

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MORNING WEDDING IN ZION CHURCH

Miss Marie Stucker Becomes Bride of William I. Reed Today

A quiet and unpretentious wedding was that solemnized at 11.30 o'clock this morning in the Zion Lutheran Church, when Miss Marie Stucker became the bride of William I. Reed.

MORNING WEDDING IN OLD ZION CHURCH

The Froehlich Studio.

CARDS WITH TWO HOSTESSES

Miss Grace Reinert and Miss Eva Reinert were hostesses at a five hundred party at the home, 19 North Seventeenth street.

Mrs. R. H. Heller, of 127 South Fourteenth street, has returned home after a several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrig, of Renovo.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Witman, of 211 North Second street, and their children will leave shortly to spend some time at Williams Grove.

Miss Elizabeth Dill, who has been a student at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, this year, is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Dill, Crescent and Kitkatany streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulus Myers and son Vincent, of 1417 Thompson street, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Myers' brother, Mr. Bross, of Colburn.

Miss Ruth E. Gernert of the Gernert Apartments, at 407 South Eleventh street, left today for a visit with friends at Clear Spring.

Miss Marie M. Gilbert, of 2126 North Seventh street, has returned home after a visit with relatives in Enola.

MUSIC ON THE PORCHES OF LONG CENTURY HOUSE. Despite the continued rains of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Stewart Long at their country place, "The Cedars" enjoyed music and supper on the broad porches yesterday.

FOR THE EATMORE CLUB. The members of the Eatmore Club met at the home of Mrs. S. H. May, 1909 North Sixth street, enjoying games and dancing.

Dr. Mudge Addresses Centralians at Banquet

Instead of having a picnic at Paxtang yesterday as planned, the Centralians held an indoor "good time" at the John Y. Boyd Memorial Building.

At a late hour the Centralians disbanded, none feeling sorry that the weather kept them from Paxtang. The society will resume its meetings in September, when the members will have begun their junior year at Central high.

Pleasant Social Events For New Jersey Girl

Miss Mary Eugenia Allen has returned home to Mt. Holly after a two weeks' visit with Miss Mae B. McIlhenny, of 1846 Market St.

Miss Allen, was entertained a great deal during her visit. Monday evening Mrs. Robert Pattison Cox entertained a dozen girls at a 500 party.

LITTLE SEWING PARTY HELD AT CAMERON EXTENSION. Mrs. Frederick A. Harling of 1515 Allison street, gave an impromptu little sewing party yesterday afternoon.

Handicap Tennis

A ladies' single handicap tennis tournament will be played next week at the Country Club of Harrisburg, beginning on Tuesday, June 20.

Howard E. Moses is spending the week-end at his home 717 North Second street after a week's stay in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles J. Freund of 2040 Green street is home after a trip to Reading where she addressed a branch of the Jewish Sisterhood.

Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming and her grandchildren Elizabeth, Benjamin and Robert Labaree have gone to Ocean Grove to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. L. D. Perry's Guests Meet Visitors in Town

Mrs. Leslie D. Perry, of 2139 Green street, entertained this afternoon in honor of her guests, Mrs. Lee Stebbins and Miss Anne C. Perry, recently appointed State superintendent of Home Economics.

MISS MARY GRACE ORNER WEDS CHESTER H. DECKMAN. Miss Mary Grace Orner and Chester H. Deckman were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. H. M. Orner, 120 Summit Street.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Mrs. F. A. Glaser, 1311 Penn Street, gave a shower of miscellaneous gifts for Miss Anna Woltz who will be a June bride.

Girls Enjoy an Outing at Paxtang Park to-day

The girls of Mrs. M. V. Hazen's class of the Pine Street Presbyterian enjoyed an outing at Paxtang park to-day.

THE PARTY CHAPERONED BY Prof. and Mrs. Bertram Saut, included: The Misses Edith Spangler, Ruth Beatty, Julia Beard, Pauline Somers, Sarah Faunce, Marion Lutz, Hazel Rexroth, Elizabeth Burd, Ethel Jones, Katherine Powers, Marie Vost, Helen Hampton, Ruth Fitzgerald, Dorothy Helman, Helena Keet, Mary Faunce, Eva Sichelmer, Mary Keller, Gertrude Wilson, Gertrude Edwards, Elizabeth Fisher, Sarah Maloney, Esther Coates, Viola Fisher, Ruth Towson, Mary Hutman, Margaret Yeaple, Helen Tenemer, Nora Bennett, Marietta Branyan, Ella Baxter, Elizabeth Leakway, W. Wolf, Harry Rote, George Bacon, Rheybel Alter, Mary Jelly, Mary Stark, Lena Marcus, Ethel Fisher, Marie Yount, Katherine Lease, Katherine Mically, Julia Reed, Edith Rhodes, Dorcas Byrns, Dorothy Steele, Dorothy Taylor and Helen Witmer.

