

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MINISTERS OF HARRISBURG CHURCHES ARRANGE TO SPEND THEIR WELL-EARNED SUMMER VACATIONS IN RADICAL CHANGE FROM USUAL OCCUPATIONS

The city school teachers, if they do have three months' vacation, are not the only ones who have time to recreate, rusticate, ruminate and rejuvenate. There are the ministers, who get a vacation, too. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is a self-evident and universally accepted fact. So the doctors of theology in the city, at least most of them, are planning vacations.

The Rev. Dr. James Fry Bullitt, of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, with Mrs. Bullitt and family, leave July 18 for Vineyard Haven, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. They will stay at the Tashmoo Inn. Bishop Darlington, of Episcopal diocese Harrisburg, and his family have gone to their summer home at Long Branch, N. Y., for the months of July and August. The Rev. Dr. George Edwin Hawes, of the Market Square Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Hawes, leaves in August for "Solid Comfort" camp, on the French river, Canada. That sounds well, doesn't it? "Solid comfort" is something you can't get every day, if you don't know where to go. But now you know. The Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Mudge will summer at Bay Head, N. J., and Pocono Mountains. The Rev. James S. Armentrout, Pine Street Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Armentrout, will summer in White Pine, Tenn., with Mrs. Armentrout; in fact, they are there now. The Rev. Mr. Armentrout will also attend the Pocono Mountain conference, when Mrs. Armentrout will stay at the home as the guest of Miss Gulick, of Long Branch, N. J. The Rev. S. Winfield Herman, of the Zion Lutheran Church, will attend the Lutheran summer assembly convening at Gettysburg August 4-11. The Rev. Mr. Herman is president of the association which conducts the assembly. From Gettysburg he will leave with a party of Lutheran ministers for the Northfield conference by way of Philadelphia and New York, through the Berkshire Mountains, returning home, by way of the Housack Valley to Albany. The Rev. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, of the Messiah Lutheran Church, with Mrs. Hanson and sons, Henry, Jr., and P. Falster, Hanson, will spend August at Salem, Mass., and Wilmington, N. C., along the shore. July 16 Dr. Hanson will address the Mount Gretna chautauqua, and on Friday, July 28, will speak at the Lutheran reunion at Pen Mar. The Rev. Beverly M. Ward, pastor of the Capital Street Presbyterian Church, will remain in the city. The Rev. W. H. Worrall, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, with Mrs. Worrall, will spend their vacation in Lancaster. The Rev. George Snavely Rentz, assistant pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Rentz and the children, has gone to Williamsport to spend the vacation at his home. He will return Tuesday, July 11. The Rev. W. E. Hangen, of the Park Street Evangelical Church, with Mrs. Hangen and family, will attend the Berkshire Park Bible conference, of which Bishop W. F. Hell is chancellor; they will visit in Northampton county, attend the Herndon camp-meeting and make brief visits to local points such as the Gettysburg battlefield. The Rev. John M. Warden, pastor of Bethany Chapel, will attend the Northfield conference, held at Northfield, Mass., during the first part of August. The Rev. Amos M. Stamer, pastor of the Augsburg Lutheran Church, with Mrs. Stamer and their daughter, Luverne county, Pa., along the North Branch of the Susquehanna. The Rev. Ulysses G. Leeper, of the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, will spend vacation with Mrs.

Leeper at Asbury Park, New York and Niagara Falls.

