

REPLY OF CARRANZA TO NOTE EXPECTED TODAY; BELIEVED TO BE UNFAVORABLE

MEXICO WANTS TO INVESTIGATE CARRIZALFRAY

No Suggestions or Proposal of Negotiations Will Be Accepted; Prisoners Must Be Released; If First Chief Delays Immediate Repudiation President Will Immediately Go Before Joint Session of Congress

THIS IS REGARDED BY OFFICIALS AS CRUCIAL DAY IN NEGOTIATIONS

Answer, According to Special Agent Rodgers, Will Support Previous Assertions That American Troops Are Responsible; Indications Are That Congress Will Comply Promptly With Request For Armed Rescue Force

Washington, June 28.—Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City, in a brief telegram dated yesterday and received at the State Department early to-day, said he expected to be handed to-day Carranza's reply to the American note demanding the release of soldiers taken prisoner at Carrizal.

The message containing but two sentences, was the first word the department had heard from Mr. Rodgers since he reported the delivery of the note. It said it was believed the Mexican authorities were investigating the Carrizal affair but gave no indication of what would be the reply to the American demands.

To Go Before Congress To-morrow There was nothing to indicate to-day that the Washington government's position had undergone any change. Officials still expect President Wilson to go to Congress to-morrow if Carranza failed to act or replied unfavorably. Anything short of immediate release of the American troops will be unsatisfactory. No suggestions or proposal of negotiations in this regard will be accepted.

It was pointed out to-day that Secretary Lansing's note presenting the demand sought to open no discussion of the Carrizal incident. The fact that the men were captured and were being held was viewed as a hostile act requiring immediate repudiation by the de facto government through release of the prisoners.

Believe Reply Is Unfavorable Mr. Rodgers' statement that Carranza officials appeared to be conducting an inquiry into the Carrizal clash was interpreted here as indicating rather than the reply would support previous assertions that American troops were responsible than that a change of attitude was to be expected.

While it will not affect the general policy of the government, the report on the Carrizal fight from General Pershing is awaited here with interest. The only account of Captain Morey must be supplemented by that of troops who were with Captain Boyd. A board of officers may be assigned by General Pershing to assemble a report based on the stories of all command.

Eusebio Arredondo, the Carranza ambassador designate, still had received no word early to-day from his chief about the status of the diplomatic negotiations. Mr. Arredondo has informed General Carranza of the determined sentiment in the United States demanding the release of the American

License Clerk Wig-wags Questions to Bridal Pair

When Thomas Howard Jones and Clara Bell Johnson, fellow students at Galladette College, Maryland, smilingly appeared at the Dauphin county marriage bureau this morning and suddenly did a lot of finger movements on the clerical staff of the recorder's office but general Jake Alvord, the license clerk, stood agape and wondered why under the stars the callers didn't say something. Only Mr. Alvord smiled knowingly—and he wig-wagged an answer.

An Interesting Telegraph Feature

At the request of this newspaper Captain George F. Lumb will furnish the Telegraph with a series of talks on military matters of live importance, which will be especially interesting to those not familiar with military subjects. Captain Lumb enlisted in the Fifth United States Cavalry when 18 years of age and served four and a half years with the Fifth Regular Cavalry of the Department of Texas previous to the Spanish-American War.
