Harrisburg Stores Will Close Saturdays at One O'clock During the Month of August

¶ During the month of August, the following Harrisburg stores will close Saturdays at one o'clock, remaining open all day Fridays and Friday evenings.

¶ In this, they are actuated by humanitarian motives.

¶ Under present conditions, employes are obliged to face the longest working day of the week immediately following their Friday half holiday, losing all benefit that may have been derived therefrom.

The new arrangement will give employes Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday—a day and a half of relief each week during the oppressive days of summer.

I We ask the public's co-operation with us in this new movement by arranging their week-end shopping for Friday, Friday evening and Saturday morning. We believe that when you consider what this new arrangement will mean to the army of clerks interested, you will be glad to co-operate with us and arrange your week-end shopping to suit the new conditions.

Work so very hard after Some Snakes About six members of Company D, together with members from other companies in the Eighth Infantry, made another attempt to reach the top of Mount Franklin. One by one they dropped out until only Privates Zim-merman, Whick, Stoll and Simpson were left to continue the journey. When within about 100 feet of the top they had to return on account of their watre having all been used. On their way home Private Zimmerman killed his second rattlesnake, which had five ratiles and a button, and Private Zim. merman found a large red Mexican
