

AMUSEMENTS

Grand Theater
1426 DERRY STREET
TO-NIGHT

We will show the First Episode of "The Mysteries of Myra" with following Episodes each Monday thereafter. Also "World War in Kidland," with all juvenile actors, and "The Meeting," in 5 acts, featuring Beatie Barriscale.

REGENT
MAGARO & SWEET & MUR

The theater that is 30 degrees cooler inside than out.

To-day and to-morrow, Paramount presents VALENTINE GRANT, in a stirring drama of adventure, "THE INNOCENT LIE."

Added Attraction — Paramount-Burton Holmes Travel Pictures.

Wednesday and Thursday, "GERALDINE FARRAR, in "MARIA ROSA."

COLONIAL

The Coolest Theater in the City

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS
the original gloom chaser, in "REGGIE MIXES IN"

A 5-part comedy drama that is the best ever.

FORD STERLING
in a return engagement of "THE SNOW CURIE"

The funniest of two-reel Keystone comedies.

SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTION — The picture of Harrisburg's own soldier boys that was shown at the Majestic Theater last week.

With our modern equipment for showing pictures, which is the best in the State, these pictures will be so clear that you will have no trouble in recognizing your friends.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES

Horse Racing
Middletown, July 5, 1916
2.18 Class

1. Tommy Thorn ..... Green
2. Silver Mine ..... Barnes
3. Fred S. .... Smith
4. Snap Axtworthy ..... Wonderly
5. Ada H. .... Hursh

THREE YEAR OLD, Trot and Pace

1. Edward H. .... Carter
2. J. F. K. .... Myers
3. Lucy Bond ..... Page
4. Dolly Hale ..... Wonderly

TWO YEAR OLD, Trot and Pace

1. John L. R. .... Hursh
2. Mabel Hale ..... Hursh
3. Lynn Jolia ..... Page

MAYME HALE
12-month-old Colt Shown One Mile in Harness.

In case of rain, races will be raced off Saturday, July 8th.

Largest Naval Guns in World For U. S. Battleships

Special to the Telegraph

Washington, D. C., July 3. — After a spirited debate of a year or more, in which the achievement of the British and German battleships in the North Sea battles have been closely followed and analyzed, the United States navy has at last decided to adopt a 16-inch gun for the new battleships California and Tennessee. In place of twelve 14-inch guns carried by the Pennsylvania class the new battleships will mount eight 16-inch guns, the biggest navy guns developed by any navy in the world.

The change was recommended by the Navy General Board a few days ago, and was approved by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who will soon make formal announcement of the fact.

The superior value of the 16-inch gun lies in its power to pierce armor plate at a greater range. The 14-inch gun serves for this up to about 17,000 yards; the 16-inch guns up about 17,000 yards. Thus it was the contention of the officers favoring the 16-inch guns that the loss of four guns, necessitated by a change to the 16-inch type, was not counterbalanced by the advantage to be obtained in a battle fought at the extreme 15,000 to 17,000-yard range.

On the other hand, those advocating the 14-inch guns held that the United States navy could not afford to take a chance on having its dreadnaughts out-derranged, for in that case an enemy with greater speed might hold a range where his shells would pierce the armor plates of the American battleships, whose 14-inch guns would be useless.

$145,000 IN DIVIDENDS

Special to the Telegraph

Waynesboro, Pa., July 3. — Saturday was one of the four dividend days that occur in Waynesboro each year. There was paid out here in cash dividends to the stockholders of a number of the different corporations more than $145,000.

AMUSEMENTS

VICTORIA
SPECIAL ATTRACTION
2200

THEATRE
PICTURES ARE BOOKED THROUGH The Hanley
COMPRISING OF PHILLY
HOPE-JONES UNIT PIPE ORGAN
EQUAL OF 50 PIERCE ORCHESTRA

TO-DAY ONLY
MABEL TALLIAFERRO
the famous star, in a 5-act picture play, "THE SNOW BIRD"

Also Part No. 8 of
"WHO'S GUILTY?"

To-morrow
"THE MOTHER WHO PAID"

MAJESTIC
WILLER & VINCENT VAUDEVILLE
THEATRE
NEW BILL OF VAUDEVILLE
TO-DAY
Including

THE SIX HARVARDS
A Refined Musical Novelty
also
New Pictures of the Harrisburg Soldier Boys

In Camp at Mt. Gretna — See the Troops at Work and Play.

The Social Pirates
Story No. 11
The Fangs of the Tattler.

Plot by George Bronson Howard.
Novelization by Hugh C. Weir.
Copyright Kalem Company.

(Continued from Yesterday.)

Runkle gave a grunt of satisfaction. "I am glad, Douglas," he said, "that you are my companion," continued Mary viciously. "And I always thought she was the best friend I had. I don't know why she threw me over for Raymond Daniels."