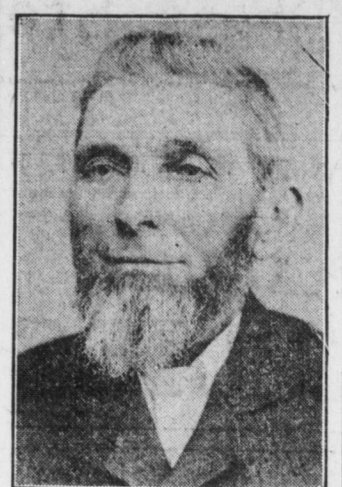

Some Will Stay at Home

The Rev. J. Bradley Markward, of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, has formulated no plans for a vacation. He and his family will probably spend the summer in the city. The Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Snucker, pastor of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church, due to the special work among his congregation, has planned nothing definite concerning a vacation for himself and family. He will probably take his vacation in August, if he goes away at all. The Rev. Winfield S. Booth, of the First Baptist Church, with Mrs. Booth, is planning a vacation in Philadelphia, Wildwood, N. J., and Northumberland. The Rev. Thomas S. Reich, of the Christ Lutheran Church, will motor to Latonia, Ohio, where he and Mrs. Reich will visit at her home. The Rev. A. L. Kriner, pastor of the Eagle Street Church of God, will spend the summer months in the city. The Rev. William W. Hartman, of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, with Mrs. Hartman and children, Emory, Miss Carolyn and Louise Hartman, are going to Ocean Grove and Asbury Park. Griffith Jones, superintendent of the City Rescue Mission, has made no definite plans, but during the summer will visit large cities. Jones will study the problem of housing in these cities and their methods of carrying on work similar to that which he does; from these he proposes to map out his work for the winter. Mrs. Jones will accompany him. The Rev. Reinhold Schmidt, of St. Michael's German Lutheran Church, will remain in the city. The Rev. Albert J. Greene, of the Second Baptist Church, will spend the summer with Mrs. Greene at Sparrows Point, Md. The Rev. Father Daniel J. Carey, of St. Francis Catholic Church, will spend the summer here at work. The Rev. S. Edwin Rupp, of the Otterbren United Brethren Church, with Mrs. Rupp and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Rupp, will be guests of Dr. C. L. Brane, associate editor of the Religious Telescope, and Mrs. Brane at their home in East Large cities. Mr. Maurice M. Hassett, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, and the assistants, Father Thomas B. Johnson and Father Dennis P. Beardon, will spend the summer in the city. The Rev. E. E. Curtis, of Westminster Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Curtis and their daughter, Mary Elizabeth Curtis, will attend the Montrose Bible conference and spend some time in Mount Gretna and Chestnut Level, Lancaster county. The Rev. W. H. Dallman, of the Market Street Baptist Church, will remain at home during the summer. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Manges, of the Memorial Lutheran Church, will attend the Gettysburg assembly, August 1-10. The Rev. John Henry Miller, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will stay in the city. The Rev. Mr. Miller has arranged for a half-hour service only during the summer, with a series of brief but impressive talks. The Rev. W. K. Ruth and the Rev. Frank Stephenson, of the City Lutheran Mission, will remain in the city. The Rev. Father G. L. Rice, of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, will also remain at home during the summer months.

Away to the War

The Rev. Harry N. Bassler, of the Second Reformed Church, chaplain of the Eighth Regiment, will spend the summer and maybe—who knows?—the winter in El Paso, Texas. During the soldier-preacher's absence the pulpit will be filled by the Rev. Dr. H. N. J. Klein, professor of church history at Franklin and Marshall College, Lan-

Ninety-Sixth Birthday of a Retired Farmer

MICHAEL LANDIS

The ninety-sixth birthday of Michael Landis was informally celebrated yesterday at his home with his son, Harry Landis, at Churchtown. Everyone throughout the county knows Michael Landis as a prosperous farmer and strict Dunkard. He is well and happy and to look at him no one would imagine the great age he has reached. His children are Michella Landis, Jr., of Bolling Springs; Harry Landis, Jr., of Churchtown; George Landis, of Altoona, and Mrs. M. A. Plank, of North Thirteenth street, this city.

will also attend campmeetings. The Rev. Robert L. Meisenholder, of the Trinity Lutheran Church, has made no definite plans for the summer, but will be the guests of Mrs. Appleton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Miller. The Rev. Dr. Appleton will act as officiating clergyman in St. Stephen's Church of Olean, N. Y. During his absence the pulpit of St. Paul's Church will be occupied by the Rev. H. C. Cowley Carroll, of the Olean church. The Rev. William Moses, of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, will spend the latter part of August for Ocean Grove to attend the Methodist campmeeting. The Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer, of the Reformed Church, will spend his vacation with his sons, Charles Kremer, Sewickley, Pa., and John Kremer, of Philadelphia. Captain "Pat" Neilsen, of the Salvation Army, and Mrs. Neilsen are busy just now with their family in the city and plan away, but maybe they and their son will go to Toledo, Ohio. The Rev. Harvey Klaer, of Covenant Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Klaer, will camp along the Conodogunit at Camp Troquois, chaperoning the Boy Scouts tenting there in July and the Camp Fire Girls in August. The Rev. W. H. Gaines, of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, will be in the city during July and August. The Rev. Frank P. MacKenzie, of Calvary Presbyterian Church, will spend his vacation at Burlington Beach, Ontario. The Rev. Edward H. Paar, of the Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church, will be in Harrisburg the greater part of the hot season. The Rev. W. A. Ray, of Wesley Union Church, and the Rev. Mr. Tolliver, of the Zion Baptist Church, will both be in the city during July and August.

