

Ty Cobb, Super-man, World's Greatest Baseball Player, Tells How Nuxated Iron Gave Him New Life

This great giant of strength and endurance says he now plays a better game than when he was younger.

Physician explains why taking Nuxated Iron gave Ty Cobb such tremendous strength and vitality after he was so weakened and all "rundown"—says it will often increase the strength and power of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent. in two weeks' time.

New York, N. Y. — When interviewed in his apartment at Bretton Hall, Ty Cobb said: "Hundreds of people write to me to know how I do it, practically every day of the entire baseball season. They wonder why I can play a better game to-day than when I was younger. The secret is keeping up the supply of iron in my blood. I know exactly what everyone else can do if they will."

"At the beginning of the present season I was nearly half a century old and run down from a bad attack of neuralgia, but soon the papers began to state 'Ty Cobb has come back.' He is hitting up the old stride." The secret was iron—Nuxated Iron filled me with renewed life.

ent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron. I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself

I am astonished at the tremendous strength and endurance which I so quickly obtained from taking Nuxated Iron—I feel younger and stronger today than ever before in my life, and the proof is shown by the fact that I play a better game than when I was younger.

Ty Cobb

"Now they say I'm worth $50,000 a year in my baseball team, yet without plenty of iron in my blood I wouldn't be worth five cents. Nuxated Iron supplies that 'stay there' strength and vim that make men of mark and women of power." Continuing, Dr. Sauer said: "Mr. Cobb's case is only one of hundreds which I could cite from my own personal experience, which proves conclusively the astonishing power of nuxated iron to restore strength and vitality, even in most complicated chronic conditions."

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 30 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man. In fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—Nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 46 he was careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away pat-how much you have gained, I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron

A good batter must be in prime physical condition—he needs a cool head, a quick eye and tremendous strength to put the swing behind the bat. Ty Cobb is undoubtedly the greatest baseball player in the history of the game. A short time ago he was weakened and all "rundown"—to-day he is a miracle of strength and endurance, due to filling his blood with plenty of iron. He says Nuxated Iron has given him new life and renewed energy and put the old-time vim and vigor of youth into his blood.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well-known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older iron-organic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength within ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Croll Keller, G. A. Gorgas and all good druggists.—Advertisement.

REVERSAL IN COMPENSATION

Altoona Referee Sets Bad Precedent Rules the Chairman

Chairman Harry A. Mackey, of the State Workmen's Compensation Board, has reversed a finding by Referee Jacob Snyder, of the Altoona district, in making an award to Edward and Amelia Mayer, Johnstown, for compensation for the death of their son on the ground that the Board can find no evidence in the record to sustain the conclusion, saying that the referee interpreted the testimony he evidently believed that death was caused by an injury in the course of employment.

The claim was that the deceased "met with an accident while lifting a dressed calf in the meat market. The accident is known and described as 'embolism,' resulting from an accidental strain of the back which resulted in his death." Mr. Mackey says that the only evidence regarding the strain was from relatives who swore that the deceased had told them prior to his death and adds "with this alone uncontradicted it would create a most dangerous precedent to base a verdict upon such interested and unsatisfactory evidence." It is also declared that one witness swore that Mayer did not carry the calf at all, while the opinion says that the Board is at a loss to know how, from the evidence, the referee could have formed an idea what "embolism" means. In conclusion the finding of the referee is set aside with the comment "We cannot imagine a more unsatisfactory record on which to sustain a verdict."

Referee Paul W. Houck, of the Pottsville district is sustained in his decision that Anthony Neary, Shenandoah, did not forfeit his right to compensation for an injury by refusing to continue the medical aid offered by the employer, and employing his own physician. Chairman Mackey says: "It is not in accord with the spirit of compensation laws to imagine that the legislature intended to create so severe a penalty for the employer's refusing employer's medical services that a worker, thereby forfeit all right to compensation."

AMUSEMENTS

The funny "Fatty" Arbuckle was shown in the Colonial yesterday and will be shown for the last time to-day at the Colonial. A new two-reel comedy entitled "The Waiters' Ball." A Keystone comedy, "The Wolf Hopper" will be seen again in his greatest picture, "Casey at the Bat." The picture is based on the famous baseball poem of the same name. It is also declared that more than a quarter of a century ago, and was originally printed in a contemporary magazine. The picture is reprinted thousands of times in other papers and magazines. The picture follows in accordance with the usual enough pathos added to make it very interesting. The pictures of Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart's picnic at Hershey Park, will be shown for the first time to-day. William Farnum will be the star in a new picture, "The Battle of Hearts," which has been reprinted thousands of times in other papers and magazines.

Harrisburg film followers were given an opportunity at the Regent yesterday to observe for the first time the picture "Saints and Sinners" in the English. "Saints and Sinners" is a drama which has modern settings and a delightful atmosphere. It will be shown to-day for the last time. Letty is an innocent little soul whose whole life is wrapped up in her father and her lover. She is a dainty and sympathetic girl in whose career one cannot but become interested. In this production Miss Hyland plays the role of a clergyman's daughter who is seduced very nearly brings her downfall. It is only the faith and determination of her lover and her aged father which save her after she has been taken to the city and lodged at a hotel by a man in whose honor she has every faith.

