HOLD UTICA TO AN EVEN BREAK

Harrisburg's Islanders Are Big Sensation in Double-Header; Burns Wins Second

Special to the Telegraph Utica, N. Y., July 27.—Those Islanders from Harrisburg gave the Utes the greatest battle of the season yesterday, losing the first game in the sixteenth inning, by a score of 3 to 2; and taking the second, a five inning struggle, score 3 to 0. It was some baseball handed out by the visitors.

Breaks favored Utica. Harrisburg out-batted their opponents, but could not connect for safeties in bunches at critical times.

Volz and Burns pitched for Harrisburg. Volz was hit hard at times but sensational fielding back of him prevented scoring.

Ring tightened up after the Islanders tied up the game. Burns was the big boy in the second battle, Utica having but two hits. The score:

WELLY'S CORNER

Baseball enthusiasm in Harrisburg is reaching the old-time pitch. Everywhere fans are talking about Harrisburg's wonderful baseball team.

Extra-inning games, double victories and sensational pitching and fielding has aroused the interest of those who want to see the New York State League game remain in Harrisburg.

The Dauphin-Schuylkill race is close. Williamstown and Lykens are tie for leadership. This evening Williamstown and Tremont will meet.

Manager Bowman, of the Keener A. C., who can be found at 620 Mahanogonee street, is very anxious to get a game for Saturday. The Keeners have been going at a winning pace and furnish rare sport for the West Harrisburg fans.

Harper Emrick, a promising young pitcher on the Newport Dauphin-Perry team, will be given a tryout by Brooklyn. It is said the youngster will get into the game when Brooklyn meets Pittsburgh.

Mabel Trask, owned and driven by Walter Cox of Deer, N. H., had little trouble in winning the historic merchants and manufacturers' stake for 2.08 trotters at Detroit yesterday.

Mates, a former Tri-Stater, is playing a great game for the Williamstown team in the Dauphin-Schuylkill League. Pat Reagan was a star for Lykens in yesterday's game.

Christy Mathewson in his first game against the Giants at Cincinatti landed a victory yesterday; score, 4 to 2. Sallee, a new Giant, pitched his first game. Mathewson was given an ovation by New York fans.

The State Highway Department team, leaders in the Capitol Hill League, won yesterday's game, defeating the Department of Labor and Industry team; score, 5 to 2. It was one of the best games since the league started.

Superb pitching by Hefelfinger brought a victory for the Galahads yesterday, who won over the Stanley; score, 3 to 1. The Stanley had but three safeties. Both teams fielded in a sensational manner.

SATURDAY GAMES FOR ISLAND PARK

Complete Plans With Motive Power For Baseball Bargain Day; Utica Is Coming

Local baseball fans will get two games at Island Park Saturday. The Motive Power Department Atlantic Association fans realizing that baseball is getting real ripe made concession yesterday.

The game between Harrisburg and Trenton Motive Power teams of the Pennsylvania Railroad League will start at 1:15. This battle will decide the season's championship.

Harrisburg is leading with two games to the good. Both Harrisburg and Trenton will have the backing of a large number of rooters. Trenton is coming here by special train.

Immediately after this game the New York League contest between Harrisburg and Utica will be called. There will be but one game. The double-header scheduled with the Utes will be played later.

Manager George Cockill, who is at his home in Lewisburg, worked until last night to bring about a satisfactory arrangement. With favorable weather a record crowd is expected.

Tennis Entries Close Today; Give Out Drawings Saturday

Entries for the annual City Tennis Tournament will close to-night at midnight. Play starts Tuesday on Reservoir Park courts. Up to noon to-day the cost included 200 names. Special efforts are being made by the committee in charge of arrangements to reach the 300 mark.

Entries closed at midnight will positively not be accepted. Out-of-town entries are being received by letter where it has been impossible to obtain regular registration cards.

The legality of mail entries will be decided by the postmark. Work on putting the courts in shape was resumed to-day. The drawings will be made to-morrow and announced Saturday.

Printers After Title; Battle Early Next Month

Special to the Telegraph Philadelphia, July 27.—Washington Park, Indianapolis, the American League grounds, will be the scene of the ninth annual tournament of the Union Printers' Baseball League, which will open on Sunday, August 5.

Two cities will engage in an elimination series to decide which will be the winner of the Garry Herrmann trophy, now held by St. Louis Union.

The entries are Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, St. Louis and St. Paul.

A feature of the week's entertaining will be a 100-mile motor race on the Indianapolis speedway by professional drivers. Next year's tournament will be held at St. Paul, Minn.

TEXAS PROHIBITION IN DOUBT

By Associated Press Dallas, Texas, July 27.—Fate of the proposal to submit a constitutional amendment for state-wide prohibition to Texas voters still is in doubt. Latest returns from Saturday's Democratic primary gave for submission 155,585, against 153,351, a lead for submission of 2,204.

