ANOTHER BATTLE

Base Running at Utica; Hits Timely

inning was a big factor in Harrisburg's victory.

Helfrich and Blair were on the firing line for the Cockill crew. The Utes hit the ball hard and often, but not in bunches. Sesational fielding prevented the locals from scoring.

Utica scored in the fifth when Karpp started by beating out a bunt. Bruggy singled to center. McConnell bunted, but Helfrich threw to Downey for a forced play at third. Corcoran then hit to left, scoring Bruggy. On the attempted squeeze play Wagner bunted into Helfrich's hands and McConnell was doubled off third, retiring the side.

Harrisburg Scores

Corcoran went over back of second and grabbed Layden's grounder at the start of the sixth and turned it into an out. Brown was walked, and went to third on two short singles to right field by Harrison and Downey. Elliott hit to left, scoring Brown. Mills grounded to Corcoran, who threw to Clougher forcing Hadrison at the plate. Clougher threw to Brower, but Mills had beaten the throw. Brower slept with the ball in his hand while Downey kept on coming home, scoring from second on the play. The ball was returned to Karpp and then he threw to Brower, catching Mills off first. While Mills was being chased down Elliott stole third and home and then Mills slid back safely into first. He died later trying to steal second.

Uttac rallied in the eighth. With one down Brower singled and scored on Reichle's triple to right. Reichle was caught at the plate on Catiz's grounder to Downey. Clougher singled, but Karpp filed to Downey. The score:

Special to the Telegraph
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 28.
Minority stockholders of the Wilkes-Barre club of the New York State League who have foreclosed a judgment note and caused the sheriff to take possession of the club, met here yesterday and endeavored to get Albert Lewis, Jr., of Bear Creek, to become chief owner of the club. The club property will be disposed of at a Sheriff's sale to-day.

Lewis declared that he may purchase the club and said that if he did that Mike Donlin, formerly with the Giants, would be named manager to succeed Peter Noonan. Minority stockholders are satisfied that Lewis will be at the sale to-morrow to bid in the club.

EDDIE GAGNIER TO RETIRE

Special to the Telegraph

Special to the Telegraph

Scranton, Pa., July 28. — Manager
Bill Coughlin, of the local New York State League team, received another shock yesterday when Eddie Gagnier, the star shortstop of the Miners, announced his intention to quit the team Saturday and leave for Detroit, where he has accepted a position in a big manufactory there. He said the firm had granted him a leave to play with the Miners for the summer, but that the pressure of business demanded that he get back to his position.
When Coughlin found he could not induce Gagnier to reconsider, he announced that he would re-engage Almeida, the Cuban, and play him at third base. Purteil, the best third baseman in the league, will be made over into a shortstop.
