

OF INTEREST TO THE WOMEN

ORGANIZE SWEET SIXTEEN CLUB, GIRLS, SAYS BEATRICE FAIRFAX

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

A number of my girl readers and their mothers — and one father — have responded to my question, "where is sweet sixteen?" I am glad to have so much evidence that, though fairly well hidden away, she is still with us. Several of the girls have asked for suggestions as to how to start a Sweet Sixteen Club.

"I am a high school girl, in my sixteenth year, and mother thinks it would be nice for me to start a Sweet Sixteen Club if you would advise us how to run it," writes Martha B. "I will be very much pleased if you will give a few suggestions as to how you would have us dress and wear our hair, etc."

I hope that she and all the other girls who wrote for suggestions about Sweet Sixteen Clubs will really keep their interest in the idea and form these clubs. It ought to be a very simple matter. First of all, why doesn't the sixteen-year-old girl set her elders the example of modesty in dressing? If she just combines good sense and good taste and modesty, she will hardly need me to suggest that low cut blouses and very sheer material and skirts scant where they ought to be full and absurdly short (if she has the figure of a woman even while she is a little girl), are particularly out of keeping with "sweet sixteen."

One is grown up so very long and a little girl for such a short time that the folly of piling youth's hair on top of its head and having it dressed to ape age is a very pathetic one, indeed.

Then give your skin a chance, girls. Don't cover it with cosmetics and clog up the pores, which fairly long to drink in sunshine and fresh air. Don't pile your hair on top of your head, but leave it down in a braid or loop to do its healthy growing in air and sunlight. Be just as natural as ever you can.

It's a good habit to get into, and you will look much prettier than when you are an absurd little painted imitation of a rather ordinary type of woman.

So much for the appearance of the girl who is sweet sixteen and proud to show it.

Now about a club. At your age I belonged to two. One was called the Junior Musicals. There were sixteen girls in it, and we met at one another's houses on Saturday afternoons. None of us were "artists," but each one of us could play a little or sing a bit, or perhaps manage a tune on the banjo or mandolin.

We studied the lives of the composers and taught ourselves to appreciate good music. And on holidays we used to go to hospitals and give entertainments for sick children. At our home parties we had simple refreshments, and when we went out we gave simple entertainments.

Simpleness was our keynote, and we learned a great deal and had a very happy time, too. Studying music earnestly didn't leave us much time for running after boys or worrying about dresses and society.

The other club to which I belonged at sixteen was a Sunday Afternoon Walking Club. There were only six of us, and each one in turn acted as hostess, planning a five-mile walk and bringing her five friends home for a simple tea at 6 o'clock.

A cooking club seems to me a particularly worthy institution for Sweet Sixteen to consider. A reading club with a mapped out course of classical study, or a sewing club either for charity or with a charitable intent to learn mending, and to take some of the burden off mother's shoulders would do splendidly, too.

It would be very easy for the schoolgirl of sixteen to interest some kindly teacher in her project and get concrete suggestions from her. The girl of sixteen who is working can do nothing better, I think, than form a walking club or a good reading club. But whatever your plan, be sure to have some definite thing around which to center your interest, and be sure to have your program simple and unpretentious.

LINGERIE LIKED IN COMBINATIONS

Smocking Holds Waist Fullness and Makes a Shapely Garment

By MAY MANTON

9067 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Combination Undergarment, Small 34 or 36, Medium 38 or 40, Large 42 or 44 bust.

Whether one likes underwear of lingerie cotton or of silk this model will be worn. It is very simple and at the same time it is shapely and thoroughly comfortable to wear. It can be made a combination garment or a chemise only. The smocking that holds the fullness at the front is a pretty feature and a fashionable one but not necessary for the chemise can be left plain or simple shirings can be substituted. There is nothing that makes a daintier trimming than scalloped edges and nothing is more fashionable when suitable material is used but some women will like to scallop the neck and armholes only and to finish the lower edge of the garment with a hem. Women who like crepe de chine and underwear silk finished in simple tailored style will prefer to underface the edges and to have them hemstitched by machine. The seam at the back gives shapeliness and fit.

