HUGHES ALLIANCE TO HELP G. O. P. CANDIDATE

[Continued From First Page] are certain circumstances under which a matter of duty is supremely clear and which leaves no ground for hesitancy in this case. There was no question in this situation as to what I should do. I did it and in my announcement to the people I endeavored to make my attitude clear. "I came here to hold consultations in regard to arrangements for the future. I can say nothing in respect to the details at this time." Mr. Hughes then posed smilingly for moving picture and camera men. Arrives Unexpectedly Mr. Hughes arrived from Washington at 7:05 a. m. via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and ferry to West Twenty-third street and went to the hotel where he will spend the day. Although the police department had been notified of the Republican candidate's coming and had sent detectives to meet his train, his arrival here at such an early hour was generally unexpected. He was met at the ferry station by Public Service Commissioner Travis H. Whitney and William R. Wilcox, a New York attorney. Many of the leaders who are expected to talk with Mr. Hughes during his stay in New York had not returned from Chicago this morning. Mr. Hughes did not say how long he intended to stay here. Mr. Hughes' secretary, Lawrence

H. Green, accompanied him from Washington, and his first caller after he reached his hotel was Robert Fuller, who was his secretary when he was Governor of New York. One of the questions before Mr. Hughes and his friends to-day was the location of summer headquarters. Plans Kept Secret The candidate kept his plans for the trip secret and a score of newspaper men who had arranged to accompany him awoke to-day to find him gone. They had been told at midnight that the justice was retiring and given to understand that he probably would start for New York at 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. Hughes will return in time for the preparedness parade here on Wednesday. "I have nothing to say on politics at this time," said Mr. Hughes, greeting newspapermen who met him on the ferryboat which brought him over the Hudson. This was in response to a question as to whether he would see Col. Roosevelt during his stay here. Glad to Be in New York "I have come here primarily to make my plans for the summer," continued the presidential candidate. "New York, by the way, is where I belong and I am glad to get back here." Just as Mr. Hughes went aboard the ferry the sun came out for the first time in nearly a week and the illumination of the New York skyline was very evidently a pleasing sight to him. His presence on the train that brought him from Washington was unknown to all but a few of his fellow passengers. When he left the train he attracted no attention but aboard the ferry was recognized as commuters coming to the city from the Jersey homes. They made no demonstration. According to Mr. Hughes' secretary, it was as yet undecided whether Mr. Hughes would receive here or in Washington the convention committee which is to formally notify him of his nomination. Mr. Hughes went directly to his hotel and after ordering copies of all the morning newspapers, retired to his rooms.

accepts the splendid statement of Mr. Hughes as meeting the conditions which he laid down to the Progressive convention, a majority of the Progressives in the central and northern States will support Mr. Hughes. "As far as I am personally concerned, if Colonel Roosevelt declines the Progressive nomination, I will support Mr. Hughes. I think the fight is going to be cleanly between Wilson and Hughes, and in that case I prefer Hughes. "As I read the Hughes statement it seems to me to meet the conditions laid down by Colonel Roosevelt and I believe Colonel Roosevelt will maintain rather an important relationship to the Hughes propaganda." Mr. Allen said Governor Johnson, of California, was going to Oyster Bay to urge Colonel Roosevelt's acceptance of the Progressive nomination and that the Progressive leaders were considering the selection of Justice Hughes to fill the Roosevelt vacancy as the Progressive presidential nominee with Colonel John M. Parker, of Louisiana, as the vice-presidential candidate in order to maintain the party's existence and its right to place on State ballots, especially in the South.

