Dauphin Still Has Fighting Chance; Games Tomorrow Are Important

Special to the Telegraph Marysville, Pa., Aug. 4. — With the Dauphin-Perry race well advanc-ed on the final lap, games which will have important bearings on the final standing will be played to-morrow. Dauphin will meet Halifax at home; Marysville plays at Newport and Dun-cannon will journey to Millersburg. If Halifax succeeds in tripping up Dauphin to-morrow and Marysville defeats Newport, nothing but a miracle will prevent Marysville from landing the rag. Marysville would have a three-game lead over Halifax and would need to take but two of the remaining six games to secure a tie. Dauphin will meet Halifax at home;

Harry Biever will start to twirl and either Ducky Rhoads or Minnich, formerly of Penn State, will receive him. Marysville will use Don Wertz and Kurzenknabe with the regular line-up against Newport. Frankhouse, who de-feated Marysville on Independence Day will probably start the game for Newport with Ray Wertz in reserve. Duncannon may use Winter a new pitcher to-morrow with Dearolf catch-ing. Manager Chance will send in for his Millersburg squad Franke and Buffington.

Above is a picture of the Harrisburg baseball aggregation. Every member of the sensational bunch, except Parsons, was caught by the camera man. The popular young pitcher was not in uniform. The rest of the boys were on hand and every player was in a fighting mood. Coming up from a record of six games won and forty-nine lost, is proof that this is some team. Every club in the New York State League knows that Harrisburg is a factor in the race. A few more victories and the Islanders will be out of the cellar. In the above picture are: Front row, reading from left to right-Burns, pitcher; Huenke, pitcher; Elliott, shortstop; Walter Blair, cap-tain and manager; Volz, pitcher; Helfrich, pitcher. Middle row-Harrison, right field; Reed, infield; Mills, first base; Wheat, catcher. Front row, left field; Layden, center field; Cook, second base; Downey, third base, and the mascot.

ever worked harder and showed better form than Friel when the battle ended. His teammates had been fighting hard and when the sixteenth round started they lacked the pep that was needed to prevent clean his and which they showed early in the game.

Helfrich Starts

Helfrich Starts Harrisburg started with Helfrich and this boy was just as good as Friel. In fact, he was better. In the ninth inning, when a pinch hitter was needed and Wheat went in, Helfrich retired. Parsons succeeded him and was a big factor to the finish. Without a chance to warm up, Parsons started his puz-zlers. There were times when it looked 500d for Syracuse to score, but sen-sational fielding, long running catches in the outfield and good pitching shut off the runners. Syracuse

In the outheid and good pitching shut off the runners. In the Harrisburg line-up was the veteran catcher, Lew Ritter, Walter Blair was too ill to play and Wheat is out with a sore finger. Ritter was there with the goods Layden was the sensational boy when he caught Fritz's hit in the last inning, prevent-ing Syracuse from scoring.

Score Winning Run

Score Winning Run In the sixteenth Cook hit to Fritz, who could not handle the ball in time, and first was reached without any in-terference. Cook singled to right, Par-sons taking second. Layden sacrificed, the ball going to Friel, who threw to third, but not in time to catch Parsons. Brown fouled out and Harrison sent the single to center that brought the victory.
