Tower City, Pa., June 20.—On Sunday night in the Lutheran Church after the congregation was dismissed Miss Dora Hixon and William Zerbe were married by the Rev. Mr. Frankfeld. Miss Esther Zerbe was the maid of honor and William Tallman was best man.

GOETHALS ASKS RETIREMENT

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Major General George W. Goethals, Governor of Panama Canal Zone, yesterday discussed with President Wilson his desire to retire. The question was not finally settled and General Goethals will see the President again next month. In meantime he will remain in this country.

NEW HOSPITAL RESIDENT

Dr. Humphrey W. Gwynn, of Tallahassee, Fla., has been appointed a resident physician at the Harrisburg hospital, the management announced yesterday. He will report July 1.

GOOD WILL FIREMEN PRESENT DR. HARE WITH GOLD BADGE

At Tabernacle Baptist Church, the members of the Good Will Fire Co. attended services in a body. Just before the sermon by the Chaplain of the Company, Charles H. Kilpatrick made a neat speech thanking Dr. Hare for his services and presenting him with a gold badge bearing his name as an expression of appreciation on the part of the firemen.

A. T. T. Opens District Plant Headquarters Here

Due to increased business, necessitating additional facilities and closer supervision of all work on the long distance lines, an announcement is made that the American Telephone & Telegraph Company has established district plant headquarters in the Arcade Building, this city, which will be in charge of P. M. Hall, district plant supervisor. Mr. Hall's territory will extend throughout the Harrisburg Division of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, comprising forty-two counties in this State and two in New Jersey. Hereafter all maintenance and construction work on the lines of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company was handled from the Philadelphia office. Mr. Hall who comes from New Haven, brought with him a number of assistants who will reside in Harrisburg.

GLASS IN HER THROAT

Ada Farley, aged 16, of Hershey, applied at the Harrisburg hospital, where she had a small particle of glass removed from her throat. The girl said that a bottle of soft drink broke when she opened it and that she thought some of the glass might have been in the liquid she drank. She left the institution but did not return this afternoon as ordered by the physicians.

EXERCISES FOR GRADUATES

Exercises will be given at the Sixth Street United Brethren church in honor of the college and high school graduates who are members of the church next Sunday evening, June 25. The program will consist of addresses, recitations and music. The principal address will be made by Dr. F. E. Downes, superintendent of the Harrisburg public schools. The graduates are as follows: Miss Mary Dougherty, of Lebanon Valley; Miss Nita Spangler, of Homer Kreider, Penrose Hoover and George Troup, of the Harrisburg High school.

There's Health

Along With Splendid Flavor In Grape-Nuts. This famous food has both delicious flavor that appeals to appetite; and the rich building elements of whole wheat and malted barley that makes for sturdy bodies and keen brains. Thousands who have made Grape-Nuts, with cream or good milk, a part of their daily rations find that it helps wonderfully in restoring "balance" and vigor, and puts "go" into life.

Newport Outing Club to Take Long Auto Trip

Special to the Telegraph. Newport, Pa., June 20.—The Outing Club of Newport will make its annual automobile trip, weather permitting, to-morrow. The trip will be to Lancaster via Elizabethtown, where an inspection of the Masonic home will be made, then to Lancaster, where dinner will be served at the New Franklin. Sufficient time will be spent here to inspect some of the large industries of the city, after which the return will be made to Harrisburg by way of Lebanon and thence home. It is expected that about seventy-five members of the club will make the trip. The officers of the club are: Dr. William H. Hoopes, president, and Lemuel W. Brimmer, secretary-treasurer.

Weddig Guests Flee Fire in Steel Magnte's Home

South Norwalk, Conn., June 20.—While wedding guests were making merry yesterday at the summer residence of James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, at Rock Lodge, Belle Isle, fire started in the kitchen and destroyed the structure, causing a loss estimated at $100,000.

Wedding Breakfast

Mr. Farrell's daughter, Miss Mary Theresa, had been married earlier in the day to Joseph B. Murray, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The wedding was held Tuesday, but the sudden death of Farrell's mother caused postponement of the ceremony. The wedding breakfast was being served to sixty guests when the fire was discovered. Firemen worked for half an hour before the party was finally of the danger. When smoke alarm poured into the dining hall the guests and servants removed the wedding presents, valued at $50,000, to safety. Only a few paintings and pieces of antique furniture were saved.

Jinx Closely Pursues Senator Charles Mills

Athens, Pa., June 20.—The jinx seems to be persistently camping on the trail of State Senator Charles E. Mills, of Athens. During his campaign for re-election he was incapacitated from electioneering because of an attack of rheumatism, being a patient at a sanatorium. Then "Good Roads" Jones, his opponent, won the nomination. Yesterday he became ill with acute appendicitis and underwent an operation at the Sayre hospital. It developed that his appendix had ruptured.

Penna. Will Comply, Gov. Brumbaugh Wires

Governor Brumbaugh last night issued this statement: The Commonwealth will gladly and promptly comply with the request of the President. Her quota of Guardsmen will mobilize on Saturday at Mount Gretna, and those not included in the call will be ready to go if requested. This state is ready to act. For some time, having the possibility of this call in mind, we have quietly held carefully prepared for such an emergency. Our men are anxious to enlist and the work will go on as speedily as the National government wishes. It is our intention to do promptly and completely our whole duty. M. G. BRUMBAUGH

1,200 DELEGATES ARE REGISTERED

C. E. Convention Committees Named; General Body Holds Session. Nearly twelve hundred delegates from Harrisburg and vicinity have already been registered for the State C. E. convention, July 11-14. It was reported at the business session of the general convention committee held at C. E. headquarters last evening. One hundred and fifty letters to ministers of Harrisburg and vicinity were sent out by the general committee requesting them to preach a sermon on "The State C. E. Convention" on Sunday, June 25. The general convention committee has been invited to attend the annual reception of the C. E. Choral Union to be held at Reservoir Park this evening.

COAL MEN MEET IN THIS CITY

WALTER L. MONTGOMERY. Big improvement in the present anthracite coal industry were advocated by officers of the Pennsylvania Retail Coal Merchants' Association in their reports at the opening of the twelfth annual convention of that organization in the Emerson-Brantingham Improvement Company building. James C. Tattersall, of Trenton, president of the association, in his report to the many delegates from Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and New Jersey, declared that the anthracite industry is the last of the big industries to adopt modern methods, including advertising campaigns. Mr. Tattersall urged a daily comparison of costs by the merchants, and stated that they should have a profit of $1.85 a ton on a two thousand pound basis. He expressed confidence in the fact that eventually operators will give a cash discount for prompt payment. "Educate the public to buy in the summer by advertising," was another point which Mr. Tattersall discussed at length, explaining methods to be used by the merchants.

Booster Rally

The following program has been arranged for a booster rally, for the State C. E. convention to be held July 11-14. The meeting will be held in the Reformed church at Hummelstown on Thursday evening, June 23. Song service; devotion; selection by the Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union; address by Dr. George Edwards, of this city; address, "The State Convention," by John E. McCullough; selection, Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union. Harry Laucks, will preside at this meeting.
