FINE CELEBRATION

Good Old-Fashioned Fourth of July to End With Display of Fireworks

The motto of the entertainment committee of the Colonial Country Club for the Independence Day cele-Club for the Independence Day celebration to-morrow is "let joy by unconfined." Arthur H. Bailey, general chairman with Redsecker Brinser and Brooke Trout sub-chairmen say that a real old-fashioned day will be spent with various diversions and sports. Gay hued Japanese lanterns will decorate the porches and terrace and all day long there will be "something doing." In golf the "Flag Tournament" will attract many, while others will prefer tennis and cards.

Dancing to the music of the Updegrove orchestra will be a pleasure of the evening and refreshments will be served. Two hours of fireworks with special set pieces, cannon saluting rockets, prismatic dragon rockets, floral fountains, bombshellers and the like will delight everyone and bring the

of Selinsgrove Resident

Everyone remembers Captain John A. Bell, the last tollgate keeper along River Road who for seven years took the pennies of riders by. Others will recall him as the "ginger cake man" who sold delicious tailor cakes at your door baked by Mrs. Bell, who recently stopped baking.

To-day Captain and Mrs. Bell are celebrating their golden wedding, receiving congratulations from a host of friends as well as cards and flowers. They were married July 3, 1866, in old Zion Lutheran Church by the Rev. George S. Stelling, and have always made their home in this city. Of their two children but one is living. Mrs. Joseph Quigley. Captain Bell who is 78 years cid, was the gallant captain of Company A, 21st regiment, captain of Company A, 21st regiment, Pennsylvania artillery corps, and has many interesting tales to tell of the civil War. Mrs. Bell will reach her seventy-fifth birthday on July 7. Both are enjoying reasonably good health.

Young Canoeists Start Down the Juniata River

Richard F. Hamer, of this city; William Jennings, Ross Jennings and William Brown, of Duncannon, left Saturday for a ten days' cance trip from the headwaters of the Juniatz river to Duncannon. This is the third consecutive year that the young men have taken this trip and they have some very exciting experiences shooting some of the larger rapids in the upper part of the river. A complete camping outfit is carried in the two cances and every evening the young men pitch camp along the shore of the Juniata. This year they expect to camp at Huntingdon, Mt. Union, Lewistown, Mifflin and Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eppleman and daughter of Lancaster, were recent guests at the home of Levi Shader in this city. Miss Emma Keeney of Rockville entertained a merry party of schoolgirls with an afternoon of water sports followed by a picnic lunch along the river. In the evening there were various social diversions.

The party included Miss Fanny Ness, Miss Beatrice Krebs, Miss Paulino Kast, Miss Frances Hause, Miss Katherine Roeder, Miss Miriam Himes, Miss Middred Burknolder, Miss Ethel Forney, of Dauphin; the Misses Mary, Myrtle and Emma Keeney.

Getting Summer Vim

That's when you need your energy.

Hot days and murky nights exhaust you rapidly. You can't afford to carry a handicap of catarrh. It surely saps your strength. Clear it up with a good catarrhal onic—one that invigorates as well as remedies.

Peruna Supplies Vigor

It removes waste matter, tones up all the digestion, clears up internal infammations—sets the machinery working right, and builds you up. For summer lassitude, colds that hang on, stomach disorders and catarrhal conditions generally, nothing equals the old reliable remedy that for 44 years has made good.

You can be well this summer if you will do the right thing now.

Thousands have testified Peruna made them well. It's as good to day as it ever was. It's the invigorating tonic that removes the catarrh.

Tablet form is very handy for quick results.
