

We Invite You to the Opening of the BIGGEST AND BEST ARRANGED BAKERY

Between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh

L.M. Bricker
 The Man who built the loaf

The Loaf that built the Bakery

The New Building of the West Shore Bakery.
 With a Daily Capacity of 75,000 Loaves of

Bricker's "O.K." Bread

Formal Opening, Tomorrow, Saturday, June 10th

2.00 to 5.00 P. M. 7.00 to 11.00 P. M.

YOU should be interested in seeing this big sanitary bakery. Not because of its bigness---although its growth to the present size was made possible by your patronage. We want you to see for yourself how thoroughly we have provided every necessary modern facility in order to improve, if possible, even the best loaf of bread we are capable of making. We want you to see how every precaution has been taken to insure absolute cleanliness. We want you to realize how conveniently everything is arranged to render better service. You have seen Bricker's O. K. Bread and no doubt you have enjoyed the excellent flavor which has made it so popular. Now be our guest and come to see how it is made.

Orchestra and Band Music

Refreshments will be Served

New Cumberland or White Hill cars stop within one block of bakery. Carlisle and Mechanicsburg cars stop at the bridge near bakery. Guides will show you through bakery and explain the process.
