beauty are the unmistakable signs of womanly disorders. Johnstown, Pa.—"I was always ail-ing and had severe headaches up to the time I used 'Favorite Prescrip-tion.' I used remedies from several doctors but none helped me much. I learned of 'Favorite Prescription' through a little book thrown in the door. I had also heard of Dr. Pierce's remedies through some friends, so I began using the 'Prescription.' I was glad to see that it helped me, so I kept on using it until 6 or 7 bottles had been used. I got all over my headaches and my health was im-proved —I was put on my feet. The awful headaches never came back and my general health has been better than in years. If I should again feel the need of a woman's med-icine I would use 'Favorite Prescrip-tion' on account of what it did for me on the above mentioned occasion." -- Miss. LILA BUTLER, 307 Market St., Johnstown, Pa. Johnstown, Pa.

An old, old story is told in to-day's motion pictures attractions, "A Fool's Paradise," at the "A Fool's Paradise," Victoria Theater, Victoria Today in which Chrys-tine Mayo is starred. It is the story of an old man falling in love and marrying an adven-turess and the casting aside of his own daughter to please the vampire. For to-morrow we offer another install-ment of "Mysterles of Myra," featur-ing Howard Estabrook and Gene South ern; also another interesting part of "The Girl and the Game," featuring Helen Holmes. The photoplay sensa-tion of the year, "God's Country and the Woman," will be shown here on Thursday and Friddy only.

"The Love Mask," a thriling drama of the early days of California, featur-ing Cleo Ridgley "The Love Mask" and Wallace Ridg, "The Love Mask" "Molly Make-Believe," to be shown at the Regent to-morrow and Thursday. features Marguerite Clark in the role of delightful little Molly, one of the most lovable little characters in all fiction. Inasmuch as the original story was woven entirely around a series of let-eters, it may be well to explain that the film adapters, thonugh still retaining the spirit of the book in its entirety, have reconstructed the tale and intro-duced the comic and dramatic events in the life of Molly.

PACTANG-Vaudeville. COLONIAL-"A Child of the Paris

"A Child of the Paris Streets." the new Triangle five-reel feature, which is appearing at the Colonial's Colonial for the last New Feature Uimes to-day, deals with the abduction of the daughter of a Paris judge by a band of "apaches." the name commonly used for bands of thieves and cut-throats so strong as to defy even the police. The girl grows to womanhood among the bandlis, as the cleverest of pickpockets, but in the end is saved by her old nurse, who recognizes her after many years. Mae Marsh and Tully Marshail, two of the best-known stars in the Fine Arts studio, appear in the leading roles. Fred Mace, the funniest of Key-stone comedians, will be on the same bill in anew two-reel Keystone comedy, called "Bathtub Perils." Bertha Kalich will be shown at the Colonial Wednes-day and Thursday in a new William Fox feature, entitled "Slander."

FIRE AT LIME KILNS Annville, Pa., June 13. — Fire on Sunday night destroyed the sheds over the lime kilns of the Annville Lime Company, near the Bachman farm south of town. The Rescue Fire Com-pany, with a truck, prevented a spread of the fire to the warehouses.

"BREVET" 北京市 的建筑标

Taylor D. Boggis has fathered a game which, by his clever imaginative handling, has combined some of the best of the games that have been the joy and amusement of thousands. This man, having the mechanical training, the keen appreciation of pleasure, and the ability to play many games well, has conceived a game that easily accommodates itself to our limited yards and bids fair to make these same yards as merry with laughter as were the town commons of a century ago. This wonderful game is called "BREVET."

Consists of one net, four mallets, four balls, six hazards, hold ring, net supports, guy ropes and end ground stakes. Net is 16 inches by 20 feet, of No. 12 cotton mesh, tennis style, hung top and bottom to cord and reinforced at the ends. Wooden parts of selected white maple. Metal parts are galvanized and rust-proof. Ball and mallets are striped. Direc-tions for playing. Price, $15.

8-ball Croquet Sets, are $1.25 to $3.50. BOWMAN'S-Second Floor.
