WHO CARES IF IT DID RAIN TODAY?

Playground Youngsters Joyously Open the 1916 Season Anyway

Wet weather failed to interfere at all with the formal opening to-day of Harrisburg's playground season for 1916.

Rains of the last week or so, 'tis true, kept the Fourth street playgrounds out of commission, but at every other recreation place, according to reports received at noon by J. K. Staples, supervisor, the youngsters were out in force.

Before the instructors went to the playgrounds Mr. Staples met with them in the Council chamber and explained the instructions. Wednesday Mr. Staples will take up the problem of street playgrounds and will likely ask the co-operation of the highway and police departments to set aside certain portions of streets.

Palmer and Walling Both Go on Ticket

The names of both Charles Palmer and Emory A. Walling will go on the ballot for Supreme Court Justice at the November election, according to an announcement at the Capitol to-day. Neither received 51 per cent of the total primary vote cast, although Palmer secured 49,549, and Walling 48,371, with 300 scattered.

PUSHED BACK AFTER CAPITAL FALLS

Both Sides Lost Heavily It is expected that further details of the capture will show that both sides suffered sanguinary losses. Russian headquarters announces the capture of Cernowitz in the usual laconic terms. It gives no description of the desperate fighting known to have occurred for the crossings of the Pruth River after the Austrians blew up the bridges, but adds the interesting fact that the Austrians are being pursued into the Carpathians, which is the only alternative to being driven into Rumania, where they would be interned.

Resume Verdun Attacks German attacks on French positions north of Verdun have been resumed, but the Crown Prince's forces have been prevented making any further advance, the Paris War office announced. The assault of last night was on Hill 321, west of the Thiaumont farm, almost directly north of the farm.

Russians Drive On Correspondents on the eastern front point to the fighting along the Styra and Stokhod, near Kolki, as crucial in its nature. The Germans are assisting the Austrians there in an attempt to check the determined drive of the Russians for the railway junction of Kovel, a vital point in the Teutonic defensive system in that region.

Former German Admiral Takes Slap at Wilson

London, June 19. — Admiral Von Koester, former grand admiral of the German fleet, speaking at a meeting of the Flottenvereins in Berlin Sunday, coupled a defense of Germany's submarine warfare with a slap at President Wilson, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The admiral is quoted as saying: "We are entitled to use our submarine weapon against an enemy who uses mines and aeroplanes and when the advocate of humanity and justice — President Wilson — provides our enemy with the munitions without which he could not continue the war we are entitled to use our U boats in the most daring way."

Berlin Being Prepared For Word of Another Defeat at Hands of Russians

London, June 19. — Heavy fighting between the Russians advancing toward Kovel and the Germans under General Von Linsingen is reported by the Berlin Tageblatt correspondent to Austrian headquarters, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The Russians are in superior numbers and the dispatch asserts that the Tageblatt account of the fighting is worded so as to prepare Berlin for the news of another Teutonic retreat.

Russian Advance Will Compel Withdrawal of Austrians From Tarnopol

London, June 19. — A dispatch from Petrograd says: "The net strategical result of the fortnight's fighting is that the Russians hold practically a straight line between Lutsk, Buczac and Cernowitz. The military authorities point out that the capture of Radziviloff and the driving of the enemy forces to Brody and, in all likelihood, further in direction of Lemberg, will almost inevitably compel the withdrawal of the Austrian center from the Tarnopol region."
