Alps have changed the whole complexion of the land. Now, the combined offensive in the west and west has wrenched the initiative out of the hands of the enemy—never, I trust, to return to his grasp. We have crossed the watershed and now victory is beginning to flow in our direction. The answer is the prospect improved? The answer is the prospect improved? The answer is the prospect improved?

Future Disposition of Poland Still Unsettled

Berlin, July 14 (Via London).—That the future disposition of Poland is still unsettled is reported by the Berlin Political News Agency, which enjoys excellent official connection and is usually accurately informed. Regarding the case of Poland, this agency says: "The future status of Poland belongs undoubtedly to the difficult problems which must be solved before peace is concluded. That portions of that country will not again come under Russian rule is beyond doubt and is assured by the declaration of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg signed by 80,000 members of the Reichstag. But its future organization as a State in the view of important interest in the German empire and Austria-Hungary involves a most difficult question. Both governments are engaged in its solution in joint and friendly effort but the negotiations are still continuing."

Horrors of War; Barley May Go in German Bread Instead of Their Beer

Amsterdam, July 14. A protest against the consumption of barley for the making of beer is made in a letter sent to Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg signed by 80,000 members of the Reichstag. The letter points out that the "gigantic waste of bread material" in the use of large quantities of barley for the production of beer. It urges that hereafter beer be only supplied on bread tickets.

Allied Offensive Has Not Caused Withdrawal of Any Germans From Verdun

Berlin, July 14. (By Wireless).—The offensive of the entente allies on the western front has not caused the withdrawal by the Germans of a single man or a single gun from the Verdun front where the attack on the French fortress is being consistently and successfully pressed. A statement issued to-day by the Overseas News Agency summarizing newspaper comments in the western front campaign. "The German success reported yesterday to have been the capture of a right bank of the Meuse near Fort Souville and Laufee plateau is commented upon by the German newspapers as an incident of remarkable importance," says the news agency summary. "This, the first enterprise attempted at Verdun since the beginning of the great enemy offensive proves conclusively the best of the German army, despite all hostile attacks on both the eastern and western fronts, has not lost sight of the original object in view."

Drive Just Begun, Asquith Declares; Munitions Workers to Forego Their Vacations

London, July 14. — The Entente allies offensive on the western front is only in its beginning, declared Premier, Asquith yesterday, in announcing in the House of Commons that the Government had decided to ask workers to forego their August holidays because of the need for munitions. He expressed conviction that the workers would co-operate in this plan so long as it is in the national interest. He said that the offensive in its present intensity of bombardment and assault would, if necessary, "be continued indefinitely."

Department will make no formal announcement concerning the submarine, but that the Treasury Department will be advised to permit her to clear and sail from Baltimore whenever her captain desires to start on his return voyage.

German Resistance Is Weaker Than on First Line; Started at Dawn

British Front in France, July 14.—After the initial night report that four allied warships are guarding the Virginia Capes. They are off the coast about 20 miles, and are watching both the northern and southern channels. It was reported that four torpedo boat destroyers are under orders here to act as neutrality patrolboats when the German undersea merchantman Deutschland goes to sea. They will enforce neutrality, should the occasion require, within the three mile zone.

Hydroaeroplane Will Make Scouting Trip Before Boat Sails

Baltimore, July 14. — Silence continues as to the date of departure of the submarine Deutschland. The tug Timmins, which met her at the capes and conveyed her to Baltimore, remains fastened at the pier day and night. She is in such close proximity to the submarine that it probably would take only ten minutes to get the latter from the mooring into open water.

German Fighting Not For Honor Alone, but Honor and Life, Poincare Asserts to a confession of defeat, said President Poincare in an address to-day, "and of winning from their weariness a peace which is the result of a military victory would be only a strategem for hiding preparations for fresh aggression. They know well that the seas are closed to them, that they have lost their colonies; and they know equally well that the allies rely less on the geographical positions of their trenches than on the condition of their troops and their reserves, their capacity for resistance and offensive and the moral temperament of their peoples and their armies."

