Additional Warships Ordered to Get Ready to Hurry South and Stand by Mexican Ports to Protect Americans; Scenes Across Nation Rival Those of Spanish War Days; Soldiers Will Be Used to Defend Border Against Bandit Raids Should Carranza Carry Out Threats to Strike at U. By Associated Press

Washington, June 19.—While the whole country was astir today with the mobilization of the National Guard for border duty, President Wilson directed that his reply rejecting General Carranza's demand for the recall of American troops from Mexico go forward immediately.

Reaffirms Friendship In refusing to withdraw the troops, the United States reaffirms the friendly intentions of the United States toward the de facto government in Mexico and sharply rebukes General Carranza for unwarranted charges and insinuations of bad faith contained in his communication. President Wilson's firm resolve to keep the armed forces of the United States in Mexico until such time as the Mexican government polices the border region so thoroughly that bandit raids into American territory are improbable is understood to be clearly stated in the note. Whether the suggestion of the Democratic platform plank that intervention might be undertaken as a last resort also was communicated is not known. Secretary Lansing announced that the note would be dispatched during the day but would not discuss its terms or say how it would be transmitted. It had been planned to send it by telegraph to Special Agent Rodgers in Mexico City for delivery to General Carranza. Mr. Lansing intimated that its text might be made public here to-night.

Mustering 100,000 Guardsmen While these diplomatic steps were in process, a force of national guardsmen which will not be less than 100,000 strong and may exceed that number by many thousands was being mustered into the service of the United States. Governors of all States had replied before noon to-day to instructions sent last night that their allotment of troops be immediately called out. In each instance, Secretary Bristow was informed that the orders had been given and the men were arming and proceeding to their State mobilization points.

From both coasts, also, additional naval vessels were under orders to proceed to Mexican waters for the relief of Americans who may gather from the interior. Light craft and transports are only engaged in this service. If necessary they will be

Funston Wants Penna., New York and Illinois Guardsmen Immediately

San Antonio, Texas, June 19.—It was indicated at headquarters of the southern department to-day that General Funston would request the War Department to send him first the militia of New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois as he believed he can make practical use immediately of these organizations. Officers here, who witnessed the work of getting the guardsmen of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona into shape, expressed the hope that none of State troops would be sent south until they had been drilled for a time and made partially fit for field service.

General Funston and his staff were chiefly concerned to-day in a study of how best to maintain the delicate balance between the United States and Mexico until militia organizations arrive. Officers at department headquarters do not believe that any of the State troops will get to the border before ten days and that even then only a small percentage of the total expected would be available for service.

Reports from the border to-day told of no new raids. Anti-American demonstrations took place yesterday in Mexican towns and the feeling generally throughout the frontier was that Carranza's troops or civilian organization in Mexico might precipitate a clash, but extreme caution was taken by American officers not to give cause for aggression.

GEN. BELL GATHERS FULL FORCE ON BORDER

LT. PRATT, GEN. BELL & LT. MOORE. LIEUTENANT PRATT, GENERAL BELL AND LIEUTENANT MOORE, IN A CONSULTATION AT EL PASO.

Following the crossing of the Mexican border by bandits, near El Paso, General Bell, in command of the United States troops in that vicinity, has assembled his entire force along the border and has issued orders that all Mexican snipers are to be instantly shot. The distribution of rifles to the citizens of Juarez, across the border from El Paso and the recent orders from General Trevino, that the troops under General Pershing would not be allowed to advance further into Mexico, has put the military authorities on the border on the qui vive.

MOBILIZATION ORDER TO LOCAL GUARD COMPANIES CAUSES RUSH OF RECRUITS

Headquarters, 8th Reg., N. G. P. Harrisburg, Penna. June 19, 1916.

Recruit company to minimum, sixty-five men. Companies will not report at armory for duty until Thursday. Make list of acceptable persons willing to enlist to one hundred fifty, this for future action.

MAURICE E. FINNEY, Lieut. Colonel.

That cryptic order was issued this morning by the commanding officer of the Eighth Regiment to every company commander.

That a similar order will be issued to each cavalry troop commander was the unofficial advice that reached the officers of the Governor's Troop. Saturday the local guardsmen will move to Mt. Gretna.

The Word Word spread in the city last night to the effect that the Guard of various States was to be called into service of the United States, electrified the martially-inclined folks as they hadn't been thrilled since the Spanish-American war. And company officers were

$7,000 Insurance Claim Held Up; Exhume Body

Pending the investigation of claims by the Eby estate to the Travelers Insurance Company for the payment of about $7,000 of an accident insurance policy taken out by Dr. Benjamin F. Eby, druggist, of New Cumberland, a Philadelphia report, the Medical Company, it was found necessary to exhume the body on Saturday. Dr. Eby died in April from a hemorrhage resulting from efforts to dislodge tooth-brush bristles from his throat. The preliminary examination made by Dr. George R. Moffitt, city bacteriologist, and Dr. William S. Wadsworth, of Philadelphia, reported that the company showed no traces of bristles, but evidence of a hemorrhage, according to these physicians. It is believed now that the case will be brought into court for a decision.

