will go far toward meeting Mr. Roosevelt's view on the question of national defensiveness, and with this object in view will be a strong declaration for Americanism first, last and all the time.

Mr. Hillis declared American begins at home and radiates abroad. He referred to the manuscript for the closing words of his speech and the convention, realizing he was closing, listened intently and then broke into a great applause.

John S. Fisher, of Pennsylvania, was recognized to present a resolution for permanent organization. There was no opposition to that.

Senator Lippot of Rhode Island, then offered the rules of the convention of 1912 and their adoption until permanent organization.

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

There was a shout and long hand-clapping when the speaker said the Republicans "believe sincerely and soberly in adequate national defense."

Women Will March to Coliseum; Request Republicans to Favor Enfranchisement

By Associated Press

Chicago, Ill., June 7.—The outstanding feature of suffragist activity today centers in the parade, in which it is expected 20,000 women will march to the Coliseum to present to the Republican national convention the resolutions adopted by the National American Woman Suffrage Association asking that a plank be put in the Republican platform favoring the enfranchisement of women.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

WHEELMA Market Square UNDERSELLING STORE Sole Agents For Butterick Patterns and The Delineator.

The Big Sale of Three Large Makers' Over-production of 4000 Wash and Silk Dresses, Skirts and Kimonos Going Fast at 1/2 Price

EXTRA SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT Great Choice of the Store Suit Sale ON FRIDAY NEXT

All of Our Women's & Misses' Newest Cloth and Silk Suits $ 8.95 Former Selling Prices $18.00 to $35.00

Watch For It! Wait For It! Big Money-Saving Shoe Sale Saturday Next

New York Hughes Men Hear Roosevelt Would Not Support Justice if He Is Nominated Flying Big Silk Banner

Coxestown Methodist Pastor Dies Suddenly

"Political Show Not Millinery Exhibition," Women Delegates Told

Hughes' Father Formerly Pastor in Scranton, Pa.

Friends of Colonel Believe He Will Become Candidate if Hughes Is Nominated

REV. ALFRED HARRIS

The Rev. Alfred Harris, pastor of Coxestown Memorial Methodist Church, died suddenly yesterday afternoon following an attack of acute indigestion.

This is a political show, not a millinery exhibition, said one male delegate. "Every one should be given a chance to see the show without having his view obstructed by a hat in front."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

CITY PLANNING LA HARRISBURG President Edwin S. Herman, of Planning Commission, Tells Lancaster About It

How Harrisburg is working out its city planning problems was interestingly told last evening by President Edwin S. Herman, of the City Planning Commission, at an informal dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce of Lancaster, at which Mr. Herman and several other well-known members of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce were guests.

Explaining how Harrisburg "did it," President Herman told of the great work performed here along the lines of the city improvements and said that even those who objected most when the matter was first proposed are now among the most enthusiastic for its advancement to other parts of the city.

CONVENTION BY BULLETIN [Continued From First Page] Harding is introduced at 11:50 a. m. amid applause.

At the meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association for today calls for a continuance of the assembly at the Princess Theater. The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage will also assume its sessions at the Blackstone Theater with a meeting of committees.

At yesterday's session resolutions were adopted expressing the intention of the woman's party to hold responsible "any party which refuses to do justice to women by placing them on a basis of equality with men in the Constitution of the United States."