F. & M. Employees Expect Bigger Picnic Than Ever

The committee in charge of the annual excursion of the employees of the Harrisburg Foundry and Machine Works to Willow Grove Park, Philadelphia, to be held on Saturday, August 12, predict that this year's event will outstrip any of its predecessors in popularity. Despite the fact that the public's attention has been occupied the past few weeks with world and local events of an unusual character, they state that they have been fairly besieged with inquiries regarding details of their trip, from those who make this yearly excursion a part of their vacation.

The excursion is one in which anyone is privileged to participate, and the committee is working overtime in its efforts to make the trip a most enjoyable one. In addition to the new attractions that will be seen at Willow Grove Park this year, there will be a baseball game on the National League grounds in Philadelphia between the New York Giants and the Phillies which is bound to make a strong appeal to lovers of the national game.
