YOUNG GIVEN BIG SURPRISE TODAY

Forgot That It Was His Birthday Until His Staff Gave Him Many Roses

State Treasurer Robert K. Young was fifty-five today, but he did not remember it until he walked into his office at the Capitol this morning. Then he discovered the mantle draped in a big American flag, his desk adorned with a big bouquet of roses and a profusion of flowers about the room. The tribute came from his department force and completely surprised the guardian of the finances.

"I have been so busy attending board meetings which the Treasurer must attend under the law that I forgot the day, and it was not until my force gently indicated that there was some occasion that I woke up," said he. Many officials at the Capitol called to extend their congratulations to the Treasurer.

Mr. Young is a native of Tioga county and a son of Hugh Young, a prominent Pennsylvania, and himself served in the legislature before becoming Auditor General.

Dr. Gay Ill.—Dr. Carl W. Gay, of the University of Pennsylvania, who is generally one of the judges at the Hogestown horse and cattle show, will not be there to officiate this year. He has whooping cough.

Senator Here.—Senator Marshall Shipp, of Venango, was among visitors to the Capitol yesterday. The list of Venango appointments made looks like it, too.

Board to Meet.—The State Livestock Sanitary Board will meet tonight to discuss quarantine measures for rabies and summer work.

Governor to Speak.—Governor Brumbaugh will be the speaker at Lebanon Valley College commencement at Annville to-night.

Judge Orady Here.—Judge Orady, president judge of the superior court, served visitors to the Capitol yesterday.

Local Payments.—Township high schools in this county receiving State appropriation checks this week included Derry and Wisconsin each $344, and Susquehanna and Upper Swatara each $258.

Branch Capitol Again.—Governor Brumbaugh last night announced the appointment of William C. Benkert, Richard J. Beamish and Montgomery H. Wright of Philadelphia as members of the commission authorized by the last Legislature to "consider the advisability and feasibility of the erection in Philadelphia of an administration building wherein shall be housed branches of the various State Departments of Pennsylvania."

The commission considers the plan feasible it shall report the results of its investigations to the next general assembly with such recommendations as are deemed proper. The members of the commission will receive no compensation. The resolution was adopted by the last Legislature after discussion of the question of grouping State offices which are maintained in Philadelphia.

Pardon Board Plans.—Under the arrangement of the State Board of Pardons for dividing the big list of applications for pardons and rehearings scheduled for next week all cases except those from Philadelphia and Luzerne counties will be heard on Tuesday, June 20 and all others on June 21. About thirty will be heard the first day and decisions announced on the following day.

BIG DEMAND FOR MORE DWELLINGS

Suggests Concessions to Builders Who Will Develop Property in Borough

With the big plant of the Pennsylvania Steel Company employing nearly 7,000 men and every tenable house in the borough occupied, Steelton real estate men and prominent citizens are giving much thought to the housing problem.

In this busy steelmaking borough this problem is more a question of number of houses than quality, as there is scarcely a dwelling of any kind for rent here at this time, according to real estate men.

This scarcity of suitable dwellings has been retarding the normal, healthy growth of the borough, declare real estate men, and much thought is being given some solution to the problem.

A suggestion worth thinking over is made by a prominent citizen. It is this: "Induce the borough council to make concessions to prospective builders for a definite period of six months. These concessions might include exemption from taxation for two years, free water for a similar time and free connections to the sanitary sewers."

"Such concessions," declared this man, "would quickly induce builders to recognize the demand for moderate priced homes here and it would be a paying proposition for them to build under these conditions. Such a plan would also work out the ultimate advantage of the borough, for after the exemption period there would be a steady inflow of taxes and water rents to the borough treasury."

To Place Fountains.—In addition to the apparatus at the various playgrounds, Supervisor James R. Irwin is planning to have drinking fountains placed near each playground.

Picnic Plans Complete.—Arrangements have been completed for the annual picnic of employees of the boiler and car repair shops at the steel works to be held on an island opposite the Frog and Switch department Saturday. The employees will march to Francis, where a boat landing headed by a brass band. A feature of the day will be a baseball game between teams from the two shops. The committee in charge of the outing includes T. Lickel, Maurice Howard, J. W. Yennings, Charles Miner and J. W. Yestadt.

To Attend Booster Meeting.—Plans for attending a booster meeting at Longestown next Monday will be made by members of Steelton Council, 162, Order of Independent Americans at a meeting this evening. The local members will go to Longestown by automobile.

WILL WRESTLE FOR WAR FUND

Serbian and Austrian Athletes to Meet Saturday Evening in Kreiner Hall

Steelton sportsmen will have a chance to see a first-class wrestling bout Saturday evening when a match will be staged in Kreiner hall, South Second street, for the benefit of the fund to relieve suffering among European war victims.

The principal attraction will be a bout between "Billie" Ninich, the "Texas Terror," and Rade Yaich, a local athlete. Both are clever men and have large followings.

Ninich is a Serbian; Yaich, an Austrian. The meeting of these two sons of nations now struggling to send each other to the mat finally, will attract a large crowd. Their offer to give twenty-five per cent. of the entire proceeds to the war fund lends additional interest to the bout.

The match is to be a finish affair, two best falls out of three to win.