DELAY FORCED IN PLANS FOR MRS. ASTOR'S WEDDING

Bar Harbor, Me., June 19.—The wedding of Mrs. Madeleine Forster Astor and William K. Dick will not take place here till Thursday, if it takes place here at all, for there is a disposition on the part of Mrs. Astor to have the ceremony performed in New York City on the earliest possible day. It was the overlooking of the 1913 revision of the Maine statutes by a New York lawyer who left a few matters to chance that played havoc with the carefully planned preparations for Monday night, when the general public might not have learned of the marriage till afterward.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Carlisle, Pa., June 19.—Marjorie McGee tried to commit suicide at her home here last night with a revolver. It is said that trouble with her sweetheart led her to attempt to kill herself. She went to her room and locked the door. The first cartridge she pulled the trigger on missed fire, but the next one grazed her head, causing a scalp wound, but not fatal injury. Members of the family hearing the shot summoned the police and the door was broken open. Miss McGee was found unconscious on the floor. Medical aid was summoned and this morning it was announced that she was much better and would recover.

THREAT TO MOVE FACTORIES

New York, June 19.—A warning that New York will lose its business of manufacturing women's cloaks and suits as well as the skirt making industry was issued to-day by the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers Protective association, which is fighting the strike of the garment workers here. The association declared that the unions had forced upon the manufacturers an "intolerable condition." A great number of the members of the association already have decided to open shops elsewhere and others would go out of business, it is announced.

COUNT VON MOLTKE DIES

London, June 19.—The death of Lieut. General Count von Moltke at the memorial service to Field Marshal Von Der Goltz yesterday occurred just after he had delivered an eulogy of the late distinguished soldier, according to dispatches from Berlin.

WHEAT TAKES JUMP

Chicago, June 19.—War excitement showed itself promptly to-day on Chicago. The effect of the call of the militia to the Mexican border was chiefly noticeable in higher prices on wheat. A rise of 1 1/2c a bushel was shown in some cases, the September option selling at 104 1/2c as against 102 3/4c in Saturday's latest transactions. Contrary to the expectation of some traders, provision prices took a downward course.

N. Y. MARKET UNSETTLED

New York, June 19.—Stocks were generally unsettled to-day in consequence of the more intense condition in Mexico. The Mexican group was particularly affected, losing 2 to 4 points with as much more for some of the specialties comprising the motor and war issues. Investment stocks as represented by high class rails were lower by 1 to 2 points, with weakness obscure issues.

RIVER FRONT SITUATION

CONDITIONS along the River Front were serious enough to demand energetic treatment before the unexpected deluge that is now sweeping through the valley of the Susquehanna, but the damage that has resulted from the present flood makes imperative broad and generous consideration of the whole question by City Council. No time is to be lost. Harrisburg people and thousands of appreciative visitors have learned to regard the Susquehanna Basin and the fine treatment of the River Front as the city's most famous asset. It is talked about wherever natural charm makes an appeal.

Thousands of our people crowded the parks along the river yesterday and these expressed universal regret that so much damage had followed the unusual flood at this season. With one voice those who discussed the situation favored immediate action to complete the permanent protection of the slope in the way of providing the granolithic walk in accordance with the plan outlined by Farley Gannett, the consulting engineer, who has generously volunteered the services of his firm at this critical juncture. City Council should take definite action in this emergency so that no time shall be lost in doing what is necessary in the way of riprapping the lower sections of the slope, grading the upper walk and planting hardy shrubbery so that the high water hereafter may do little damage.

Meanwhile City Commissioner Gross will have the sympathy of the public in running down and making examples of the malicious boys who still imagine the big frosted globes on the standards along the "front steps" are proper targets for their destructive energies. It was bad enough yesterday to see drift-wood lodge against the standards and threaten their stability; it was worse, however, to see boys stoning the globes in full view of everybody.

City Council has a definite duty to perform and the matter of providing funds to protect the city's large investment along the river ought to have serious and immediate consideration.

BETTER BE THERE EARLY!

There'll Be Something Doing Every Minute of the Day at Paxtang

Thousands of Harrisburg's youngsters, all the schoolchildren of the city in fact, will be guests of the Telegraph at one swell outing at Paxtang park. Details of the plans have been printed from time to time and at a late hour to-day the arrangements had been finally completed. It's to be a big day in the history of Harrisburg's boys and girls; consequently history is to be made to-morrow. So all that's to be done to-day in the way of announcement is to repeat the special trolley schedule, remind the scores of eager small guests that Miss Majorie Sterrett, the "battleship girl" and Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh are to be guests of honor, and to give a final whoop-la tip to the more grown-ups who are luckless enough to be beyond the age of belief in fairy stories and marbles. The youngsters to-morrow will furnish the whoop of their own; only the weatherman can add the "la-la."

The Special Cars As is generally known special cars will haul the youngsters to the park and lest you forget what car to board