"We are fighting not for honor alone but for honor and life. To be or not to be—that is the painful problem imposed on the conscience of the great European nations."

"We are seeking entire restitution of our invaded provinces and those seized 46 years ago, for reparation for the violation of rights at the expense of France or her allies, and for the guarantee for a definite safe guard of our national independence."

President Poincare's address was delivered in connection with the celebration of the French National holiday. The President bestowed decorations on the families of soldiers who have fallen at the front. Turning toward the families of the dead soldiers he said:

"To you ladies, especially, I address the deep and respectful thanks of the country. You have shown what a fire of moral exaltation burns within you. You have proved once again that you are the sure guardians of our traditions and the inspirers of our great national virtues."

Did Not Bring Diamonds. The manner in which the Deutschland has been cleared of everything she brought over, even the pieces of pig iron ballast, led to the idea that she would return to Germany heavily laden. Until the owners of the cargo that has been taken from her file their papers with the customs house no authoritative detailed statement as to its composition can be obtained. It was said that it was unlikely that entry would be made this week. Captain Koenig, the submarine's commander, ridiculed the report from Amsterdam that the principal object of the Deutschland's voyage was to convey a consignment of diamonds.

Hungry N. Y. Guardsmen Loot Wagon and Fruit Stand. Erie, Pa., July 14. — When the New York Central train carrying the Seventy-first New York Regiment to the front stopped here this morning, hundreds of militiamen dashed from the train and seized the entire contents of a bread wagon standing near the depot and also took all the fruit from a vendor's cart.

Then they rushed across the street to a small bakery and rifled it. Officers and soldiers with rifles rounded up the food hunters and rushed them back to their coaches after compelling them to pay for everything they took. The soldiers complained they had not eaten since ten o'clock yesterday morning.

WILSON TO CRUISE. Washington, July 14. — President Wilson plans to spend the week-end on board the naval yacht Mayflower down the Potomac river and Chesapeake bay. Accompanied by Mrs. Wilson he will leave late to-day to cruise until late Sunday night or Monday morning.

MAKING CHILDREN EAT. Nothing is ever gained by forcing a child to eat when it refuses food. Make sure that nothing is being eaten between meals to destroy the natural appetite and if your growing child does not have a healthy craving for good, honest food at mealtimes there is something the matter. Threats of punishment if the child does not eat will not correct the difficulty.

A full appetite in a growing child, especially if the patient is pale, languid, nervous, irritable, and without ambition, usually means that the blood is thin. A non-alcoholic tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is demanded.

During her teens a girl lays the foundation for her future health. Lack of blood at this time may rob her of robust, healthy womanhood. It is of the greatest importance to administer to girls who grow pale and weak a tonic and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills meet every requirement of the most careful mother. They make the blood rich and red and it carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Send today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the book, "Building Up the Blood." It is free.

BRITISH RESUME DRIVE BY TAKING GERMAN DEFENSES

attacks were stopped by French machine gun fire near Ville-aux-Bois and on the Vaulcerc plateau.

Russians Press Turks Back

The recent favorable turn of events for the Russians in Turkish Armenia, resulting in their recapture of Mamakhatun has been taken advantage of by Grand Duke Nicholas to press the Turks further westward. The Russians are now operating west of Mamakhatun and also are gaining ground in the Baiburt region to the north along the Tchorkuk.

London, July 14.—The British troops at dawn to-day broke into German positions on a four-mile front in the region of the Somme and captured several strongly defended localities, says the official announcement of the war office.

The British attack was delivered on the second system of the German defenses, says the statement which adds that the heavy fighting continues.

The official statement reads: "This morning at dawn we attacked the enemy's second system of defenses. Our troops have broken into hostile positions on a front of four miles and have captured several strongly defended localities. Heavy fighting continues."