To Attend Reunion

The Rev. Joseph Daugherty, of the Sixth Street United Brethren Church, with his wife and family, will spend some time in Dallsstown, York county. They will attend the sixth triennial reunion of the Professional Sons and Daughters of Dallsstown and vicinity, an organization of over one hundred members of ministers, doctors and lawyers of that place. Mr. Daugherty

Attend Campmeetings

The Rev. C. H. Grove, of the Green Street Church of God, will spend vacation time in Mount Gretna and Walnut Grove camp, attending the campmeeting conference. The Rev. George W. Schaum, of the Harris Street United Evangelical Church, with Mrs. Schaum will attend the United Evangelical campmeeting at Herndon, Pa., August 8-11. The Rev. Dr. J. W. Waller, of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, will go to Saratoga Springs, N. Y., tour Western Vermont and sail up the Hudson. The Rev. George Rabbi, Louis Silver, of the Asbury Methodist congregation, will spend vacation with his family at Long Branch, N. Y. Assistant Rabbi Aaron Kantowitz will remain in Harrisburg on vacation. William N. Yates, of the Fourth Street Church of God, will be at home during the summer months, as will the Rev. John P. Fuchs, of the Cumberland and Monroe streets Church of God, and the Rev. Joseph D. W. Deavor, of the Derry Street Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church. The Rev. Dr. John D. Fuchs, editor of the Weekly Advocate, who is recuperating after a recent operation, will remain in the city save for occasional jaunts which he and his wife will make. Due to the unusual and temporary nature of the work, the Rev. William B. Cooke, minister in charge at the Olivet Presbyterian Church, will spend July and August in the city. The Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, with Mrs. Lyter, is going to Mount Gretna. The Rev. S. G. Yahn, editor of the Weekly Advocate, will like every other poor editor, only have breathing spells—that is to say, intermittent vacation days. Rabbi Charles J. Freund, of the Ohev Shalom Temple, has just returned from the Central Conference of American Rabbis held at Wildwood, N. J.

This completes the vacation list of the ministers of Harrisburg; at least it seems as though it were complete. If any are missed, we are sorry, for we've tried to do our best. So whether at home or elsewhere, they have the heartiest wishes of the people for a profitable vacation.

VISITORS FROM MICHIGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Grant DeHaas, of Marquette, Mich., and their two sons were in the city yesterday for several hours, returning home after an automobile trip to New England, New York and Atlantic City by way of Harrisburg, Baltimore and Washington.

SPENDS WEEK HERE

Edward R. Ernst, head of the Levitt-Taxier shows, a well-known show and theatrical man, is in Harrisburg for the week.

Mrs. Anson P. Dare, of North Second street, entertained at cards yesterday at her home.

G. W. Algyer, of Philadelphia, is spending several days among friends in this city.

Mrs. William Pearson and small son, Edward Pearson, who are summering in Cumberland county, have returned from Salem, Va. Mrs. Pearson's former home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sollenberger, of 810 North Second street, have returned home after a little trip to Greencastle.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Thackara, of Washington, D. C., are guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sterrett, of State street.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Businell, of Second and Harris streets, are summering at the Conewago Inn, Mount Gretna.

Miss Anne U. Wert has taken up her duties at the summer school of State College.

ASTRICH'S

FIRST MONDAY SALE

During Our July Clearing Sale

It seems almost impossible to cut prices below those advertised for our July Sale, but we must keep the ball rolling and cannot afford to disappoint our customers who have responded so liberally to all our Monday Sales.

We are therefore offering some extraordinary Monday Specials for this Monday only.

