borough churches were informally dis-cussed at a meeting last evening. Six churches have already signified their intention of participating and it is be-lieved that as many more will enter. The congregations represented last evening include Mount Zion Baptist, St. John's Lutheran, Grace United Eangelical, First Presbyterian, St. James' Catholic and Centenary United Brethren. Further arrangements will be made at another meeting next Mon-day evening.

Borough Engineer Late For

William P. Callaghan, Steelton's popular borough engineer, was late for work this morning. (Another of those "muck-raking" stories this, you say.) But wait; Mr. Callaghan doesn't mind. He didn't care who saw him coming in at the hour he did. He seemed rather happy. But, then, per-haps there is some connection between his smile and this little note Borough Secretary Charles P. Feidt handed a newspaperman: Mr. and Mrs. William P. Calla-ghan; 1520 Allison street, an-nounce the birth of a son, Mon-day, June 12. Mrs. Callaghan was formerly Miss Marguerite Marie Kennedy, of Philadelphia. It will be William P. Callaghan, Jr., now.
