FAMOUS RACE HORSE ARRIVES. New York, July 8.—Light Brigade, a famous English racehorse, was aboard the Atlantic Transport Line steamer Minnehaha, which reached here yesterday from London. It was said that J. M. Camden purchased the celebrated racer for $50,000. Light Brigade is a 6-year-old stallion by Picton, out of Bridge of Sighs, and was bred and owned by Lord Derby. This famous running horse won 11 races as a 3-year-old and three races as a 4-year-old.

BIG DAYS FOR LOCAL FANS; FIVE GAMES WITH ALBANY

Railroader's Day on Thursday; Game to Start at 2.30 by Request; Locals After Albany's Scalp

Special days are on the Harrisburg baseball schedule for next week. In addition to the doubleheaders with Albany, arrangements have been made to observe Thursday as Railroad Day. In answer to numerous requests Manager George Cockill has decided to start the Thursday game with Albany at 2.30. Railroad employes asked to try this change promising more liberal patronage. If successful the time may be switched from 3.15. In the event of rain on Tuesday or Wednesday, this arrangement will not start until the following week, as on days doubleheaders are played the first game starts at 2 o'clock. Albany is the one team that Harrisburg must pass in order to make a showing in the race. Most of the postponed games are with Albany, and before August 1.

HARD CHASE FOR ELMIRA TEAM

Harrisburg Loses Close Battle; Hair-raising Plays Feature Final Game in Series

Special to the Telegraph. Elmira, July 8.—Pitcher Volz had the local hypnotized until the sixth when he made an ascension, the Colonels, Harrisburg, losing out by a score of 3 to 2. Cockill's crew rallied in the ninth and it looked like a garrison finish for the Keystone Capitol boys, but Jordan was sent in and stopped the slaughter. Dessau was wild at intervals and several times was helped out of tight places by his teammates. The game was featured with sensational fielding. When Jordan came in, Harrisburg's hitting stopped. With one man out he fanned Harrison and forced Reed out at second.

Elmira Scores One

With two out in the first Elmira scored one. Ward singled and stole second. Gough walked. Coles doubled to center, scoring Ward. Harrisburg evened matters in the second. Reed walked, took second on Reed's out and registered on Downey's single. Elmira took the lead by scoring two in the sixth. Sullivan singled and took third on Hunter's single. Hunter stole second. Sullivan came in on a wild pitch. Ward's sacrifice and Louie's sacrifice fly brought Hunter across.

Chips From the Clays

Portland was awarded the 1917 tournament of the Sportsmen's Association of the northwest. At the beginning of the present year there was 3,961 active gun clubs in the United States. Houston has been awarded the 1917 tournament of the Texas State Sportsmen's Association. Trapshouses have been erected on the grounds of the Portland Gun Club that will hold 30,000 targets. One of the most ardent trapshooters in the Pacific slope is C. A. Fleming, mayor of Spokane, Wash. 70,000 targets were trapped in the two days' tournament of the California Nevada State association on the San Jose (Cal.) grounds. Miss Gladys Reid, of Portland, Ore., demonstrated in the Northwest Handicap event in the Northwest Sportsmen's Association tournament that she is one of the coming women trapshooting experts in the country. She broke 47 out of 50 tying for first place. Henry Pfirrmann, of Lon Angeles, who won the California-Nevada State championship with 100 straight and had an unfinished run of 111 straight is only a recruit at trapshooting. Three years ago this summer he was the rawest of all novices; now he is one of the best shots on the coast. The Oregon State shoot will be held in Salem in 1917. Up in Alaska they have a lot of good trapshooters. Juneau has a club of live businessmen and they shoot team matches quite often with a club of businessmen at Douglas, "a suburb," across the Gastaneau channel.

