HARRISBURG WINS Nick Cullop Is TWO FROM ALBANY

Shut Out Visitors in First Game 12-0; Second Contest Close Fight

Harrisburg handed Albany two more defeats yesterday afternoon, winning both ends of the doubleheader at Island Park, 12 to 0, and 3

Both teams played fast ball, and despite the one-sided score in the first fray, Albany kept things moving for Manager Blair's boys. Brown, Cook, Reed and Bold were the heavy hitters in the opening contest, but every Harrisburg player except Harrison hit safely. The twelve runs resulted from a fusiliade of hits, and were scored in the first, fourth, fifth and eighth innings. Extra base hits helped pile up the runs in these innings.

nings. Umpire Johnson again exercised his authority and sent Captain Blair to the bench when the latter remarked about a close decision.

The second game was close and Albany furnished a little excitement when they tied the score in the fourth inning at two runs. The Harrisburg boys came back at them, however, and sent across a run in their half, which later proved to be the winning one of the game.

MICK CHILLOP

This man has done more than any other individual on the Yankee team to bring the club up to its present position in its bid for the pennant. Coming to the Yankees from the Federal League, his acquisition was regarded as more or less of a merry joke by American League forecasters. But the job is on them, for Cullop has lodged the harpoon into the White Sox three times, and the Tigers, Browns, Athletics, Indians and Senators one each. He has not been effec

Baltimore, Md., July 13.—The first world's championship fight to be staged in the East for many years, or to be exact, the first since the repeal of the old Horton law, will be staged here to-night with Jack Dillon, the man from indiana, defending his claim to the lightweight title against Battling Levinsky.

This pair of sterling scrappers meet in a fifteen-round contest to a referee's decision in Oriole Park, the home of the local International League team. This is their eighth meeting since 1911 and will be for "keeps," according to both boxers.

This is their eighth meeting since 1911 and will be for "keeps," according to both boxers.

The fight starts at 5 o'clock.

Dillon, the 169-pound Hercules who conquered Frank Moran so easily a few weeks ago in New York and then lumped to Dewey, Okla., to knock out the veteran heavyweight, Jim Flynn, in a couple of rounds a few days later, is in the best of condition and still the confident warrior of old.

Levinsky is also sure he will stand off Dillon and gain the decision on points. The blond Hebrew realizes his only chance of victory is to stand Dillon off and win on points, while Dillon is sure of finishing the former Philadelphian. Indications point to a record-breaking orowd. The Elks are holding their convention here and the promoters feel that the bulk of the crowd will be composed of Elks, although sporting men from all parts of the East are flocking into town for the meeting, which promises to be a dandy fight.

In "The Vagabond" Chaplin is presented in the role of an itinerant musician, who, after a series of comic and near-tragic adventures in the big city, where he finds the competition of the German street bands and hurdy-gurdys too much for him, decides to try country life. Unfortunately, in his travels, Chaplin serenades a band of gypsies with his violin. The leader of the band holds captive a beautiful young girl. Chaplin becomes interested in the girl and meets with the immediate enmity of the gypsy king. Unable to rescue her single-handed, he resorts to strategy, and in a series of funny antics Chaplin rescues the girl and drives away with her in a canvas-topped wagon.

Have you ever seen a man on a wire some sixty feet in the air doing stunts while blindfolded and with his lower at Paxtang extremities tied up in a burlap bag?

Have you ever seen anyone ride a bi-the death of his only son. Chas. Ray's work as the son, is said to be some of the finest photoplay acting ever filmed. The "King" of all comedians will be on the same bill in a new four-reel comedy, called "Charlie's Stormy Romance."

Cycle on a wire at this dangerous height or balance himself on the back of a chair with nothing to hold this precarious perch but a single strand of wire? If you have not seen James E, Hardy at Paxtang Park this week or at some other amusement place you prob-Hardy at Paxtang Park this week or at some other amusement place you probably have never seen these sensational feats performed. Mr. Hardy will give two performances daily at the park, at 4 and 8 o'clock p. mr., during the balance of the week. If you miss seeing this stunt you will miss one of the best free attractions the park has ever presented. The vaudeville bill at the park theater this week has proven to be one of the most popular shows of the season. The Kanazawa Japs are the feature attraction. Their act consists of an exhibition of Japanese foot juggling and gymnastic work that is a little beter than anything else of its kind the park theater has so far presented.
