Commutation Asked.—An application for the commutation of sentence of H. E. Filler, a Westmoreland county murderer, who has had six death warrants read to him since last year, was received by the Pardon Board this morning. Filler's case reached the Supreme Court and that body granted a rule permitting the Westmoreland court to rehear the case if it so desired. After some testimony had been taken the Westmoreland court refused to grant a rehearing and now Filler's attorneys have asked that the death sentence be changed to life imprisonment.
