PLAYGROUNDS TO BE READY SOON AT MIDDLETOWN

Supervisor Irwin Directs Work on Front Street Plot; West Side Complete

Work on placing apparatus in the Pennsylvania Steel Company plot, Front street and Angle alley, which will be used as a playground, was started this morning.

Under the direction of Supervisor James R. Irwin a force of men is erecting nine swings, four seesaws, a horizontal bar, volley ball and "newcomb" court, slide and a sand box in preparation for the playgrounds opening.

Until C. S. Davis, who will be elected chairman of the Park and Playgrounds Commission appointed Monday, returns to the borough and a meeting of the board is called, a date for formally opening the playgrounds season will not be decided upon.
