Crisis in British Cabinet Depresses Wall Street; Stocks

Under Pressure

By Associated Press
New York, July 25. — Overnight developments including the threatened crisis in the British cabinet on the railway labor situation, favored the short interest at to-day's opening and provoked further liquidation of the short interest at to-day's opening and provoked further liquidation of weak specialties. Industrial Alcohol added 3% points to yesterday's severe depreciation in the first half hour. Such leaders as U. S. Steel, Union Pacific and Reading were under moderate pressure, with the motors, Mexican Petroleum and equipments. Declines were effected on comparatively small offerings from professional sources.

Sherman, Tex., July 25. — Because

Farmer, 75, Marries Sweetheart of Youth

Special to the Telegraph

Sedalia, Mo.—A friendship of more than fifty years culminated when John W Lawkin, a wealthy farmer, 75, and
Mrs. Askes Clopton, 73, were married.
The two were playmates together and sweethearts in early youth. Later they drifted apart and both were married to other than their first choice.

ABSOLUTE HONESTY
Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been going about with a young man for a year and up to about a month ago I had every reason to believe he loved me.
But he was always jealous of my association with other young men and I enjoyed making him feel that way. Now he sees me very seldom.
Was I wrong in making him jealous?
MAE L.
I think what you did was contempt-