"Or he threw YOU over for her!" suggested Runkle maliciously.

Mary sprang to her feet with a fresh burst of rage.

"If there was only some way in which I could even up with her, and make her suffer as she has made me!"

"I thought Mrs. Douglas was the possessor of a husband," said Runkle reproachfully. "Or was that just gossip?"

Mary looked at him musingly, and suddenly her eyes snapped with satisfaction.

"If Steven Douglas ever found out about his young and beautiful wife's flirtations with Raymond Daniels, his youthful wife, she stopped short, biting her lips at the very thought, and saw Runkle's eyes gleam.

"Yes," he encouraged. "And what would happen if he did?"

"Happen?" cried Mary. "He would throw her out with a dollar! But he would have to be given actual proof. He is too wise to take gossip for evidence."

Runkle lit a cigar, and smoked for a moment in silence.

"Would he pay for such evidence?" he asked at length.

"What do you mean?" said Mary suspiciously.

Runkle laughed. "Get wise! Get wise!" he chuckled. "Why not cash in on Douglas, and at the same time pay back the wife for what she has done to you? It isn't often that a chance of that kind comes to a girl!"

Mary's eyes were so nervous.

"If I only dared!" she hesitated.

"Yes, I think he WOULD pay—hand- somely! But don't be too greedy. I would be satisfied if I could pay back my debt to HER—the treacherous lady!"

The gleam in Runkle's eyes deepened. Around a bend in the road Wentworth's automobile appeared leisurely, stopping opposite the bench. Runkle rose to his feet, and sauntered over to the road, where he talked for a moment with Wentworth, and then beckoned to Mary. The girl obeyed the summons with just the right degree of hesitation, and found Wentworth's eyes appraising her shrewdly as Runkle explained the situation. She smiled up at him, and Wentworth moved over to the end of his seat, making room for her.

"Won't you let me give you a lift?" he invited. "Then we can talk at our leisure."

Mary veiled her elation, and glanced at her watch hesitatingly. "I don't know whether I should go—"

"Nonsense!" protested Wentworth, and the girl allowed herself to be persuaded.

She knew that Runkle had told the other of their conversation, and that the man had taken this opportunity to study her. She was waiting for her to bring up the subject of Mrs. Douglas, but she studied the calculating eyes of Wentworth, and at length he was obliged to refer to the topic himself.

"Runkle tells me that you are living at the Rosnoaks with Mrs. Susan Douglas," he began. "And that you have been having some trouble. Tell me about it."

Mary glanced quickly from under her eye-lashes. There was a genuine ring of interest in his voice, and she felt his eyes traveling over her face and figure approvingly as she unfolded the calculating story of Wentworth's details which she had recorded to Runkle. When Wentworth finally instructed the chauffeur to stop, at a point near the Rosnoaks, he lit a cigarette in his good-byes, and forced her to consent to dine with him the next evening.

She drew a long breath as the car finally rolled away, Wentworth waving to her from the rear seat. She felt that she had conquered! With sparkling eyes she hurried to their apartment in the Rosnoaks, and excitedly poured out the latest news of Wentworth to the impatiently waiting Mona. The other girl hugged her impulsively at the conclusion of her story, and the two stared silently into each other's eyes.

"It is a risky game, dear!" said Mona wistfully.

"But the goal is worth it!" returned Mary resolutely.

Three weeks passed—three weeks of varying incidents. Mona's flirtation with Carlton, or young Daniels as their new friends knew him, was beginning to attract more than casual attention, and more than once Mona might have been surprised to find Wentworth surveying them at the various affairs, where they chanced to meet. In the meantime, Mary's acquaintance with Reginald Wentworth was fast approaching a degree of intimacy. It was apparent to the girl that the man was genuinely attracted to her, and the topic of Mrs. Douglas, and the supposed young wife's indiscretions was discussed a number of times with a direct candor and speculation. But there was a vague, indefinable element of distrust in Mary's mind, and she understood until one evening when the two were seated at a restaurant on the outskirts of the city for a Bohemian dinner.

During the ride Wentworth carelessly drew from his pocket a folder which he had drawn from his pocket to refer to a memorandum it contained. Suddenly he looked up at her, and tapping the folder significantly, said: "Do you realize that its contents are almost priceless to me?—and that I am very much worried as to their safety?"

Mary shook her head with a quizzical smile.

"I dare say that the lady in question would redeem the half a dozen letters in this folder for a thousand apiece, and be grateful for the chance!"

