President Wilson Defies Attempt of Hyphenated to Levy "Blackmail" in Speech

Special to the Telegraph. Washington, D. C., June 15.—A charge that foreign citizens of the United States are trying to levy political blackmail and to undermine the influence of the national government was made by President Wilson in a Flag Day speech here late yesterday. His assertion sounded the keynote of one of the foremost issues on which he will go before the country for reelection, and touched upon a platform declaration which will be submitted by the administration to the St. Louis convention.

United States and it must be absolutely crushed," declared the President, speaking emphatically. "It proceeds from a minority, a very small minority but a very active and subtle minority. It works underground, but it also shows its ugly head where we can see it; and there are those at this moment who are trying to levy a species of political blackmail, saying, 'Do what we wish in the interest of foreign sentiment or we will wreak our vengeance at the polls.'"

"That is the sort of thing against which the American Nation will turn with a might and triumph of sentiment which will teach these gentlemen once for all that loyalty to this flag is the first test of tolerance in the United States."

The President's words were taken as an open challenge to foreign-born Americans who had learned from foreign language newspapers and other sources are opposing him for re-election. Officials close to him said he was outlining his stand on what he had determined to make a predominant issue in his campaign.