The artful devices of the fake fortune tellers and palmists are cleverly exposed in the picture "The Thousand Dollar Husband," in which Blanche Sweet will be seen tomorrow and Thursday. "The Mystery of Myra," and also "The Gilded Spider."

To-day the Victoria presents Viola Dana in a five-act picture play of life and its pitfalls, "Innocence of Ruth," at the Victoria.

Paxtang Mausoleum

The Realization of an Ideal

"TAKE THEM, O GRAVE AND LET THEM LIE FOLDED UPON THY NARROW SHELVES AS GARMENTS BY THE SOUL LAID BY AND SACRED ONLY TO OURSELVES."

There is certainly a sense of relief in considering this method of tenderly caring for, rather than merely disposing of the dead.

Crowning a beautiful eminence in Paxtang Cemetery with a wonderful panorama of the mountains, the broad Susquehanna, the Cumberland and Lebanon valleys spread before it, will stand this stately Grecian Temple, a landmark throughout the coming ages. Its walls of granite, its corridors lined and sealed with snowy marble, its crypts inscribed with the names and deeds of those dear ones laid within.

Here will be none of the grewsomeness, the dampness and mold of the grave. Instead all will be light, sunshine and cheerfulness surrounding the silent forms of its occupants. The dignity of death is there, but with it is peace and tranquility and the light and hopes in a bright hereafter.

The sunlight mellowed through its windows of golden opalescent art glass reflecting from the sparkling marble make of this a mansion of life.

To feel that to the last and for always we have cherished and honored our beloved and protected that tenement wherein abided a well-loved soul from the ignominious violation of the elements and creatures of the earth, to know that they lie secure and calm behind these marble walls is the most consoling thought we can have regarding the last tragic act of this little drama of life.

A very few choice spaces yet remain unsold but only enough to accommodate a very few families. To secure space at all or ever, reservations must be made at once as construction will begin within the coming month, after which time we will have absolutely no space for sale at any price.

If you wish to make this provision for yourself and your loved ones you must act at once else forever lose the opportunity. Full particulars will be furnished upon application.

TROLLEY STRIKE PREVENTS MISSIONARY RALLY TO-NIGHT
Because of the inconvenience resulting from the trolley-men's strike the missionary rally that was scheduled for to-night in the Nagle Street Church of God has had to be called off until August 8. By that time, the traffic conditions it is hoped will be improved sufficiently to enable the representatives from various other Churches of God in the city to meet. The meeting will be called at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. A. L. Krimer, pastor of the Nagle Street Church.

Queen Alexandra Is Grief-Stricken Over Death of Lord Kitchener

London (correspondence of the Associated Press).—Perhaps none outside his immediate family was more grief-stricken at the news of Lord Kitchener's tragic death than Queen Alexandra. The attentiveness of the soldier to the queen-mother had long been notable and there was a very strong bond of sympathy between the two, undoubtedly two of the loneliest figures prominent in contemporary London. Indeed there was something pathetic in the lonely bachelorhood of the war secretary, who occasionally to his intimates dropped remarks bearing on his lack of home and near relations. Not a week passed during the war in which he had not paid a visit to Marlborough house, where he would remain for long visits with Queen Alexandra, and come away with a long list of those combatants of whom her friends had made special inquiries. However pressing the demands of the campaigns on the various fronts, he would always return within a few days with the desired information.

Lord Kitchener had promised to be the queen-mother's guest during the coming summer at Sandringham. He constantly had ladies to lunch at his seat in Kent, Froome Hall, near Canterbury, on Sundays, and would show them how he was developing his gardens and dilate to them on the beauties of his china. Younger women were conspicuous by their absence at these times, the guests being chiefly peeresses and experts on gardening as well as the wives of men who had served under him in various campaigns.

At York House, St. James' Palace, he gave a number of dinner parties to men only, the military element being not always conspicuous at these. He liked doctors, though cared nothing for actors or musicians. Several of the higher clergy in London enjoyed his friendship and hospitality.

Lord Kitchener was personally well known to the owners of many of the more expensive curiosity shops in London. He would bargain over purchases, but did not possess the commercial sense, and in the end would always pay a good price, usually on his own initiative. The dealer generally received a check the day after delivery, the check being quite often post-dated a month or two.

Cherry Stems Bought to Make Trench Gas
Portland, Ore.—Agents for the allies have been quietly buying up all the cherry stems they can find in the Washington and Oregon fruit belts for the past three weeks. Much speculation has been excited by the purchases. To-day the secret came out. The stems will be used in the manufacture of poisonous gases for trench warfare. From the stems are obtained some of the chief elements of cyanide of potassium. The agents have spent thousands of dollars in the last few weeks.