20 Doz. Regular $2.00 Panamas
12 of the Best Shapes;
For This Monday Only ONE DOLLAR

- All our Black Hemp, Milan Hemp, Lisere Sailors, Black Wenchow Sailors, Black Leghorns, Milan Hemp Turbans, etc.; actual values up to $5.98. This Monday only 88c
- LARGE LEGHORN HATS — 79c worth $2.00. This Monday 79c
- LARGE OPENWORK TUSCANS — beautiful patterns; worth $2.50. This Monday 79c
- YOUR CHOICE of our $2.00 and $2.50 Finest LARGE LEGHORN HATS. This Monday only $1.23
- LARGE FLOPPY BRIM JAVA SPORT HATS — actual value $2.50. This Monday only 69c
- LARGE WHITE HEMP HATS—3 and 3½-inch brims; value $2.00. This Monday only 98c
- One lot of $3.00 PANAMA HATS; indestructible; soft finish; best shapes. This Monday only $1.88
- 5 Doz. MANNISH PANAMAS $1.44 $2.00 values. This Monday only, $1.44
- ONE HUNDRED SPORT HATS—striped, figured, etc.; values to $2.98. This Monday only $1.00
- ACO PANAMAS — an Imitation Panama with bindings and band; value $1.25. This Monday only 33c
- WHITE CRUSH FELT HATS with silk band. Any color; value $1.25. This Monday only 69c
- GIRLS' SOFT HEMP SPORT HATS — colored Hemp facings; regular value $2.98. This Monday only $1.00
- FANCY CHECK FRENCH RATINE SPORT HATS — hemp facings; actual value $3. This Monday only $1.00
- COLORED RATINE SPORT HATS — colored hemp facings; actual value $2.98. This Monday only $1.00
- POLKA DOT LAWN SPORT HATS — colored hemp facing; regular value $2.98. This Monday only, $1.00
- LARGE CANE SEAT SPORT HATS — natural and black, with hemp binding and band; regular price $2.98. This Monday only $1.00
- TRIMMED WENCHOW SPORT HATS—natural and black; with hemp binding and trimming; regular price $2.98. This Monday only $1.00
- STRIPED LISERE SPORT HATS — with colored facings; regular price $3.98. This Monday only 49c

Packard
MOTOR TRUCKS

IF YOU WANT TO MAKE THE QUICKEST DELIVERIES AT THE LOWEST COST, GET A SMALL PACKARD TRUCK.

Telephone Harrisburg 2694 or call at 107 Market Street.

ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE

PATRIOTIC PARTY ENJOYED IN PARK

Beautiful Music, Pictures and Stories With Refreshments For Over 125 Foreigners

Through the generosity of Miss Amelia Durbin, a patriotic party was enjoyed last evening in the pavilion at Reservoir Park, by 125 men, women and children from the foreign communities of the city. Most of the guests were brought to the park in the Boyer joy-giving car and several of Miss Durbin's friends, including Miss Mary Mullen and Mrs. St. John, of the Social Workers Club, assisted in entertaining them.

Classic and popular patriotic selections were played on one of Troup's finest Victrolas, and Miss Lois K. Booker, with the assistance of two young girls in the audience as interpreters, told an appealing story of "A Little Boy Who Wanted to Be a Soldier." Owing to their timidity, Miss Booker didn't tell her other selections, "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" to be used as a central theme of the causes and results of the American Revolution and the story of an "Angel Who Wore a Blue Gingham Dress."

Beautiful pictures from the State Museum, showing the history of this country were explained by Mr. Zimmerman and the audience heartily applauded when pictures of George Washington and the Liberty Bell were thrown on the screen. After the guests had enjoyed their cake and ice cream and Miss Durbin had presented each with pretty souvenirs, American flags, "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was sung to a Victrola accompaniment.

The Story Telling Club of this city feels that here is another great opportunity for using the story. The immigrant comes here rich in the folk lore and true hero stories of his own country. He loves the story and listens to it with the eagerness of a child. He is an inherent hero-worshiper, and will hear with ease and enthusiasm, our entire history if it is told to him in stories. Only the highly literate among them can learn from books on American history. The "Patriotic Party" as Miss Durbin gave it, is one way of preventing "Hyphenated Americans."

