A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME Founded 1831

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., Telegraph Building, Federal Square.

E. J. STACKPOLE, Pres't and Editor-in-Chief F. R. OYSTER, Business Manager. GUS M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor.

Member American Newspaper Pub-lishers' Associalishers' Association, The Audit Bureau of Circulation and Pennsylvania Associated Dailies.

Eastern office, Hasstern office, Has-brook, Story & Brooks, Fifth Ave-nue Building, New York City; West-ern office, Has-brook. Story & Brooks, People's Gas Building, Cha-cago, III. cago, Ill.

Entered at the Post Office in Harris-burg, Pa., as second class matter.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 4

Every man must get to heaven his own way .- FREDERICK THE GREAT.

HUGHES OR WILSON-THAT'S ALL note speech of the standard bearer of the Republican party. They pretend to see in this speech many inherent weaknesses, but the outside evidence is all against this pretense. They are deeply concerned over the wide-spread conviction of the strength of unanimous? Mr. Hughes as a statesman and President Wilson himself realizes the difficulty of overcoming the increasing confidence of the people in the Republican candidate and his popularity among all classes. Discussing the Democratic situation at Washington, in a current analysis of political conditions, Colonel Harvey, editor of the North American Review, says:

The Republicans inevitably and justifiably, as it happens, prononce "severest condemnation of the wasteful appropriations of this administration," but in the light of the record of their own party as the most extravagant ever known their righteous indignation is far from convincing. On the other hand, the Democrats, for reasons that are distressingly apparent, prudently withhold their time-honored shibboleth of economy.

Nothing has so weakened the Dem

Nothing has so weakened the Dem peratic position in this campaign as the extravagant appropriations and the increased cost of the government under the present administration. At a time when people are demanding economy in every direction, millions upon millions of dollars are being expended in ways that are entirely without justification.

President Wilson's practical renunciation of the Democratic doctrine of a tariff for revenue only has likewise proven a serious handicap in the Wilson campaign. The policy of protection is so obviously in the interest of American capital and labor that the Democratic leaders are compelled to abandon their traditional which held the tariff to be a tax.

It is also clearly manifest that the series of untoward events since the beginning of the war in Europe and the complications in Mexico have impaired the standing of the administration at Washington even more than its weak domestic policies.

Colonel Harvey wisely suggests that the-ultimate issue in the campaign this year "will be one of sincerity based upon character. Hughes or Wilson? That's all."

Community center work has been discussed by officials of the School Board and Department of Parks, and it is encouraging to hear from an expert of the Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America that Harrisburg is admirably fitted for this sort of that Governor Brumbaugh was also thought to the road system of Pennsylvania than to any other feature of his constructive program for the State. ter a thorough study of the question, that Pennsylvania will benefit more from a system of intercommunicating highways and main trunk lines than from any other single activity. He believes that good roads are inter-related with more prosperous rural conditions and a reduction of the high cost of liv-

No better example of window box decoration can be found in the city than the attractive plants and vines on the Executive Mansion. It is proper that the official residence of the Governor should be thus adorned as a lesson ing through easy access of the producer and the consumer.

STILL WATCHFULLY WAITING THE crisis which is upon the country in an impending strike of thousands of railroad employes does not seem to impress the fatuous statesmen at Washington. So serious is the situation that the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has addressed a letter to President Wilson in the hope that he will see fit to start an inquiry in behalf of the adminis-

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH remote at this time and unless some steps are taken to prevent a break the business interests of the country are likely to suffer most seriously. As it brotherhoods is imminent, yet the feeling in Washington seems to be that no crisis is impending. More watchful work. Two or three years ago an ef- The tax is to be "voluntary," but it is fort was made to interest the people of the city in the use of the school buildings for social center activities, but it was not given sufficient public on the blacklist.

FRIDAY EVENING,

UR Democratic brethren are much perturbed over the key-them.

support to make the movement a success. Enough interest was demonstrated, however, to justify some further effort in this direction.