For the medium size will be needed, 3 1/2 yards of material 27 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards 36 or 2 3/4 yards 44, with 5 yards of insertion and 8 yards of lace edging.

The pattern No. 9067 is cut in sizes, small 34 or 36, medium 38 or 40, large 42 or 44 bust. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

SUMMER DANGERS FOR THE BABY

The following suggestions are from a circular issued by Commissioner of Health, Samuel G. Dixon, relative to the care of infants:

The hot weather of this season of the year is extremely dangerous to the lives of infants and young children, not only because of the depressing effects of high atmospheric temperature in general, but more especially because of the effect of hot weather upon all perishable articles of food among which cow's milk holds the first place.

It is therefore highly important that cow's milk used for infant's food should be the purest and freshest that you can afford to buy. During the hot weather ice is absolutely necessary for the preservation of milk and all milk used for food should be cooled by ice as soon as it comes from the cow and should be kept next to the ice until ready to be used. A little money spent for ice may prevent illness and its greater expense for medicine, nursing and medical attendance. As water is often a carrier of disease, it is safest to use only boiled water for drinking or the preparation of a baby's food.

If it becomes necessary to feed the baby either entirely or only in part upon the bottle, remember that the greatest cleanliness is necessary in all details of the feeding. As soon as a bottle is finished, it should be thoroughly washed with cold water, then cleansed with hot water and borax (1 teaspoonful to a pint of water) and put aside for further cleansing before being used again. If you have only a few bottles and it becomes necessary to use the same bottle for the next feeding, boil it a few minutes before putting fresh food into it. Never let the baby nurse from the remains of a bottle which he has not finished at once. Take it away from the crib, pour out the milk and cleanse at once. Stale milk curds, sticking to the inside of a bottle after a few hours become poisonous and may contaminate fresh milk coming in contact with them. It is better to have as many bottles as the number of the baby's daily feedings, so that all the bottles can be boiled together before the food is prepared in the morning.

HAND-PAINTED SHOES

Are the Latest to Fall Into This Decorative Line

Are your boots and shoes hand-painted? If they are not they should be. If you want to be among the truly smart. Hand-painted hats, shoes, waists, gowns, lingerie, etc., are very popular for this season.

Any woman can decorate gowns and accessories with the stencil. The effect of the light colorings is beautiful and delicate. True, these light colors are used chiefly for evening. But even used with soft black materials the stenciled border or decoration is artistic and adds much to the effect of the gown.

The light scarf to be used at such times is very pretty if decorated in the same way. Garden hats are beautiful; those used with afternoon gowns are usually hand-painted, and it is quite a relief from the heavy hats which have been trimmed with large flowers and velvet ribbon. Generally the only trimming used with these decorations are streamers or streamers of ribbon.

Do you want a clear skin?

Many an otherwise attractive man or woman is a social failure because of a poor complexion. If your skin is not fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, let Resinol Soap help nature to clear it, in a normal, healthy way.

Simply use Resinol Soap regularly once or twice a day, and see if it does not quickly soothe and cleanse the pores, lessen the tendency to pimples, and leave the complexion clear, fresh and velvety.

When the skin is in really bad condition, spread on just a little Resinol Ointment for ten minutes before using Resinol Soap. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples, free, write to Dept. 25-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Men like Resinol Shaving Stick.

Pea Coal Will Advance 30c Per Ton

One important change has been made in the coal business. Heretofore Pea Coal prices remained the same throughout the year. Now Pea Coal will advance in price along with Nut, Stove and Egg. Next winter you will pay 30c more per ton for Pea Coal.

It is a well-known fact that the quality of Pea Coal is better in mild weather when the mines are not rushed with orders. Should the price not change it would be advisable to buy in summer and take advantage of the better coal. Now since there will be an increase in prices there is an added reason why you should put in a supply of Pea Coal.