The subject dropped, and it was not until Wentworth, received a sudden telephone call during the course of the dinner, and excused himself that the conversation returned to the folder. There by his plate was the wallet, where in his haste he had forgotten it! For a moment she hesitated, and then her hand reached out stealthily to appropriate it. The instinct that whispered her a swift warning she could not have explained, but she drew back hurriedly, leaving the wallet undisturbed. Was it not possible that Wentworth had laid a clever trap to test her? It was inconceivable that a man, accustomed to being his wife, would be careless enough to leave a six thousand dollar weapon of blackmail conspicuously on a restaurant table!

Wentworth sauntered back, and his glance told Mary that her suspicions had been justified.

With a low laugh he picked up the wallet, and turning it inside out, flung it back. It was empty.

"Please accept my apologies for doubting you," he said in a low tone. "But I couldn't take a chance to take it—and if we are to play the game together, I must be absolutely certain that we are going to do it on the square!"

Paxtang Park Theater
Matinee and Night

THE FOUR PALETTES
Presenting
THE JOLLY PAINTERS

ELIZABETH OTTO | TEE LONG FOO
The Girl at the Piano | Chinese Comedian

GUTZMAN TRIO | COTTELL & BOULDEN
Cuban Acrobats | in Vaudeville de Lux

LADIES ADMITTED FREE THIS EVENING

Special Grand Fireworks Display Friday Evening
The Pyrotechnical Sensation of the Season

JULY 4th
AT
Hershey Park
A DAY OF PLEASURE

Popular Amusements

The Pool
For Bathing and shoot the chute

Carrousselle
For Young and Old

Miniature Railway
Free and Interesting

Zoo
Boating and Canoeing etc.

DINE AT THE NEW BEAUTIFUL PARK CAFE

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
PAXTANG—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Reggie Mixes In."
REGENT—"The Innocent Lie."
VICTORIA—"The Snow Bird."

LOCAL THEATERS
Interesting pictures of the local boys at Camp Brumbaugh, Mount Gretna, are being shown at the Victoria, Regent, and Majestic this week. The camera man spent three busy days taking views of our Harrisburg boys, which shows them entertaining their guests; some of the pleasures they indulge in; shows them in bathing; and also their initiation of the "rookies," as well as many other sports. The vaudeville bill included with these pictures is headed by the Six Harvards, who offer a musical act. They not only play different musical instruments, but introduce several vocal numbers. Completing the bill are: Ward and Brown, two men and a woman, in a comedy skit entitled, "On the Boardwalk"; Buckley and Dove, comedy singers; and the first half of "A Little Bit of Old New York," and Kelly and Galvin, two men, in an entertaining Italian comedy singing and talking act.

Valentine Grant will appear in a Paramount picture, "The Innocent Lie," at the Regent to-day and to-morrow. Miss Grant portrays the character of Nora O'Brien, a poor Irish emigrant, who on her arrival in America, is rendered unconscious by a blow while searching for her brother. Upon awakening she finds herself in the presence of the Winters family, in a luxurious furnished room. She continually calls her "cousin," much to Nora's bewilderment. She finally realizes that she was bearing away from another Nora addressed to a certain Winters family. She immediately returns to her home, but is overruled by the doctor and the kind people about her.

The events following are of a thrilling character and serve to make an interesting production.

Wednesday and Thursday — Geraldine Farrar will appear in a picture of the famous Spanish story, "Maria Rosa." The cast will include Wallace Reid and Pedro de Cordoba.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

Try Telegraph Want Ads

To the Smokers of the Following Brands of Cigarettes

DEITIES
MURAD HELMAR
MOGUL TURKISH TROPHIES
LUXURY LONDON LIFE

Manufactured by S. ANARGYROS

The rumored shortage of Turkish tobacco may affect other manufacturers, but causes us no concern whatever.

It is a well known fact that Turkish tobacco improves with age, and for years we have had, and now have in storage in the United States by far the largest supply of pure Turkish tobacco ever carried by any manufacturer.

So large is our supply of pure Turkish tobacco that we are now making the above standard brands out of the 1910 and 1911 crops, ageing our leaf from the subsequent crops for future use.

We maintain in the Orient our own organization, and are not dependent upon the haphazard supply from brokers and speculators.

Notwithstanding the difficulties of ocean traffic, we have continued shipments from the Orient, adding to our already enormous leaf stock more than a million of pounds in the past few months—the most recent cargo, amounting to about four hundred thousand pounds of the best Xanthi and Cavalla leaf, having arrived at the Port of New York on Thursday, June 22, 1916.

Each individual cigarette in every package of the above brands is guaranteed 100% Pure Turkish Tobacco.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
PAXTANG—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Reggie Mixes In."
REGENT—"The Innocent Lie."
VICTORIA—"The Snow Bird."