GOOD ROADS THE THING

RECENT magazine article stated that Governor Major of Missouri, Governor Hodges of Kansas and Governor Cruce of Oklahoma has and Governor Cruce of Oklahoma had put on working clothes and aided had put on working clothes and aided trade. Yet for the purpose of piling in the construction of highways on up a fund with which to stem the ris Good Roads Day. We rise to remark ing sentiment of prohibition these on the job and is to-day giving more very man whose business they are in-

It is the Governor's sincere belief, af-tration. An amicable settlement seems tleman and a good forecaster

TELEGRAPH PERISCOPE

-"Austrians fall back on looks now a deadlock between the wings," says a news dispatch, which railroad officials and the various leads to the belief that they may soon be flying.

Politics in Pennsylvania

Sy the Ex-Committeeman

ing in Washington seems to be that no crisis is impending. More watchful waiting.

Letters from the Harrisburg solder boys on the Mexican border indicate that they are performing their during with a high sense of their obligation with a high sense of their obligation and their country in a difficult and trying all the expectations of their community and their country in a difficult and trying situation.

SUSQUEHANNA BASIN GUARDS

A COURSE of swimming and life-saving has been established for the Fairmount park guards in Philadelphia. It is expected to develop at a least a score of guards as efficient as those at the seashore resorts. The Schuylkill river is crowded on Samulation of know the danger of being in light boats or canoes.

This is another thing for the consideration of the "Greater Harrisburg" during the source was to be done avery summer evening by persons who cannot swim and do not know the danger of being in light boats or canoes.

This is another thing for the consideration of the "Greater Harrisburg" during the summer season two or three trained guards to look after the girls and boys who are using the river now more than ever before.

There is much for this new association organized for the development of the State Industrial of guards to look after the girls and boys who are using the river now more than ever before.

There is much for this new association organized for the development of the State Industrial of guards to look after the girls and boys who are using the river now more than ever before.

There is much for this new association organized for the development of the State Industrial organized for the development of the State Industrial organized for the development of the State Industrial logs we arise to remark that we don't have a summer season two or three trained guards to look after the girls and boys who are using the river now more than every before.

There is much for this new association organized for the development of the State Industrial organized for the development of th

THE CARTOON OF THE DAY

NOW TO PUT UNCLE SAM ON THE MAP

ACCOUNTS DE ROLL OF THE COUNTY OF THE COUNTY

Evening Chat

"Three-fourths of the counties of the State are enforcing the dog license law and are affording real help to farmers and sheep and cattle raisers and there is no reason why the others should is no reason why the others should not do likewise," declared Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, the State game commission secretary, to-day. "The State has required dogs in the boroughs and in the townships to be assessed and licensed the same as in the city and there are men who would be glad to pay the kecnes fee if the authorities would bestir themselves. The point is raised that the act is unconstitutional, is that the act is unconstitutional, is the attempt general's department has ruled otherwise and we have a unit demand for the enforcement of the law which will do more toward helping sheep raising than any other from the farmers, the State Grange and other organizations. You will find that farmers who have raised sheep for years declare that stray dogs are the worst enemies of cattle. The license act will not only enable people to spot unlicensed dogs, but also bring in revenue. What many object to is the fee to be paid constables for killing dogs. But if dogs kill sheep they cost the county money just the same. I look for the time to come soon when every dog, whether city or country owned to be licensed and it will be a lasting benefit to everyone owning sheep or interested in game propagation."

Officers who are on recruiting duty throughout the State report that in spite of good wages and good positions quite a number of men who have served in the United States army or in National Guard organizations are applying for re-enlistment. Some of the not do likewise," declared Dr. Joseph served in the United States army or in National Guard organizations are applying for re-enlistment. Some of the men who have been recruited have served in the very country in which the Pennsylvania Guardsmen are stationed and are very particular as to what organizations they are assigned.