Handicap Tennis

A ladies' single handicap tennis tournament will be played next week at the Country Club of Harrisburg, beginning on Tuesday, June 20.

Howard E. Moses is spending the week-end at his home 717 North Second street after a week's stay in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles J. Freund of 2040 Green street is home after a trip to Reading where she addressed a branch of the Jewish Sisterhood.

Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming and her grandchildren Elizabeth, Benjamin and Robert Labaree have gone to Ocean Grove to spend several weeks with relatives.

98c Hat Sale Monday. Hat Sale 98c AS TRICH'S 98c Hat Sale. Sale Starts 9 O'clock Prompt. No Hats Sold Before That. It is hardly necessary to say anything more. Our customers will well remember our 98c Hat Sales of previous seasons...

In Addition to This Great 98c Sale We Offer For This Monday Only. All are Colored Hemp and Milan Hemp Turbans and Small Shapes - consisting of about 50 dozen of the very best shapes and qualities, in Brown, Green, Purple, Red, Alice, Navy, etc. Regardless of former price, your choice TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

We Will Also Offer on Monday. Our Regular $1.98 Panamas for $1.44. Our Regular $1.98 Leghorns for $1.44. Our Regular $2.98 Panamas for $2.22. Our Regular $1.98 White Hemp Hats for $1.44. Our Regular $1.98 Hair Braid Hats for $1.22. Our $2.98 SPORT HATS; Monday, for $1.98. Our $2.98 BANDED SAILORS; Monday, for $1.44. Our $3.98 SPORT HATS; Monday, for $2.88. Our $2.98 Black & White Horsehair Braid HATS; Monday, for $1.88. Our $3.98 BANDED SAILORS; Monday, for $2.44. Our 98c Peanut Braid HATS; Monday, for 49c. All our Children's 98c Colored HEMP HATS; colors, brown, navy, Alice, rose; Monday, for 49c. One table of Black HEMP HATS; Monday, for 49c.

CENTRAL SENIORS IN DAISY DANCE

Summerville Park Aglow With Blue and Gold For Closing Class Event. The annual senior dance of Central high school was held last evening at Summerville park.

Girls Enjoy an Outing at Paxtang Park to-day

The girls of Mrs. M. V. Hazen's class of the Pine Street Presbyterian enjoyed an outing at Paxtang park to-day. The merry crowd spent the day boating, and swimming, with various other sports.

Little Sewing Party Held at Cameron Extension

Mrs. Frederick A. Harling of 1515 Allison street, gave an impromptu little sewing party yesterday afternoon. The party was chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Bertram Saut.

Handicap Tennis

A ladies' single handicap tennis tournament will be played next week at the Country Club of Harrisburg, beginning on Tuesday, June 20.

Howard E. Moses is spending the week-end at his home 717 North Second street after a week's stay in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles J. Freund of 2040 Green street is home after a trip to Reading where she addressed a branch of the Jewish Sisterhood.

Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming and her grandchildren Elizabeth, Benjamin and Robert Labaree have gone to Ocean Grove to spend several weeks with relatives.

Erb-McMorris Bridal in Historic Old Church

Mrs. John W. McMorris of 636 Emerald street announces the marriage of her daughter Miss Jessie Amelia McMorris to John M. Erb of Lawnton. The ceremony was performed at noon to-day in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends in the old Paxton Church.

GOING TO GARDEN PARTY. Mrs. F. L. Belvin and Miss Dent, of Gray, will come here by automobile Monday to visit Mrs. Henderson Gilbert. Tuesday the three ladies will leave for Wilmington, Del., to attend the DuPont garden party.

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

The Rev. A. A. Ayres, pastor of Trinity United Brethren Church at New Cumberland, has invited the Rev. J. R. Hutchinson, a retired minister, to preach the old folk's sermon on Sunday morning.

Women Golfers' Tourney at Country Club of Hbg.

