REAL ESTATE

TO BUILD MODERN GARAGE Construction of another modern type garage was authorized for Allison Hill to-day when John H. Rudy got a permit to build a structure in the rear of his residence, 1625 Market street. The constructor, H. W. Hummer, is a comparative newcomer in the city's contracting and building world. The job will cost $350.

TO-DAY'S REALTY TRANSFERS Realty transfers to-day included the following in city and county: E. W. Etter et al. to E. G. Speri, 1624 Hunter street, $1,500; same to Thomas A. Shatto, 1614 Hunter street, $1,500; C. L. Long to W. P. Starkey, Front and Keiker streets, $1; Emma Hoffman et al. to George A. Keifer, Middletown, $1; Harrisburg Trust Company to E. J. Etnoyer, Highspire, $2,500; F. E.

Hampton to F. D. Bryan, Middletown, $1,250.

While "41 and other considerations" is the stipulated price given by W. P. Starkey, general superintendent of the Harrisburg Pipe and Pipe Bending Works, for C. L. Long's splendid front street home, it is understood that the actual figure at which the exchange was made was $30,000.

formerly the property of Harry L. Finkelstine, will be conducted at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Attorney Job J. Conklin, trustee, will conduct the sale.

CITY BRIEFS Awarded Gold Pin.—Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, retiring president of Camp 23, Patriotic Order of Americans, was awarded a gold pin by the members.

Struck by Car.—Harry Goldstein, 625 Herr street, was struck by a trolley car yesterday, sustaining minor bruises. He was treated at the Harrisburg Hospital.

Dauphin Lodge, No. 160, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

To Open New Hall.—Captain M. Nelson will have charge of the opening of the new Salvation Army Hall, 1216 North Third street, to-night.

NEW ENGINEER WITH GANNETT

S. L. Strickler, civil engineer of Columbia, Pa., has become associated with the firm of Farley Gannett, consulting engineer, of Harrisburg, Pa. Mr. Strickler started engineering work in 1905. He was engaged in construction work with the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Washah Railroad for several years. He was assistant engineer to F. H. Shaw, consulting engineer, ten years, and was borough engineer of Columbia, Pa., for two more years. He will be resident engineer on the York Haven Water and Power Company dam across the Susquehanna river, which is to be erected by Mr. Gannett.
