1,000 Will Be Enrolled in Camp of Marine Reserve

Philadelphia, July 21.—The training camp of the United States Marine Corps reserve will open this afternoon at Lansdowne and will continue for six weeks. Four hundred men will report at the camp to-day and to-morrow and it is expected that more than 1,000 will receive instructions during the time of the encampment.

The camp is the first of a number of like character to open throughout the country and is sanctioned by the government. The men have been enlisted at the regular marine recruiting stations. Each man will serve two weeks in camp and then another seven days in week-end trips.

The camp will officially open on Sunday with an inspection by Major-General Barnett, commander of the United States Marine Corps.

The site has been laid out on the regular scale of such camps as have been in use by the marine corps when on duty in Nicaragua, Haiti and San Domingo.

Captain Logan Feland, commandant of the marine corps at the League Island navy yard, will be in charge.

Britons to Demand Ban on Liquor During War

London, July 21.—There is accumulating evidence that the consumption of alcohol, despite the efforts of the board of liquor control, has diminished but little, if at all, and that it still is seriously affecting national efficiency, both in war work and in other vital industries.

As a result there has been a greatly increased demand for prohibition. The most striking manifestation in this respect has been the formation of the Strength of Britain movement, which was organized by business men who heretofore have not been connected with temperance work.

They soon will present to parliament a memorial demanding a suspension of the liquor traffic during the war on the ground of national duty to Great Britain's allies, to the army and fleet and the conserving of the nation's strength for present dangers and future needs.

The signatories to the memorial include representatives of the Order of Merit, the Privy Council, Parliament, the army and navy, universities, great shipbuilding companies, munition workers and large business firms, men eminent in science and art.
