MORAN IS BEATEN Baseball Summary; BY JACK DILLON

Pittsburgh Heavyweight Lacks Punch; Target After Third Round; Lacks Training

Special to the Telegraph Brooklyn, N. Y., June 30.-More than 20,000 fight fans crowded Federal League Ball Park last night and saw Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, weighing 169 pounds in ring costume, beat Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, who caled 204 1/2 pounds stripped, in a 10-round bout. Moran, fat, slow and apparently untrained, blew up after the third round, and after that session was a veritable target for Dillon.

In each round from the third he went to his corner bleeding from the mouth and nose, where he had been pummeled by Dillon's right at close quarters. Dillon missed a splendid chance to win by a knockout in the fourth round. Moran had missed a right-hand lead and Dillon caught him with left and right before he could

Right Swing On Chin

The right swing caught Moran flush on the chin. The blow dazed the blond-haired heavyweight for an in-stant and he ducked away. Dillon, instant and he ducked away. Dillon, instead of following up the advantage, stepped back. Moran then rushed into a clinch and held on until Referee Matt Hinkle tore them apart. Moran had regained his bearings and the opportunity was lost.

Some of the blows landed on Dilon's shoulders, others on his head, while a score missed their intended mark.

while a score missed their intended mark.

All the while Dillon was pegging away, landing often on Moran's midsection, until the fourth round, when he began to get busy on Moran's Jaw. At close quarters he landed three blows to one.

For the first three rounds Moran's height and reach played a most important part in the contest. He was able to stab Dillon with his left almost at will, but the blows lacked force and were badly timed. He led with his right, but the arm might as well have been tied to his body. It was Dillon's battle.

ONE GAME MAY BE SATURDAY PLAN

Previous Arrangements With Motive Power Association Prevents Double-header

Failure to make earlier arrangenents, due to the uncertainty of baseball in Harrisburg, may bring a change in plans to-morrow. "Bill" Coughlin with his Scranton team, who Coughlin with his Scranton team, who is here to-day, is scheduled for two games to-morrow. This is impossible because of the game between the Harrisburg and New York Motive Power teams. Scranton will not have any more Sunday baseball, and a game in that city is said to be out of the ouestion.

any more Sunday baseball, and a game in that city is said to be out of the question.

It looks like one game with the miners. Final arrangements with the Motive Power Association have not been completed. Secretary Frank Seiss wa sworking hard to-day to bring about a satisfactory adjustment. It is too late to cancel the game with New York, and there may be a doubleheader with the railroaders as the opening attraction.

One-Sided Battle

The battle yesterday was one sided. Wilkes-Barre won out score 11 to 2. Kutz the former Allentown Tri-State twirler had bunches of puzzlers and he worked them satisfactorily. In the meantime Volz with his wild heaves was unable to stop the Barons' big sticks. Kerns who went in after the seventh inning had nothing. Local hitters were also out of work, and it was an easy win for Noonan's boys. The game while one sided in results and hitting, had some interesting features. Harrsburg's fielding was lacking, errors of omission and commission being big factors. The score in detail follows and will explain further why flarrisburg did not win. The score:
