"I KNOW YOU," SAYS TEXAS INDIAN

Cook in Carlisle Company of 8th Regiment Finds Acquaintance Near Camp Stewart

Special to the Telegraph Carlisle, Pa., July 28.—How he was chased by an Indian along the foot of Mt. Franklin, near Camp Stewart where the Pennsylvania National Guards are encamped, to find when being overtaken that the red man was a former student of the Carlisle Indian School and a one-time customer of his, is told in a letter to friends here from William A. Adams, cook of Company G, of the Eighth Regiment.

Adams, after he had seen to the serving of supper started out on a walking tour. He walked toward Mt. Franklin until he reached a small clearing, where he saw a young Indian sitting in a doorway of a house. Adams spoke to the aborigine, but the latter did not reply, eyeing the Carlisle man closely the while. Becoming alarmed, Adams said, when the Indian said "I know you" and started toward him, Adams started to run, but was overtaken.

Reunion of Maccabees at New Bloomfield Tomorrow

Special to the Telegraph New Bloomfield, Pa., July 28.—Big preparations are being made by the several tents of the Maccabees throughout Perry county for their fifth annual reunion here to-morrow. The town to-day presents a gala appearance.

The seven tents of the county will send representatives. A business meeting will be held at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon a parade will form at the square at 7:30 and will traverse the principal streets of the town. Business houses of town will be represented by floats. Benjamin K. Focht, of Lewisburg, congressman of the Seventeenth district, will be the speaker of the day. John M. H. Weiss, a member of the local tent, will deliver the address of welcome. W. E. Blaney, great commander, of Pittsburgh, will respond.

"Joke" With Air Compressor Causes Small Boy's Death

Special to the Telegraph Waynesboro, Pa., July 28.—Ira Moats, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moats, living in Walnut street, died in great agony yesterday from distention of his intestines, the result of a trick. The boy's father is a night workman at the plant of the Landis Machine company, and Wednesday evening Ira and another small boy went along to the shops and they got to playing with an air compressor hose, blowing air on each other to cool off. The report is that a youth 17 or 18 years of age, placed the hose on Ira Moats' body and turned on the air from the compressor. The result was that the boy's intestines were so distended that death resulted twelve hours afterward. Coroner Kinter, of Chambersburg, has been notified to make inquiry.

CHARGED WITH STONING CARS

Special to the Telegraph Carlisle, Pa., July 28.—Charles Fry, York county, was held under $7,500 bail for court on a charge of stoning a car on the Valley Railways line and endangering the passengers. He claimed that he did not know that he had done so. The trouble occurred Saturday evening near Foxbury when he had been ejected from the car for causing trouble.

ENTERTAINS SOCIETY

Special to the Telegraph Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 28.—Mrs. George W. Hershman was hostess for the Standard Bearers Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church last evening. During the social hour refreshments were served. Plans were formulated for a picnic at Bolling Springs Park next month instead of the regular meeting.

Enjoyable Efficiency

It's a fine thing to gain this end in an enjoyable, happy way.

The food one eats should not only contain the maximum of body, nerve and brain building qualities, but should rate high as an appetizer.

Grape-Nuts

is unique in both these properties. Made of whole wheat and malted barley, it retains the wonderful nutriment of these grains, including their mineral elements which are vital for health. At the same time Grape-Nuts is a delicious food, possessing a natural sweetness combined with a delicate malt flavor.

Served with cream, or good milk, Grape-Nuts is ideal for children and grown-ups, building and maintaining the system for the demands of life in a pleasant, enjoyable way.

"There's a Reason"

Grocers everywhere sell Grape-Nuts.

Special to the Telegraph Elizabethtown, July 29.—This was "Communion and Old People's Day" at the United Brethren campmeeting, and all of the services were of a special character. The early morning worship at 6:30 was conducted by the Rev. J. P. Brown, of Shamokin. At 8:30 the prayer and praise service was led by the Rev. C. A. Mutch, of Schuylkill Haven, and at 10 o'clock communion sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. D. D. Lowery, of Harrisburg. A Junior service at 1 o'clock was conducted by the Rev. O. G. Romig, of Tower City, who gave an illustrated talk on "The Tree of Life." At 2:30 a practical German sermon was preached by the Rev. P. M. Holdeman of Arisles. A German solo was sung by the Rev. O. G. Romig, of Tower City.

The evening sermon at 7:30 was preached by the Rev. O. E. Rettew, of Halifax. The latest ministerial arrivals are: The Rev. G. M. Richter, of Coatesville; the Rev. A. L. Haessler, of Millersburg; the Rev. J. T. Spangler, of Lykens; and the Rev. P. M. Holdeman, of Arisles. At the communion service two beautiful selections were sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. Roy Elanng, of Williamsport; Miss Ella Ely, of Lykens; Walter Deibler, of Elizabethtown; and Homer G. Deibler, of Lykens. To-morrow will be Educational and Temperance Day. The Rev. Dr. G. D. Gossard, president of Lebanon Valley college, will preach morning and evening. In the afternoon at 2:30 an address on "Temperance" will be delivered by F. F. Holsapple, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Men Who Refuse to Work Arrested as Vagrants

Special to the Telegraph Williamsport, Pa., July 28.—Fifteen men who refused to work for a city contractor on a sewer job at $2 per day were arrested yesterday by the police on vagrancy charges. A police court judge sent them to the city prison for five days each. The men were arrested in a street which is a favorite for loafers. The contractor appeared there early this morning looking for laborers and offering $2 per day to all who would join his force. He was jeered by the idlers, who said they could sleep at the City Hall when winter comes. The contractor complained to the police, who quickly made the arrests.

TO TAKE OVER ROAD

Special to the Telegraph Norristown, Pa., July 28.—"While not particularly favoring the proceeding, the Lewisville and Prospectville Turnpike company will not oppose to the extent of calling witnesses," said counsel for the turnpike company yesterday at a session of the master and jury of five men appointed by the Montgomery county court to consider freeing from tolls that part of the road, commonly known as the Butler pike, from the intersection of the Jarrattown and Horsham turnpike near Ambler, to Rose Valley, below Three Tuns. Eight prominent automobilists and taxpayers of Ambler and Three Tuns told the jury that they considered the payment of tolls on all roads a burden, and thought it would be for the best interests of the people of Montgomery that this section of road should be free. A number of witnesses testified that they had persistently dodged the tollgate on this turnpike, and one of them declared that he would rather "spend money for gasoline than pay toll."

MRS. ELIZABETH DOWNS BURIED

Special to the Telegraph Lewisberry, Pa., July 28.—Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Downs were held in the St. John's church on Wednesday, the Rev. C. S. Messner officiating.