The women golfers of the Harrisburg Country Club will hold a tournament next Thursday, June 22, for a Golf Club presented by Mrs. W. H. Gaither, captain of the Women's Golf. Eighteen holes will be played and those desiring to participate are requested to file their entries with Mrs. Gaither not later than noon of the above date.

Lebanon Valley Gives Harrisburger Degree

At its semicentennial commencement yesterday, Lebanon Valley College conferred upon Dr. Samuel Z. Schiayler, 123 Sayford street, last night, the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. Harrisburg is the residence of one of the fifteen men in the world on whom has been conferred the much sought after degree of Doctor of Optics.

St. Michael's Young Folks Guests of Miss Mehring

Miss Anna Mehning, president of the Young People's Society of the St. Michael's German Lutheran Church, was hostess for the members at a "Dutch Lunch" last evening at her home, 201 Harris street.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bushnell, of 1841 North Second street, are registered at the Chalfont, Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Sedgwick Vastine, of Amherst, Ill., are visiting their cousin, Dr. H. M. Vastine, of 109 Locust street.

Clearing House Members Dine at Country Club

Donald McCormick, chairman of the Harrisburg Clearing House Association entertained members of the organization at luncheon at the Country Club of Harrisburg yesterday. There was no business transacted nor speeches made.

With Toronto Friends

Mrs. Charles Ashton Utley, of 321 Walnut street, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie Williams, of Toronto, Canada, in Atlantic City. Mr. Utley joined the party to-day for a week-end stay. Mr. and Mrs. Utley met the Williams family abroad two years ago while on their wedding trip.

C. A. O. Arrange for Dance

Members of the C. A. O. Society have arranged for a subscription dance to be held at Summerville, Wednesday, June 21. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Miss Katherine Peters, Miss Mary Witmer and Miss Miriam Landis.

Church Official Board Pleasantly Entertained

Members of the official board of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church and a few personal friends were happily entertained by the Rev. William R. Swartz at his residence, 1153 Mulberry street. Rutherford catered and after dinner there were speeches and toasts.

E. W. Schlayer is Host

Members of the O. and M. N. P. Club met at the home of E. W. Schlayer, 123 Sayford street last evening. Refreshments were served to the Misses Dora Myers, Mary Lauer, Jane Leidig, Stella Herman, Lucy Davis, Nita Miller and Violet Andrews; Patsy Fisher, R. Leslie, John Green, Ed. Sourbier, Elwood Sourbier, Ed. Anderson and E. W. Schlayer.

Clearing House Members Dine at Country Club

Donald McCormick, chairman of the Harrisburg Clearing House Association entertained members of the organization at luncheon at the Country Club of Harrisburg yesterday. There was no business transacted nor speeches made.

In attendance were the following men connected with local banks and trust companies: George A. Gorgas, Joseph O. S. Poorman, Andrew S. Patterson, Edward S. Nisley, William M. Hoerner, Alfred G. Eden, Edmund C. Thompson, Clayton G. Miller, Robert A. Enders, F. L. Albert Froehlich, Robert M. Rutherford, Harry W. Stubbs, George E. Bolton, William H. Nell, J. Harry Bond, Robert McCormick, Donald McCormick, Howard A. Rutherford, Charles A. Kunkel, James Brady, Edward J. Glancey, William Jennings, Warwick M. Oseleby, William H. Metzger, Harvey O. Miller, John F. Dapp, George W. Reilly, Edwin Keister, Edward A. Heffelfinger, Alfred K. Thomas, Daniel W. Sohn and George G. Carl.

Mr. Robert Willis Fair of Melrose is going to Williamsport Monday to visit a former Wilson College classmate, Miss Sara Youngman.

If Hair's Your Pride Use Herpicide

ON ACCOUNT OF REMODELING OFFICES

Dr. William E. Wright has temporarily removed his offices to main entrance 204 STATE STREET

Heed Their Plea---

12 Days of Opportunity

EYE GLASSES OR SPECTACLES. Gold filled, quality 1-10th-12K, guaranteed to wear 10 years. You can select the style you want. Sphere Lenses—you can choose the size. Our expert eye examination and perfect eye service insures getting the kind of glasses that you need. Satisfaction guaranteed. This combination complete for $2 is worthy of serious thought.

Prescription Opticians. Examining Optometrists. (No drops used)

J. S. BELSINGER. 205 LOCUST STREET. Opp. Orpheum Theater. Agents for Shur-On and Kryptok (pronounced CRYPTOK) invisible bifocals.

BELL-ANS. Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.