Youthful Band of Campers Commandeer Picnic Rations

In these days of wars and rumors of wars you can expect most anything from a military organization whether regular or merely a company of small boys.

When Mrs. Herman P. Miller, head of the commissary department for the Market Square Presbyterian Church picnic, Wednesday, came to visit the big store of food and refreshments carefully stored up for the big event, it's a safe bet she was more than surprised.

In the quartermaster's department, the committee had stored many large loaves of bread, cantaloupes, bread, sandwiches, boiled eggs and other dainties.

When the committee prepared to move the stores to Rolling Springs they found a note, telling that all stores had been commandeered by a youthful band of campers.

BIG TIME AT PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, June 23.—Explosions in the plant of the Liquid Carbonic Company here to-day caused a fire which destroyed the factory buildings and extended to the plant of the British-American Chemical Company which also was destroyed. FIND CARRANZA CAMP

Columbus, N. M., June 23.—American scouting patrols reported to military headquarters to-day that a small detail of Carranza troops was encamped about 20 miles south of Columbus. Efforts to determine whether the force was the advance guard of some of the forces which evacuated Juarez yesterday were futile.

RELIEF FUND PLANS SHAPEN

tives are in the service of the government. I desire to personally subscribe $50 toward this fund. "I would also like to suggest that the disbursement of this fund be put in the hands of the Associated Aid Societies of Harrisburg, as they are peculiarly equipped to investigate propositions requiring such relief and they will undoubtedly administer the fund to better advantage than anyone else."

Rotary Club Has Plan

The Telegraph is also in receipt of the following letter from Secretary William Robinson, of the Rotary Club, written at the request of President Howard C. Fry and other members of that organization, suggesting that a call be issued for a mass meeting and that citizens pledge themselves to the payment of a dollar a month for the relief of soldiers' families:

The air is impregnated with patriotism. So it should be. The flower of our young and middle-aged blood is leaving families and homes for the sake of the country. Many other men would like to join those brave boys, but are disqualified by reason of age. But while prevented from going, they are with the soldier-boys in spirit. They cannot go, but they are willing to help. The Rotary Club heartily endorses the Telegraph's plan for a relief fund to assist the families while the fathers, sons and brothers are at the front. In our population of over 70,000 could we not get 10,000 income savers and wage earners to contribute $1 a month each to those who may need help? This amount divided with the amounts received from the government and employers would be an assistance and would show the appreciation of those who must remain at home. Why not call a mass meeting for the purpose? We respectfully offer the suggestion to you in the hope that you will see enough merit in it to agitate such a movement.

Another Hundred Dollars

David Kaufman, of the Kaufman Underselling Store, this afternoon added another $100 to the fund. He made the suggestion that where families are in need of money, it might be given as loans without interest.

In his letter to the Telegraph to-day David Kaufman of Kaufman's Underselling Store, says: "My Dear Mr. Stackpole:

"I heartily commend your efforts in trying to raise a fund for the purpose as suggested in your issue of June 22. "However, I would like to recommend that it be called an emergency fund and be used for the purpose of loaning same out in suitable amounts to individuals on their own responsibility and for any period of time they may desire same without interest. Of course this fund is to be used only to make loans to families where one or more male members have been called away for duty to their country.

"Would further suggest that the fund be taken care of by a committee of good responsible citizens.

"You may enroll me for the amount of $100 as a subscription to this fund."

Doubtless many others will be ready to add their contributions to this fund and the soldier-boys will be glad to know as they leave home that there are left behind those who will see to it that their wives and children and aged dependents shall not suffer. The Telegraph will make acknowledgment of subscriptions and see that the funds reach the proper sources of distribution when these shall have been organized. To date the subscriptions are as follows:

Loss of Life on Russian Steamer Sunk by Mine in Black Sea Heavy

Petrograd, via London, June 23.—The loss of life on the steamer Mercury, which was sunk by a mine in the Black Sea, has been undoubtedly large from late reports received in regard to the list.

The Mercury was traveling from Odessa to Kherzon with 800 passengers including a large number of college students who were bound for their homes for the summer vacation. The vessel struck the mine 13 miles from Odessa and two miles off shore in a rough sea. The bow was blown off and the ship sank in five minutes.

Only two lifeboats were launched and both laden with passengers were overturned.

Thirteen boats which were sent to the rescue were unable to approach the scene owing to the heavy sea but succeeded in rescuing passengers who were strong swimmers or who floated to them on fragments of wreckage. In this way a majority of the passengers were saved but a large number are unaccounted for. Twenty-eight bodies have been washed ashore. The disaster was witnessed by the captain of a Russian steamer who, however, did not attempt to come to the rescue because he believed the ship had been torpedoed and that his own vessel would suffer the same fate.

THE BRAIN WORKERS' NEED OF CADOMENE

nerves stop, his work stops, too, and with that his finances and pleasures, both domestic and social. What all these men and women need is the vitalizing influences of Cadomene Tablets, something to feed the brain and nerves, not to temporarily stimulate them.

Cadomene Tablets are a true tonic and builder to the tired, nervous system. It does not lift you up one minute to leave you in the lurch the next. But what good it does is lasting.

Cadomene Tablets contain in highly concentrated form essential vital food for the nerve cells all over the body.

Every Cadomene Tablet taken into the system is paying something for us into the health and strength of our nervous systems, adding to our vitality, endurance and the efficiency of our lives.

On account of its close relation to natural nerve substance, Cadomene is greedily taken up by the nerve cells. The result is a prompt nourishing and tonic action to the whole system and every bodily structure. The mind brightens, muscular tone is increased, all the bodily functions are regulated, sleep is sound and undisturbed, and the recuperative, vitalizing and strengthening effects are soon felt in every structure.

You get, through Cadomene Tablets, the things you want in this world, the pleasures, the luxuries, the comforts. You are master of your body and brain, and the power of accomplishing is yours. No more disappointments and frustrated hopes just at the height of victory.

Every man's success and pleasure lies in his nerve and tissue force and strength.

The work of the imagination is costly to the human organism, whether it be the work of brains that establish great industries, invest wonderful patents, write great books for the knowledge of humanity, or the salesmen, clerks, accountants, business men or professional men generally. Nothing causes so much wear and tear of the physical and mental mechanism as the accomplishments of the brain.

The price the brain-worker pays for his achievements is always heavy and often tragic. Any brains and nervous systems sink under the load of daily requirements. When his
