In Memoriam

MEMORIAM
IN sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, who departed this life June 28, 1915.

The month of June once more is here. To us the saddest of the year, Because it took from us away Our loved one, one year ago to-day.

You are not forgotten, dear one,
Nor will you ever be.
We often sit and think of you when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friends that grief can call its own.

Mother, father, sisters and brother (Signed) MRS. BARNEY McGUIRE.

Attention was again mainly directed towards Washington where the Mexican situation indicated greater tension. Prices were well maintained in the absence of pressure, the only exception being Industrial Alcohol, which yielded over three points on small offerings. Some rails augmented early gains, notably Ontario and Western which responded to the resumption of dividends. Bonds were irregular.
