MARKET SHOWS DECIDED INCREASE

Mexicans Continue Weak, bu Standard Rails Yield Easily

By Associated Press

New York, June 19.—Liquidation became more general with a decided increase of activity in the second hour, after several futile attempts to check the decline. Mexicans continued as weak features but standard rails, representative industrials and the less speculative stocks yielded easily under the heavy weight of offerings.

The short interest, which at first approached the market tentatively, also contributed materially to the weakening tendency. Shipping shares, which had shown some early strength, fell away with other leading issues. Extreme nervousness prevailed at midday. Bonds were irregular.