Plans For Enola Festival in Concerts and Parade

Plans were completed last night for the festival of the Enola Ship Baseball club to be held in Harrisburg Monday night. Tables will be spread at Third and Reilly street. The big time starts at 7.30 o'clock. Manager "Hy" Simmers was in Philadelphia yesterday and will have an interesting program of special features. The team with the Enola band will come to Harrisburg in automobiles for a street parade. The procession will stop at the William H. Strouse and Company store, Market street; and the Telegraph building, where the band will play several selections. Manager Simmers yesterday closed with the new store for uniforms, including sweaters. They will be delivered next week. The uniforms will be of major league design and 14 men will be equipped. The sweaters are dark blue.

CLEAN SCORES BY CHAMPIONS

Maplewood, N. H., July 8.—Yesterday brought the first of the big trap shooting championship tournament at the Maplewood Country Club to a close. There were 75 entries and the Maplewood handicap. This event was won by Fred Plum, of Atlantic City, with a score of 100 straight from 21 yards. Richardson, from 22 yards, typified from 15 yards, also broke 99 and were the runners-up in this event. WELLY'S CORNER

Captain Walter Blair of the local team is a real leader according to the belief of local fans. He has developed a wonderful piece of machinery out of a disgruntled Troy baseball aggregation. Harrisburg is losing games by one run. The team has played more extra inning games than any other aggregation in the New York State League. The pitchers are coming around and there is yet some to make a good showing at the finish. The popularity of "Billy" Mehring as a fight promoter is again proven. A brief announcement yesterday that he is planning for a big open air show brought many requests from boxers to be placed on the program. Manager Mehring is not going to hurry in arranging his bill. He has had experience and will devote his negotiations to fighters who fight. Pitcher Alexander of the Phillies won another game yesterday. He was touched up for six safeties. That does not worry Alex. St. Louis was gues-

Enola Festival at Third and Reilly streets Monday night. The Pirates are moving faster. Hard luck to loose a game that belonged to Harrisburg. Downey is proving a good find. Volz is improving. He goes longer each game. Once the pitchers work regularly there will be more victories. Huenkie and Hetrich are landing the victories. Walter Bair is proving a great commanding officer. John Fox came back in the game yesterday and crimped Scranton's winning stride. The Barons won yesterday, score 2 to 1. Syracuse won from Utica yesterday, score 5 to 2. Taylor was the big factor with his puzzlers. Harrisburg will meet Red Calhoun's Bingles to-day, to-morrow and Monday. Binghampton won from Albany yesterday, score 3 to 1. Dr. Tate's team fielded poorly at critical times. Brown is still holding down first base, and making good. He ought to be relieved. Bricker's two base hit in the opening inning yesterday, brought a victory for the Reading team in the Allison Hill League. Rosewood went down fighting hard. The Night Truckers defeated the division Transfer team yesterday, score 9 to 1. Team No. 1 of the Enola Shop League yesterday tied up with No. 4; score 1 to 1. The Gray defeated the Cardinals in the Globe Right Posture League, score 14 to 8. In the Lucknow Shop League team, the Smith Shop won yesterday's game, score 2 to 0, downing the Clerks.

New Officers Elected by International Text Book Co.

Scranton, Pa., July 8.—Complete reorganization of the International Text Book Company, which controls the International Correspondence Schools, was effected yesterday, when the recently elected board of directors met. All the old officers, the men who were at the helm when the corporation nearly went on the rocks a year ago, including T. J. Foster, founder and for many years president of the schools, were shelved. They were not let out, but were given positions of lesser importance. The new officers are: President, Ralph E. Weeks; vice-President, Edward L. Hall and Charles E. Lawrence; controller, W. E. Hodrus; treasurer, Edward H. Beaver.

LIEUTENANT SPALDING KILLED

New York, July 8.—Lieutenant A. Goodwill Spalding, of the Inniskillen Fusiliers, has been killed in action, according to a cable message received by relatives here to-day. Lieutenant Spalding was 25 years old and adopted son of the late A. G. Spalding.