The British advance reported in today's official dispatches apparently constitutes the second phase of the great Anglo-French offensive in the neighborhood of the Somme river which began July 1 over a front of something more than twenty miles. The first phase of this offensive carried the British forward and gave them possession of Contalmaison and Montauban, but the French on their right moved their lines further forward.

The reported capture of Longueval and Bazentin-le-Grand indicates that ing some Mexican laborers blasting for a refuse pit behind the Second battalion set off a charge of dynamite which sent shower of rocks in all directions over the camp of the First Regiment. Two missiles, each weighing not less than a pound, struck Wilson on the head. He was picked up unconscious and in spite of the efforts of surgeons, who operated on him Tuesday night he has not recovered consciousness. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

BRITISH ATTACK AFTER BUT ONE DAY OF ARTILLERY FIRE; RUSS WAGE FIERCE BATTLE

By Associated Press

London, July 14.—At daylight this morning the British, resuming the offensive north of the Somme, attacked the German second line defenses, and according to the report of their commander, General Sir Douglas Haig, succeeded in penetrating them on a front of four miles. Press dispatches from the front add that the villages of Bazentin-le-Grand and Longueval, north of Montauban and the remaining portion of Trones woods were taken by the British.

While it is said the British would not allow any great length of time to elapse before continuing their operations, it was hardly believed the second German line would be attacked only one day of artillery preparation, for it was only the day before yesterday that they completed capture of the first line in the region between Hardecourt and Ovillers. The direction of the attack, too, was something of a surprise, for instead of pushing on toward Combles, General Haig chose to attack the flank of the Germans who faced Contalmaison and Ovillers and those who still occupy Fosses. The advance to Longueval and Bazentin-le-Grand, if accomplished, gives the British possession of other important roads running in various directions, which have been a great help to the Germans in supplying their army directly south of the Ancre river.

London Jubilant. News of the British successes was received in London with the greatest enthusiasm. It has given added weight to the request of the government to the workers to forego the August holidays so that the army may be kept well supplied with munitions. The supplies already on hand must be greater than was generally believed, else General Haig would not have been able to continue his offensive without an intermission.

There was no news this morning of important developments on the remainder of the western front, but at least accounts the French were preparing to resume their offensive south of the Somme, while the Germans were still hammering at the defenses of Verdun. The opinion is held in France, however, that continuation of the Somme battle will compel the Germans to slacken their efforts at Verdun, which now have been in progress nearly five months, especially as the French estimate the Germans lost 12,000 men in counter attacks on Contalmaison.

Fierce Fight Along Stokhod

The Russians have made no noticeable advance on any part of their front since they gained the Stokhod river, where the struggle continues desperately. The right bank, apparently, has now been cleared of Germans, but it is not known here whether the crossings made by the Russians have given them a firm footing on the left bank. General von Bothmer, having received reinforcements, has succeeded in holding the Russians in Galicia, but with Delatyn in the hands of the Russians they possess an advantage from which further success is expected.

Pressing Turkey Back

The operations in the Caucasus are becoming more and more important. After suffering heavy losses in their counter attacks the Turks are now being pressed back toward Baluch and Erzincan, while in Persia the Russians have brought up reinforcements to meet the Turks who drove them from Fermannshah.

Lloyd-George Asserts Victory Is Flowing to Allies; Cross Watershed

London, July 14. — David Lloyd George, British Minister of War, presiding yesterday at an Entente Allied conference on equipment, declared that the combined offensive of the allies had wrenched the initiative from the Germans, never, he trusted, to return to workmen, where German shells were bursting, in an effort on the part of the German gunners to prevent the attack from proceeding further.

Accounts received at this early hour indicate the German resistance is much weaker than on the first line. The struggle is continuing in Bazentin-le-Petit woods where the Germans still hold out, and in the woods beyond Longueval.

Russian Victories Terrific

"The overwhelming victories won by the valiant soldiers of Russia have struck terror into the hearts of our foes, and these, coupled with the immortal defense of Verdun by our indomitable French comrades, and the brave resistance of the Italians against overwhelming odds in the Southern