FAIRYLAND'S HOSTS COMING TO HARRISBURG

royal subjects are traveling with her. Cinderella is the name of the big spectacle which is this season's feature with the Ringling Brothers' circus. It is said to be the finest and greatest production the famous showmen have ever staged. All told there are 1,250 actors in the cast, a fairy band of 300 dancing girls with just the kind of wings that are pictured in the story books; a score of court jesters and hundreds of beautiful horses. The stage on which the gigantic pantomime is enacted is the largest in the world. It is fitted with electrical and mechanical devices that produce lightning and transformation effects never before attempted in circusdom. The spectacle tells the best-known version of Cinderella in its entirety. There are scenes in the home of the abused heroine where the fairy godmother changes her into the most beautiful lady in the land, gorgeous settings picturing the great palace ball room with its minuets and courtly fetes and in which, as the clock strikes twelve, "Cinderella" dashes down the grand staircase, leaving one of her glass slippers in her flight. The spectator sees the passing of vast processions as the "flowers of the kingdom" make their pilgrimage to the royal palace in the hope of being able to wear the slipper and witness the triumph of "Cinderella" and her betrothal to the happy prince. It is said the costumes are of a gorgeousness never before approached in a spectacle and that the trappings and scores of processional vehicles of a richness in keeping with the fairyland subject. The pantomime is part of the main tent program and will be followed afternoon and night by two hours of circus acts when Ringling Brothers exhibit here.

Many Motor Vehicles in Service on English Lines

Nearly 500 motor vehicles were owned and operated last year by the principal steam railroads of the United Kingdom. These road vehicles are used principally as connecting links between the main lines and towns located some distance back from the railroads. There is a big opportunity for similar use of motor vehicles by the railroads and interurban lines in the United States for serving communities too small to make the construction and operation of branch roads profitable.

CINDERELLA BIG CIRCUS SPECTACLE

Said to Be Greatest Production Famous Showmen Have Ever Staged

Fairyland's hosts are coming to Harrisburg! The lovely and abused Cinderella, her fairy godmother, the gnomes that are said to grow from out the trunks of trees, the coach which as every child knows was made from a big, round pumpkin, and all the people who live in the far-away kingdom of Make-believe, have sent a little bird to whisper that they will all be here next Wednesday. For the little lady of the glass slipper has, for the first time in history, contracted to appear with a circus. Of course she could not come out of the Never-Never land all alone so all the fairies, Prince Charming, the good king and queen and all the

NEW ENGINES HAVE MANY CAR The Mikado class of engines on the Reading railway are now hauling 10 cars each way on the main line. The tonnage, not including the weight of the cars, will average 4,500 tons. To do this it is necessary to eliminate a wooden car off the runningboard while the train was traveling about twenty-five miles an hour.

ENGINEER DIES FROM INJURY Special to the Telegraph York, Pa., June 12.—Emanuel Muzel, 47, of Baltimore, an engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad, was killed at 4:30 o'clock yesterday, when he fell from his engine while trying to sweep sand off the runningboard while the train was traveling about twenty-five miles an hour.

"See How Well My Boy Is Since Taking Father John's Medicine."

"My boy was very ill for nine months with throat trouble and lost weight every day. We had four different doctors who tried to find some means of saving his life, but they had to give the case up. I decided to give Father John's Medicine a trial and was soon convinced that it was helping him very much. Now look at his photo and see how healthy he is." (Signed) Mrs. K. J. Progressive Leader Believes Roosevelt Will Actively Support Hughes

By Associated Press St. Louis, Mo., June 12.—Henry Allen, Kansas Progressive leader, here as a newspaper correspondent reporting the Democratic convention, who has announced his support of Mr. Hughes, to-day expressed belief that Colonel Roosevelt also will take an active part in the Hughes campaign. Mr. Allen said that former Representative Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive national committee, was most prominently suggested to succeed Colonel Roosevelt as the Progressive's standard bearer if Colonel Roosevelt finally refused the nomination. "I think the hour is too important for any man to worry about the name of the party he is going to support," said Mr. Allen. "If Colonel Roosevelt

Successor to Hughes to Be Appointed Soon

By Associated Press Washington, D. C., June 12.—Selection of a successor to Charles E. Hughes on the Supreme Court bench already is being considered by President Wilson. Attorney General Gregory probably will be called into conference in a day or two and the appointment may be made within the next two weeks. Although the Supreme Court adjourns until October, Department of Justice officials are anxious that a new justice be appointed quickly so that he can give consideration during the summer months to cases now pending. Several messages urging the appointment of ex-President Taft have been received, but the President is expected to name a Democrat, since the court now has five Republicans and three Democrats.
