MOTORBOAT TO PATROL BASIN?

Hill Canoeist Suggests Regulation For River Navy's Consideration Tonight

"Why couldn't the city maintain a motorboat patrol of the river from Maclay street to the dam, the craft to be equipped with a pulmotor and 'first aid' equipment?"

"Why couldn't the 'river navy' which is to be permanently organized this evening at the meeting of all Harrisburg's canoeists, motorboatmen and others interested in water sports, include a request of the municipal authorities for that kind of protection?"

An Allison Hill river enthusiast offered these suggestions to-day in discussing the possibilities of the river as the coming recreational spot of the city and of the benefits that could accrue from permanent organization of the water sportsmen.

Whether or not the suggestion will be considered at to-night's meeting of the boatmen, however, is doubtful, although it is understood that the subject will be threshed out at an early meeting.

The chief purposes of to-night's meeting will be permanent organization, election of officers and the mapping out of plans for the water carnival in September. Resolutions recently adopted by the aquatic sports' committee relative to the river problem, will likely be endorsed by the assembled boatmen. These resolutions, it is expected will be presented to Council to-morrow. They point out the need for permanent development and improvement of the Susquehanna "basin," request definite recognition of the needs in the shape of councilmanic appropriation each year, and ask an appropriation for at least $1000 for conducting a big water carnival and regatta, probably on Labor Day, September 4. George W. Rely will call the meeting to order at 7:30 at the Dintaman boat pavilion. Municipal bathhouses and bathing beaches, boat channels properly buoyed and lighted, police patrol protection, etc., are among the improvements that are to be asked of Council by the boatmen. On the question of police facilities the Allison Hill canoeist said:

"The suggestion has been made that a motorboat, equipped with a pulmotor, be purchased by the city for the purpose of patrolling the river from the dam to Maclay street for the protection of the many canoeists, motorboatmen and other water sportsmen."

"Regular patrol hours could be fixed for the summer and Fall months. Expense of maintaining such a patrol, after the boat and equipment had been purchased, will be comparatively small—and the installation of such a service might be the means of saving human lives. When the boat is not actually patrolling, it could be anchored, say at the promontory at the pumping station where it could readily answer to an emergency call. In cases of drowning the boat could be used to seek the bodies. The patrol boat attendant could be given the powers of a regular police constable. The patrolboat of course, could be equipped with a searchlight."

Caplan Company Leases Additional Floor Space

P. H. CAPLAN

The P. H. Caplan Company has announced the leasing of the second-floor rooms directly over its jewelry store, 206 Market street, which will be remodeled and added to the ground floor space. This additional space is required to take care of the growing patronage which the present quarters are inadequate to accommodate. P. H. Caplan, owner of the business, is a firm believer in newspaper advertising and credits to this force a large share of the growth that has been enjoyed by what he titles "The different kind of jewelry store."

A force of carpenters is engaged in remodeling the additional quarters, which will be used for display purposes. In addition to the present business an optical department will be installed. During alterations a special sale will be conducted, details concerning which will be announced from time to time in this paper.

Ladies' Bazaar Aspires Additional Store Room

An important announcement of the leasing of storeroom 8 South Fourth street has been made by M. Schondorf, proprietor of the Ladies' Bazaar.

It was six years ago that this store for women's apparel was opened in storeroom 12 South Fourth street. In a few years' time the business grew to such proportions that additional floor space became necessary, and property No. 10 was acquired. Notwithstanding that the acquisition of the new room doubled the initial floor space, increasing business has already demanded that additional space be employed, as a consequence negotiations were begun looking to securing storeroom No. 8.

These negotiations have just been consummated, and preparations are now being made to connect this store room with the other two. Extensive remodeling operations will involve the interior construction of the three rooms, new fixtures and floors and an imposing store front for the exterior of the three buildings. Mr. Schondorf stated to-day that the rebuilding work will be started just as quickly as possible after plans are prepared, probably in the course of the next few weeks, with the thought of having the new quarters in readiness for the Fall business.