LOCAL THEATERS
Interesting pictures of the local boys at Camp Brumbaugh, Mount Gretna, are being shown at the Victoria, Regent, and Majestic this week. The camera man spent three busy days taking views of our Harrisburg boys, which shows them entertaining their guests; some of the pleasures they indulge in; shows them in bathing; and also their initiation of the "rookies," as well as many other sports. The vaudeville bill included with these pictures is headed by the Six Harvards, who offer a musical act. They not only play different musical instruments, but introduce several vocal numbers. Completing the bill are: Ward and Brown, two men and a woman, in a comedy skit entitled, "On the Boardwalk"; Buckley and Dove, comedy singers; and the first half of "A Little Bit of Old New York," and Kelly and Galvin, two men, in an entertaining Italian comedy singing and talking act.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
PAXTANG—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Reggie Mixes In."
REGENT—"The Innocent Lie."
VICTORIA—"The Snow Bird."

LOCAL THEATERS
Interesting pictures of the local boys at Camp Brumbaugh, Mount Gretna, are being shown at the Victoria, Regent, and Majestic this week. The camera man spent three busy days taking views of our Harrisburg boys, which shows them entertaining their guests; some of the pleasures they indulge in; shows them in bathing; and also their initiation of the "rookies," as well as many other sports. The vaudeville bill included with these pictures is headed by the Six Harvards, who offer a musical act. They not only play different musical instruments, but introduce several vocal numbers. Completing the bill are: Ward and Brown, two men and a woman, in a comedy skit entitled, "On the Boardwalk"; Buckley and Dove, comedy singers; and the first half of "A Little Bit of Old New York," and Kelly and Galvin, two men, in an entertaining Italian comedy singing and talking act.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
PAXTANG—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Reggie Mixes In."
REGENT—"The Innocent Lie."
VICTORIA—"The Snow Bird."

LOCAL THEATERS
Interesting pictures of the local boys at Camp Brumbaugh, Mount Gretna, are being shown at the Victoria, Regent, and Majestic this week. The camera man spent three busy days taking views of our Harrisburg boys, which shows them entertaining their guests; some of the pleasures they indulge in; shows them in bathing; and also their initiation of the "rookies," as well as many other sports. The vaudeville bill included with these pictures is headed by the Six Harvards, who offer a musical act. They not only play different musical instruments, but introduce several vocal numbers. Completing the bill are: Ward and Brown, two men and a woman, in a comedy skit entitled, "On the Boardwalk"; Buckley and Dove, comedy singers; and the first half of "A Little Bit of Old New York," and Kelly and Galvin, two men, in an entertaining Italian comedy singing and talking act.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville.
PAXTANG—Vaudeville.
COLONIAL—"Reggie Mixes In."
REGENT—"The Innocent Lie."
VICTORIA—"The Snow Bird."

LOCAL THEATERS
Interesting pictures of the local boys at Camp Brumbaugh, Mount Gretna, are being shown at the Victoria, Regent, and Majestic this week. The camera man spent three busy days taking views of our Harrisburg boys, which shows them entertaining their guests; some of the pleasures they indulge in; shows them in bathing; and also their initiation of the "rookies," as well as many other sports. The vaudeville bill included with these pictures is headed by the Six Harvards, who offer a musical act. They not only play different musical instruments, but introduce several vocal numbers. Completing the bill are: Ward and Brown, two men and a woman, in a comedy skit entitled, "On the Boardwalk"; Buckley and Dove, comedy singers; and the first half of "A Little Bit of Old New York," and Kelly and Galvin, two men, in an entertaining Italian comedy singing and talking act.

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY
Tower City, Pa., July 3. — Mr. John Reiner of Muir, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Stephens, was found dead in bed.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
Special to the Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 3. — Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Miller, 122 West Main street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Isabella Frances Miller, to Wilbur Elmer Stough, of Mechanicsburg, formerly of York. Mr. Stough is an employe of the Wilcox Manufacturing Company plant. The wedding will be an early Fall event.

WEDDING AT MARIETTA
Special to the Telegraph
Marietta, Pa., July 3. — Miss Antoinette Fisher, of Lancaster, was married Saturday evening to Samuel King, of Strasburg, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. J. E. Deacon, officiating.

IT'S THIS WAY
KING OSCAR
5c CIGARS

Are packed full of quality. Get wise and give yourself a treat by smoking regularly this 25 year old quality brand.

Every Cold Should Be Considered Serious

So say the best medical authorities. Unless promptly checked, often lead to chronic bronchial and pulmonary troubles which may prove fatal.

If your cough or cold has not responded to treatment—and remember, medicine should not be solely relied on—timely use of Eckman's Alternative may give you relief.

For more than twenty years it has been benefiting sufferers from these disorders. It is especially indicated where the system demands lime, for it contains calcium chloride so combined as to be easily assimilated by the average person.

Safe to try—because it contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs of any sort whatsoever.

At your druggist's.
Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

John C. Herman & Co.