QUEEN ESTHERS PICNIC AT THE BERRYHILL NURSERY

A picnic and marshmallow toast was held at the Berryhill Nursery yesterday afternoon by the Queen Esther Circle of the Stevens Memorial Methodist church. In attendance were: Mrs. J. F. Horstick, Jr., Mrs. Dunkle, Mrs. John N. Perego, Mrs. Ralph M. Eoson, Mrs. Stephen Ewers, Miss Alva Shoop, Miss Matilda Ritter, Miss Isabel Bates, Miss Rosalie Yeakle, Miss Katharine Keen, Miss Lillian Shoop, Miss Mary Barnes, Miss Ida Sober, Miss Helen M. Moore, Miss Mabel Hoffsummer, Miss Helen Weaver, Miss Hazel Hess, Miss Myrtle Schell, Miss Irene Perego, Miss Esther Wilson, Miss Mary Jane Boswell, Miss Myrtle Davies, Miss Beatrice McAllister, Miss Blanche Wheeler, Miss Mullen G. M. Coover, Arthur Dunkle, Lloyd Dunkle and Merle Smith.

AT LAPORTE WEDDING

Robert L. Myers and family, of Camp Hill, motored to Laporte, Pa., to attend the wedding of Miss Eunice Ingham, of that town and Attorney John E. Myers, of Camp Hill. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home yesterday morning, and after a trip to the East Mr. and Mrs. Myers will be "at home" in Hummel Avenue, Lemoyne.

The bride was an instructor in drawing, writing and music in the Lemoyne and Camp Hill schools last year. Mr. Myers has his office in Lemoyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder, of 136 South Third street, left this noon for Trenton and New York, and will spend a few days at Coney Island.

Mrs. George Dickey and children, Ethel and Charles Dickey, of 589 Showers street, left to-day for a month's visit to Mrs. Dickey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benner, at McAllisterville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fox Weiss are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Fox in Downingtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Jones will spend the month of August in Yellow- Rock Park and touring the great Northwest.

Miss Isabelle Watts, of Williamsport, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dunkle, 1532 Kesina street.

Miss Mrs. Louise Hubley, of 202 Herr street, is home after spending some time with Miss Frances Manley, of Lucknow.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Stanley Behney and Charles Cumber, of Second and Pine streets, are occupying the Middleton residence at Camp Hill for the summer.

Mrs. William H. Smiley and Miss Jane Smiley have removed from 717 North Second street to Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Glazier, of Wilkes-Barre, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Walton, Penn street.

Miss Cecilia Tausig and Miss Blanche Tausig, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Tausig, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Faubie, in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Koehnour, of 2042 Susquehanna street, announce the birth of a son, Charles Edward Koehnour, Jr., Sunday, July 2, 1916. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Koehnour was Miss May Mulligan, of Columbia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes Elliott, of Philadelphia, former Harrisburgers, announce the birth of a daughter, Gertrude Hayes Elliott, Thursday, July 6, 1916.

(Other Personals Page 18)

Frank Payne Is Winner in Spring Golf Tourney

Frank Payne, of North Front street, who has been taking the baths at White Sulphur Springs, Va., for several weeks, is one of the best golfers at the resort. He won a silver cup there Thursday for a two days' golf tournament in which there were fifteen contestants.

Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Phillip T. Meredith have joined a party of friends at the Springs for a week's stay at the Greenbrier. Among the guests are Henry Snyder Harrison, the well-known writer, Mrs. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison E. Smith, of Charleston.

Miss Vera Longenecker, of 224 Macclay street, is home after a week's stay among friends in Mount Gretna. Benjamin E. Long, of Landisville, motored here yesterday on business and will return home this evening, taking with him Mrs. Long and their little son, who have been visiting Mrs. Nicholas at 216 Herr street.

Mrs. W. Franklin Witman gave an informal luncheon in honor of Mrs. W. Frank Hasbun and Mrs. Tarlo, of Philadelphia, house guests of Mrs. Louis F. Hasbun, at Bellevue Park.

Miss Fughetta Doyle, of Philadelphia, a former Harrisburger, is visiting her aunts in Hamilton street.

Make Your Dollars

DO DOUBLE DUTY
Read the announcements on page 3 of this issue and learn of the wonderful savings.

STORK NEWS

Just for Dollar Day