Cooper Sues For Salary Earned With Brookfeds

Special to the Telegraph New York, July 27.—The Ward family, which formerly owned the Brookfeds, were made defendants in suits yesterday, one of them filed by Outfielder Claude Cooper, of the Phillies, the other by Bill Bradley, who managed the club in 1914.

Cooper claims he had an "iron-clad" contract for three years, calling for $7,000 per season, while Bradley says his pay was to have been $7,500 for three years. Each admits that the 1915 salary was paid, but asserts that nothing has been done so far toward paying the 1916 salary.

Cooper just now is receiving $4,000 a year from the Phillies. He is willing that the $4,000 should apply against the $7,000, but he wants to get the other $3,000 from the Wards. Bradley, however, has been jobless since the advent of peace. He wants the $7,500 in full.

Binghamton gained in the New York State League race yesterday by taking the game from Elmira. The score was 4 to 1. Sitton was the star. Those curves that bring fly balls and easy outs were in evidence. Albany gained some on Harrisburg yesterday, winning from Syracuse by a score of 5 to 2. The Stars had an off day in the field and practically gave the game away.

The State Highway Department team, leaders in the Capitol Hill League, won yesterday's game, defeating the Department of Labor and Industry team; score, 5 to 2. It was one of the best games since the league started.

Superb pitching by Hefelfinger brought a victory for the Galahads yesterday, who won over the Stanley; score, 3 to 1. The Stanley had but three safeties. Both teams fielded in a sensational manner.

Callahan Anxious For Real Ring Battle

According to Dan McKetrick, manager of Frankie Callahan, this young lightweight has not been fortunate enough in obtaining good matches to prove his worth.

Even at that Callahan has a good record. He decisively defeated Dundee at Cincinatti, getting the verdict from every one of the newspapers. He repeated over Dundee, at Brooklyn, but for some unknown reason did not get what was coming to him for his victory, which was probably due to poor management.

He beat Joe Mangano at Memphis; Rocky Kansas in Buffalo; Benny Palmer in Milwaukee; Johnny Harvey in Columbus; Charley White in St. Louis and knocked out Ralph Granan in Salt Lake City. He also knocked out Mexican Joe Rivers in Memphis and Jack Reed in St. Louis. He has beaten Robinson, Tommy Mephy, Joe Azevedo and earned the referee's decision in Boston, over Gilbert Gallant.

Alexander Is Real Star; Wins Nineteenth Victory

Alexander the Great won his nineteenth victory of the season yesterday. He has lost six games, which gives him a percentage of 76.

By winning yesterday Alexander has personally landed as many triumphs as the whole Athletic team. If you bring up bigfists on the American League standing you will see the Mackmen credited with 19 victories, just as many as Alexander has personally won.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Ordeal of Elizabeth" will be the attraction at the Victoria to-day. It is a story of sacrifice, duty and love.

Lillian Walker at the Victoria Today told in an entirely new and original manner. The leading feminine character of the play is portrayed by Lillian Walker. To-day also, "The Girl and the Game," featuring Billie Burke, the female daredevil of the movies. For to-morrow "Winifred, the Shop Girl" featuring Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno.

In "The Thousand Dollar Husband" Miss Sweet is seen in the most startling manner of her many roles. Blanche Sweet that of a Swedish at the Regent maid of all work in a college boardinghouse.

She is madly in love with one of the students, and when her wealthy uncle leaves her his fortune with the provision that she must marry immediately, knowing that the object of her infatuation is on the verge of ruin, she purchases him as a bridegroom. She falls into the toils of a clever fortune-teller and is just about to be robbed of her entire inheritance when the husband interferes. How the loveless marriage ripens and develops and the couple are reunited in complete happiness, tends to make a thrilling and unusual melodrama.

To-morrow—Return engagement of "The Spider," in which Pauline Frederick is starred.

To-morrow and Saturday—The sixth chapter of "Gloria's Romance" (Hidden Fires) featuring Billie Burke, will be shown. Gloria, after being ill for many days with pneumonia, begins to convalesce and the skilful surgeon, Dr. Stephen Royce, an old friend of the family, who dearly loves Gloria, though the latter is in the hands of a thief, Richard Freneau, a thorough cad, who has had affairs with a dozen different women.

"The Battle of Hearts," the latest William Fox production which is to be shown at the Colonial Theater, the "Battle of Hearts" for the last time.

Features William Farnum. The picture is a powerful love drama of sea life and was pronounced by many people to be one of the best pictures in which this star has appeared. Friday and Saturday, Frank Keenan will be featured in a new five-reel lince feature, entitled "The Phantom." Edith Storey will play the opposite role to Mr. Keenan in this new feature. "The Phantom" is farrel, a notorious gentleman thief, who specializes in big jewel robberies. He has just read that the famous Brenton necklace is to be worn by Alice Brenton at a week-end party. How he manages to get an invitation to the party, and why he is called "The Phantom," forms a very interesting plot. A new two-reel Fine Arts comedy, featuring Fay Tincher, called "Bedelia's Choice," will be on the same bill.
