Full Crew Cases Go

to Superior Court The first appeals from the recent decisions of the Public Service Commission on the full crew law were filed at the office of the commission to-day by the Philadelphia and Reading, Baltimore and Ohio and Central Railroad of New Jersey system, which were ordered to discontinue the classification of dining or cafe car conductors as trainmen. The appeals will be taken up at one of the Falls terms of court. Uulysses S. Grant, of Annville, has raised the question before the commission whether an electric company can require a house to be wired according to its own set of rules before turning on current. His complaint is against the Palmy-a and Annville Light, Heat and Power Company. Another complaint filed was by John F. Smith, Lancaster, against rates of fare of the Conestoga Traction company between Lancaster and certain parks.

Harris-Carter Wedding

Event of This Morning The marriage of Miss Mae Carter, of 421 Walnut street, a well-known trained nurse of this city, to John Toner Harris, traffic superintendent of the Bell Telephone Company, took place this morning at the Manse of the Market Square Presbyterian Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes, officiating. There were no attendants, the newlyweds leaving immediately for a tour of the Great Lakes. The bride stands high in her profession and was for a time with the famous Mayo Brothers, surgeons, at their Rochester, Minn., hospital. Mr. Harris is one of the best known telephone men in the State.
