Manager George Cockill Refuses to Agree to Special Guarantee

On the answer by President J. H. Farrell to-day, as to whether he will abide by the agreement between Lew Wachter and Manager George Cockill, will depend an appeal to President John K. The league Rules
The league rules call for a guarantee of $75 rain or shine. With Harrisburg on the circuit the jumps would not be any greater than at present. On the other hand there would be a saving in time of the trips. Why President Farrell is insisting on a special guarantee agreement is not explained.

President Farrell is more explained.

President Farrell was told by wire last night that Harrisburg would abide by the league rules, and make no special arrangement. It is the belief that club owners favor Harrisburg and that after it is understood that Manager Cockili will not stand for a holdup, the transfer will be made.

Dillon and Moran Each Confident of Victory in Next Week's Battle

Special to the Telegraph

New York, June 16. — Not much worried by the State Athletic Commission's ruling that all the regula-tions have not been complled with, the managers of the Dillon-Moran fight, which is to be staged at Washington Park, June 29, sent out statements from both men to-day. Dillon's statement, said he would knock Moran out and that the fight would be a slugging match because he intended a slugging match because he intended making it so.

Moran, when he heard of this at Saratoga, issued a counter statement. "Dillon's plan meets with my approval," he said. "It will be a slugging match, and I am working with little fellows for this bout. I will not have to hit at the clouds as I did with Willard. Dillon will be right in front of me and my trusty 'Mary Ann' will connect with his Jaw, which means curtains and dreamland for the alleged 'man-killer' and 'rib-crusher.' I only hope that Dillon stands and fights."

The warning from the Boxing Gommission called attention to the fact that the club must file a copy of all contracts, and that if there are any guarantees these must be posted with surety.

Eliminate State Tennis Star
in Pennsylvania Contest

Special to the Telegraph
Philadelphia, Pa., June 16. — J. J.
Armstrong the 1915 title-holder and wallace F. Johnson, a former champion, were both eliminated from the annual tournament for the tennis clampionship of Pennsylvania at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford yesterday afternoon, in what was undoubtedly the greatest display of fast and sensational lawn tennis ever seen in this vicinity.

W. T. Tilden, 2d., the holder of the city and district title, put Armstrons out of the running in a match that fairly scintillated from beginning to end and kept the big gallery on edge throughout. The final score was 6-3, 8-6.
Rowland Evans, Jr., of the Merion Cricket Club, pulled the unexpected by defeating Wallace Johnson in straight sets, also, by the score of 6-4.7-5. Evans outplayed his veterad opponent, was steadler and showed better generalship.

An air-bag is first strapped on the subject's arm over the main artery, and is inflated with a bulb attached to it. The operator then adjusts a stethoscope to his ears and finds the pulse. The throbbing of the pulse against the air-bag is communicated through a rubber tube to the case containing the diaphragms upon which a vibration is set up. These vibrations, which are synchronous with those of the pulse, are translated into millimeters by the delicate needle of the dial.

DAUPHIN-PERRY LEAGUE BATTLES

the past few weeks, Dauphin-Perry
League teams have been strengthened.
Good baseball can be counted on for the remainder of the season. Some important battles are listed for tomorrow when Millersburg will play Marysville; Dauphin at Newport and Halifax at Duncannon.

At Duncannon, a close game is expected when Halifax and Duncannon line up. Halifax has been working smoothly during the past few weeks, and can be counted on for some trouble. Duncannon has signed up a number of new players, some of whom will be eligible for to-morrow's game. However, the team will be weakened by the loss of Jones, the star third sacker, who has been forced to quit the game because of poor eyesight.

Important Game

At Newoprt, a hot game is predicted. Newport is tie for first place. Manager Sharon will probably use Groninger or Wertz in the box and will likely send back of the bat Ed.
