JOHNSON FAVORS NEW RULES

Chicago, July 7.—President B. B. Johnson, of the American League, would give the batter two bases when ever he is hit in the head by a pitched ball, instead of one base as at present in order to deter pitchers from intimidating the batsman. In a statement made public here to-day he disagrees with the suggestion recently made by President Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn National League Club that a batsman be given his base anytime the pitcher tries, in the opinion of the umpire, to hit the batter in the head. He thinks the Ebbetts' plan would only add to the troubles of the umpire, and would lead to more wrangling.

MORTGAGE OF 1812 WILL FIGURE IN COURT HEARING

The oldest mortgage to figure in Dauphin county court records in many years is to be the subject of a hearing September 25, when testimony will be heard as to why the instrument given by Joseph McFarland to Frederick Hoas for the present Aldinger property in "Wanamant street near River should not be marked "satisfied." The property is owned by Frederick B. Aldinger, but in clearing the title discovery was made that the original mortgage, which had been paid, was never properly marked satisfied. The mortgage is dated April 2, 1812.

FURTHER HEARING ON TWO RAILROAD SUBWAY CLAIMS

Further hearing of testimony in the damage proceedings instituted by property owners in the Second and Third wards against the city incident to the construction of the Front and Second street subways was resumed in City Council chamber before the viewers. The date for further hearing will be fixed within a few days. Witnesses were heard relative to eight houses on River street south of Mulberry owned by the E. M. Pollock and the C. B. Fager estates and the property of the Harrah-Chandler estate at Cherry and Second streets. The witnesses for the River street properties declared the subways had damaged the houses from $300 to $500 apiece and the sum claimed by the Harrah-Chandler witnesses was from $10,000 to $13,000.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF CHINA

Yuan-Hung, the new President of the Chinese Republic in succession to Yuan Shih Kai, had been Vice-President for three years, but during almost all that period had been held a virtual prisoner at a palace in the Red City. Yuan's excuse was that he might want to consult him and desired to have him at hand. In truth, Yuan himself, after the attempt to assassinate him, two years back, never left the confines of the palace save for his two excursions to the Temple of Heaven, whither he went to worship in the name of China as the Emperors had done for centuries. Li was born in Hupai, in 1884. He is a man of medium powers. He served in his youth in the navy and later in the cavalry. He spent two years in studying fortifications. He had been a Republican since 1911. On the outbreak of the Revolution against the Manchu Emperors, he was given command of the revolutionary forces. After the Imperial abdication he was made a General and elected Vice-President. His advancement to the Presidency in case Yuan stepped out, it required a man of the highest ability. This modest conception of his own powers pleased his fellow countrymen. In his seclusion it was given out that every day he read a thousand words in the Ching Kang Ching, a famous Buddhist scripture. In it, he says, he finds rest and peace.

THE WOMEN'S TRAINING CAMP

These days mere men can claim little as belonging exclusively to his own sex, for society women have affected mannish neckties, his collars and his cuffs, with the tips of turned-up trousers peeping beneath skirts as the last defiance. Following the popularity of training camps for the citizen soldiery, along came Washington society women, from the rosebud debutante to the elderly matron of national prominence, in attendance at camps for women suggesting soldierly training. In this camp assembled real feminine "rookies" in slouch hats and khaki. They came for outdoor exercise and physical betterment, as well as to learn nursing and other services useful in emergencies. Incidentally they had adventures and a good time. It was a jolly lot that "fell in" each day for drill, and they made a most impressive martial appearance, indicating that those who challenge the rights of suffrage to women because they are unequal to military service could right here witness the demonstration that exploded their argument, and that the bugle call has a fascination for women as well as the drum and cymbals of the tango. BAPTISTS WANT LAY-PRESIDENT

Chicago, July 7.—The contest over the presidency of the Baptist Young People's Union of America grew warmer when the convention opened for the morning session here to-day. The opposition to a pastor-president became more pronounced as the advocates of the lay-president plan in the nominating committee declared a growing conviction that the highest denominational efficiency would be induced only under the executive guidance of the laity.

FALL OF A MIGHTY CHAMPION WRESTLER

Just as the might John L. Sullivan yielded to Corbett, the latter to Jeffreys, followed by Johnson's retirement and the reign of Jess Willard, so in Japan the rule of the mighty Tachiyama, emperor of wrestlers for five years, has come to a close. Breathless excitement was aroused, says a Tokio paper, at the Kokuzikwan at Ryogoku when Tachiyama, the champion of the west side, who has never been defeated in the past five years, was beaten by Tochigiya, of the east side. Since Onishiki, another champion on the east side, was defeated by Tachiyama on the previous day, Tochigiya was the only east side representative who had any possibility of defeating the ever-victorious Tachiyama during this season. The public showed so much interest in the program, in which Tachiyama was to combat with Tochigiya, that the big hall was packed. Tachiyama's victory was so complete that not the slightest complaint was

Americans Have Endured as Heavy Shell Fire as Germans Ever Gave

By Associated Press

British Headquarters, France, July 7.—American citizens have seen hotter fighting in the last two weeks than any American since the Appomattox campaign. They have endured as heavy shell fire as the German guns ever directed at the British front and know what it was to charge into the German trenches with bayonet and bomb in pouring rain through the mud in the small hours of the morning.

There are more Americans scattered among the Canadian battalions than most people realize. Some of these were living in Canada when the war began; some crossed the border and enlisted, for the sake of being in a "scrap"; some felt it a duty to strike a blow for the Allies.

If a man took the oath and put on a uniform a Canadian recruiting officer did not ordinarily bother, if he were a sound man, which side of the border he came from. Besides, the recruit sometimes had a bad memory on that score himself. "What part of Canada are you from?" a British officer asked a Canadian private.

"Out West, sir." "What part of the west?" "The Far West, sir." "What part I asked. Haven't you learned yet to give a definite answer to an officer's question?" "Spokane, sir." "Where is that, in Manitoba?" "In that neighborhood, sir."

After a man has been wounded the truth is more likely to come out. After an examination of a bad jaw fracture the surgeon said to one wounded American: "You've a bad smash, but we shall pull you through and fix you up as good as new." "Are you giving it to me straight?" was the feeble question. "Yes, you can depend on it." "Well, if that's the dope and no kidding I wish you'd write to my mother out in Ohio and tell her."

LONDON PAPERS HIGHER

London, July 7.—Penny (two cents) newspapers have been advanced a half penny (one cent) and half penny papers to one penny in a large number of towns outside of London. This was found necessary because of the increased price of print paper materials. A number of these provincial dailies have been forced to suspend publication for the same reason.

MRS. ALMA LE COURT FARNHAM

Call to Front Discloses Marriage of Author

New York, July 6.—Orders to Lieut. Joseph White Farnham, of the Connecticut Coast Artillery Corps, to proceed to the Mexican border caused the news of his wedding to Miss Alma Rose Le Court several months ago to be revealed to-day.

Lieut. Farnham, who is an author of note, announced his engagement to Miss Le Court, daughter of Mrs. Emil Lowenthal, of South Orange, N. J., an accomplished painter and horse-woman, several months ago, but of the day set for the wedding, it was announced that the ceremony was postponed because of the illness of Miss Le Court.

The orders calling the writer to the front has brought forth the news that the couple were married on February 6th.
